Palm
SUNDAY

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it.
And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

Stewardship

Everyday Stewardship

I read a story recently about a teacher who donated a kidney to one of her former students. This tremendous act of selflessness came about because the young person had lost most of the function his kidneys due to an illness. Literally, that teacher gave the gift of life to someone who wasn't her own child or another family member. This is certainly radical stewardship.

How far would you go to give of yourself so that another might live? Would you have to love him or her like your own child or parent? No one can deny it would be a difficult decision, especially if your giving put your own health at risk.

Reflecting on these things helps to provide some perspective on the crucifixion of Jesus. Not only did he suffer tremendously at the hands of the Romans, he gave his life for us so we might live forever. What does true stewardship look like? The cross is a symbol to us of total surrender. When we are called to give of ourselves in ordinary ways in daily life we sometimes hesitate and think twice. Perhaps when we are unsure we should look to the cross and there we can find our strength. And then when the call comes to truly sacrifice and place our trust in God, we may have already developed a lifestyle that makes responding, "Yes," that much easier.

Prayer for Those Receiving the Easter Sacraments

Let us pray for our catechumens and candidates.
 God of the Samaritan Women, the Man Born Blind and Lazarus,
 You show yourself in many ways.
 Most often in ways we cannot see until we look with eyes of faith.
 Continue to bless these catechumens and candidates who will receive the Church's sacraments
 during the upcoming Season of Easter.
 Fill their lives and hearts with your unending love and grace.
 Help us to continue to be models of living Christian lives and grant them the endurance to continue to race to the resurrection.
 We ask all this in the name of Jesus, your Son who reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, for ever and ever.
 Amen.

STM NEWS & OTHER NEWS

Pastoral Council Nominations

The weekends of April 8th and 15th, begin the nomination process for four Pastoral Council positions. Nomination forms will be available in the pews during all Masses. Forms will also be available in the parish office. You may also submit nominations by phone or email to Jill Langston in the parish office at 270-534-9000 or jill@stm.org. The deadline for submitting nominations is Monday, April 16th. St. Thomas More uses a Leadership Discernment process for selecting new Pastoral Council members.

No 5:30 Saturday Mass Next Weekend

DIOCESAN NEWS

Stories of Hope and Healing: Rebuilding After Divorce

The offices of Marriage & Family Life and Tribunal are collaborating on Stories of Hope and Healing: Rebuilding After Divorce, an informal panel discussion where panelists will share witness stories from their own experience of divorce. Sessions are scheduled in four locations across the diocese to allow multiple opportunities to attend. (The Tribunal Office will conduct a follow-up session in each location a month later to offer information regarding declarations of invalidity.)

Monday, April 9 @ St. Thomas More, Paducah-6:30pm
Tuesday, April 17 @ St. Romuald, Hardinsburg-6:30pm
Tuesday, April 24 @ Holy Spirit, Bowling Green-6:30pm
Tuesday, May 1 @ Our Lady of Lourdes, Owensboro-6:30pm

Find these dates and the follow-up sessions by visiting owensborodiocese.org/family-life.

Encountering the Gift of Marriage

The office of Marriage & Family Life would like to invite all married couples in the Diocese to Encountering the Gift of Marriage retreat being held April 13-15, 2018, at Kenlake Resort Lodge in Hardin, Kentucky. The retreat will be led by Bob Perron, co-founder of Catholic Marriage and Family, Inc., who will use humor and personal experiences to encourage and inspire couples. Encountering the Gift of Marriage offers married couples a chance to get away and deepen their relationship in a beautiful, relaxing setting, and includes Saturday evening Mass, social times, and a chance for confession. Registration link can be found at owensborodiocese.org/family-life.

Chrism Mass

Bishop William F. Medley will celebrate the annual Chrism Mass on Tuesday, March 27 at 6:30pm at the Owensboro Sportscenter. During this Mass, all the sacred oils the diocese will use throughout the next year – the Oil of Catechumens, the Oil of the Sick and the Sacred Chrism – will be distributed. On this same day, the Cathedral will host guided tours beginning at 3pm until 6pm. St. Stephen Cathedral will be open all day for visitors and pilgrims, so self-guided tours are always welcomed. Knowledgeable docents will be able to take groups or couples for a 20 minute view of the architecture, history and faith-filled symbols that are part of the worship space.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: Where do Palm Sunday palms come from and where should they go?

Answer: The Palm Sunday celebration has ancient origins. Beginning the liturgy "outside" the church, we symbolically reenact Christ's entry into Jerusalem. The crowds in ancient Israel waved palm branches - a symbol of royalty - to welcome Jesus. These days, obtaining palms takes a lot of planning and coordination, as hundreds of thousands of churches worldwide need them on the same day! Many in the United States order palms from Florida, California, Texas, or Central America. Many companies stress the sustainability of their production and the just wages paid to their workers.

The palms used on Palm Sunday are blessed at Mass. This means they shouldn't end up in the trash! Many people weave palms into crosses or families display them in their homes. If you do not plan on displaying your palms throughout the year, they should be burned, buried, or left at the church. In the final case, the palms are burned to provide the ashes for next year's Ash Wednesday service.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Today some of the most poignant themes of human life come into clear central focus: the feeling of being praised and honored, fear, anxiety, betrayal, despair, doubt, uncertainty, trust, hope, sadness, separation, suffering, death, determination, and courage. These are the emotions and realities that every human being wrestles with often. Jesus, the Son of God, encounters them all. As we journey through life, we have to confront the existential meaning of each of these things. How do they fit into the bigger picture? Jesus shows us most clearly that even those things we fear the most lose their power when we discover that we are being led to new life. Suffering is redemptive. Sin and death give way to grace and life and God's unconditional love conquers all. May we see in Jesus' Way of the Cross the path of truth we all must follow.

God did not come to explain suffering. He came to fill it with His presence.

- Paul Claudel
