SUNDAY OF LENT

"His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me." - Jn 2:17

Stewardship

Everyday Stewardship

Can you recite the Ten Commandments by heart? Several years ago a national US survey found more people could identify the ingredients in a Big Mac and name the children in the Brady Bunch television show than recite the Ten Commandments. Of course, being able to recite them is not nearly as important as living a life in harmony with them. However, if we simply live to not break them then we are only living out half of our discipleship.

Every commandment calls us to action beyond the simplicity of its words. We are not to kill, but we are also called to support life. We are not to steal, but we are also to share what we have freely. We are to have no other Gods before our God, but we also need to actively praise and glorify Him.

To live a moral life is to do more than follow rules and laws. It is to actively live in a way that gives witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ. This way of living is stewardship. As we focus more on the penitential message of Lent, we need to not just reflect on what we have done wrong, but equally what we have failed to do. To be given so much by a loving God and not share those things with God and His people is wrong as well. Perhaps as we reflect on these things we might find ourselves adding something to our lives that will last for many Lenten seasons to come.

Men's Discernment Retreat

"Listening to the Voice of God"

The Men's Lenten Discernment Retreat is a retreat for men ages 18-30 who are seriously thinking about their vocation and who have the desire to courageously give their lives to Christ. This retreat is an opportunity to set some time out in silence to listen to the voice of God in your life; receive guidance for the discernment process; learn the tools of discernment, and sharpen your discerning skills. There will be time for prayer, reflection, and rest. The Men's Discernment Retreat will be held on March 23-25 (Palm Sunday Weekend) at St. Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology. There is no cost to attend but registration is necessary. Registration deadline is March 19th. For more information and to register online, contact the vocations office: 270-683-1545, jason.mcclure@pastoral.org.

St. Thomas More Seminarian, Chris Kight

On Saturday, February 10, Bishop Medley instituted four of our seminarians into the Ministries of Lector and Acolyte at St. Stephen Cathedral. Prior to ordination to the priesthood, a man must be instituted first as a Lector, then as an Acolyte, and then as a Transitional Deacon. Corey Bruns, Chris Kight and Martin Ma Na Ling were instituted as Lectors, and Stephen Van Lal Than was instituted as Acolyte.

Chrism Mass

Bishop William F. Medley will celebrate the annual Chrism Mass on Tuesday, March 27 at 6:30pm at the Owensboro Sportscenter. During this Mass, all the sacred oils the diocese will use throughout the next year – the Oil of Catechumens, the Oil of the Sick and the Sacred Chrism – will be distributed. On this same day, the Cathedral will host guided tours beginning at 3pm until 6pm. St. Stephen Cathedral will be open all day for visitors and pilgrims, so self-guided tours are always welcomed. Knowledgeable docents will be able to take groups or couples for a 20 minute view of the architecture, history and faith-filled symbols that are part of the worship space.

forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us

Why Do We Do That?
Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: After attending our parish retreat and feeling much better and stronger about my faith, I want to make this Lent worthwhile. What can I do to keep the spirit and practice of Lent?

Answer: You've already taken the first step by going on the parish retreat. It is important for us to "tune up" our faith, taking some time to renew ourselves through prayer, meditation and education. By deepening our knowledge and understanding of faith, we are often better attuned to its richness and meaning for our life.

Lent is an intense retreat, a forty-day period of reflection and penance that prepares us to celebrate the passion, death and resurrection of Christ. Our communication with God and our awareness of him is the purpose of prayer. Setting aside extra time each day helps intensify the season. Prayer includes daily Mass, Stations of the Cross, communal penance services and private confession. Making restitution for sin as well as disciplining our hearts and minds to focus on God is the purpose of penance. It helps us restore a sense of balance to our souls, thrown off kilter by sin. Penance includes personal sacrifice, self-denial, fasting, almsgiving and charitable works. Finally, spiritual practices help us sharpen our understanding and insight into the meaning and understanding of our faith. When you take your faith seriously, you do what is necessary to follow Jesus more closely, to integrate your life and your faith more carefully.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

How seriously do we take the Ten Commandments? Many today adopt a free spirit approach to life and resist conforming their thoughts and actions to established guidelines and principles. We all need direction. Those who travel realize how much easier journeys can be when equipped with the proper directions. The Ten Commandments are God's proper directions for us to assist us in living our lives as his children. We are given the example of Jesus, the living temple. Jesus allows us to share in his intimate relationship with his Father so that we can more quickly find our way to him. Guidelines and structure are important. Lent reminds us we are created in a certain way and are meant to live our lives in God.
