Jesus offers a quintessential stewardship statement in today's Gospel reading: "Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing." Jesus Christ offers us the fullness of eternal life. Do our lives reveal that this is what we want? Do we believe that by hearing the Word of the Lord and responding we not only produce "good fruit," but abide in the very life of God?

A LOOK AT...

Who Does That?

Have you ever wondered who makes sure the ushers are in place at Mass? What about those Greeters? How do they know where to stand and what to do? There are many working parts of a Mass! Our new ministry, Hospitality Coordinator, is a very valuable member of each and every Mass. They are there to ensure all spots are filled and to make sure nothing is missed! Thank you to this new group of ministers for being faithful servants by helping to make every Mass flow smoothly. But we need YOU! Please consider volunteering to be a Hospitality Coordinator. Contact Melisa Mast in the office by email at mmast@stmore.org or by phone at 270.534.9000 for more information! Each and every parishioner is needed to serve as stewards

"I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me."
John 10:14

Mary Mother of God

Monday, May 21 has been declared the Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church. This memorial will be celebrated every year on the Monday following Pentecost. Mary's motherhood is linked to Pentecost in a special way because as the mystical Spouse of the Holy Spirit she is "the perfect image of what it means to be a disciple of Christ".

Adorers Needed

When you look upon the Blessed Eucharist, you look upon Jesus, the Son of God. "Indeed, this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks upon the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life. Him I will raise up on the last day." (Jn 6:40) Many time slots for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament are in need of a second Adorer. Please take a few minutes to look over the current schedule and then contact the office if you would like to schedule your hour.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: My best friend is Lutheran and is a good Christian. I would like her to be my child's sponsor, but I'm wondering, does she have to be a practicing Catholic?

Answer: The practice of two godparents for an infant's baptism goes back to the time when church law and civil law were one and the same in Europe. If anything did happen to the parents, the custody and well-being of the child became the responsibility of the godparents. Adult baptism required that one have a sponsor from the church who would act as a guide or mentor, in bringing the person to faith.

Today, being a godparent has no legal implications. It is a spiritual matter. But at least one of the godparents must be a practicing Catholic. The other is called a Christian witness. This distinction recognizes the difference between faith and religion. A Christian can be a witness because of their relationship to God (faith), but the Catholic is a mentor in the practice of the religion. In any event, it is vital that parents give serious consideration to the people they choose to be a child's godparents. That choice should be based on practice of faith, solid moral character, and ability to give good example. Too often the choice is left to whose turn it is in the family, or to friends that parents wish to honor or acknowledge in some way. Your choice of godparents is the first lesson of faith you teach your child. Make it count!
