Week at a Glance

Stewardship

Everyday Stewardship

What do you own and what owns you? You can find this question asked many times in several different contexts. Are you looking to find some kind of financial freedom?

How about trying to live simply in a complex world? Has a mountain of stuff invaded your home garage to the point where parking a car inside is only a dream?

The early Church practiced a radical form of fellowship called koinonia, which literally means “sharing in common.” Those who had homes and other major possessions would sell them and then place the proceeds in the care of the Apostles to be shared with the entire community. People focus mostly on the fact that people sold all their possessions for the benefit of the community. However the real point is the action that occurred after every selling: the proceeds were given to Church authority, in essence, to God first. I wasn’t just selling my house and then giving the money to random people. My offering was to God and it was for the Apostles (those who personally encountered Jesus and now represented him on earth) to decide how to divide up the wealth.

Why do such a thing? One could say it was so that no one wanted for anything. If we push that thinking too far, as some in history have done, we can create a system that takes from some to give to others. Nothing was taken from anyone in that first Christian community. It was freely given. And perhaps the reason why people were moved to do so lies at the heart of stewardship: because all we have already belongs to God anyway.

STM NEWS & OTHER NEWS

Students and Community Learning to End Bullying

Throughout the day on Wednesday, April 18th, Author Tom Thelen will be speaking to St. Mary School System students on bullying prevention and student leadership. Tom is the author of VICTIMPROOF: The Student's Guide to End Bullying, a book that shows students how to drop the victim mindset and how to stand up to bullying. Tom has spoken at over 500 schools and youth conferences and has been featured on PBS, CBS, and FOX.

As a youth speaker, Tom's message takes students on a journey through his own life story, a normal "face in the crowd" kid who never struggled with drugs or alcohol, but instead lived with a victim mindset. Thankfully, one teacher stepped in and helped him break free from the bullying cycle. Today, Tom travels America showing students how to stand up to bullying and how to "BE THE CHANGE!"

A parent and community session with Tom Thelen will be held at 6:00 PM Wednesday evening, April 18 at St. Mary High School. All are invited and encouraged to attend.

A special thank you to Home Floors and Kitchen for sponsoring this speaker and curriculum.

Mary Beth Mueller, mother of Barb (Terry) Larbes, passed away Wednesday, March 21, 2018. May God welcome her home and comfort her family in their time of sorrow.

Recent Baptisms

Blessings and congratulations to Anna Elizabeth Lynn, daughter of Dillon and Lauren Lynn, who was baptized on Saturday, March 24, at St. Thomas More.

Welcome to our newest parishioners Easter Vigil marks the completion of RCIA

 Easter Vigil marks the completion of RCIA for the year. Those who began this journey last fall were welcomed into the Church as the newest members of Saint Thomas More Parish.

A reception was held after Easter Vigil to further welcome them to our parish. The group who completed RCIA and who are now members of Saint Thomas More parish are: Helen Allen, Casey Crane, Steve Crump, Lisa Hoppmann, Emily Roark, Joe Roark and Carl Schoensiegel.

If you see any of our new parishioners - not only those listed here, but also anyone who you don't regularly see - introduce yourself, shake their hand, tell them you're glad they came. A personal welcome is meaningful.

Upcoming Youth Activities
