Stewardship

DISCIPLES
RESPONDING

Sixth Sunday of Easter May 5/6, 2018

Sometimes we minimize the power of love by cute pop songs and slogans that mean little without action. However, we can never underestimate the power of love. Love can tear down barriers between people, change tears to laughter, and mend relationships torn apart by sin.

No option exists for disciples of Jesus Christ to not love others. Not only are we commanded to do so, but love is a gift we must pass on freely. If we give of our time, talent, and treasure, but choose not to love, we cannot claim to be truly committed disciples and good stewards. As this Easter season draws ever closer to an end, we must allow our love to bear witness to the source of all love, the Risen Jesus. This is our calling until, as the words of one popular song from the 70's states, "the one who left us here returns for us at last."

A LOOK AT... Homebound Ministry

MINISTRY FOCUS

Have you ever visited a grandparent, parent, aunt or uncle in the nursing home? As you might remember, it can be a lonely and forgotten place for many people. We have many parishioners who have made their home in their final years at one of our local nursing homes. Our Homebound Ministry is a way that we at St. Thomas More Church can help each of those people stay connected not only to the people of our parish, but also to Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Eucharist. Do you want to be forgotten when you make that move? Kitty Anderson said "I have received far more from ministering to the home bound than I could have ever imagined. Everyone is so appreciative, and their inspiring faith, their love of Christ in the Eucharist and their very lives are an inspiring witness to me."

Contact Melisa Mast by email at mmast@stmore.org or by phone at 270.534.9000 for more information!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: What are the fruits of the Holy Spirit?

Answer: St. Paul first enumerates these in the Letter to the Galatians. There are twelve of them. They are charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity. He explains in chapter 5 the proper use of freedom. The Galatians were divided within the community and the result is a litany of vice and corruption. The law of love had been set aside and in its place greed, selfishness, division, and other diseases of the spirit are given free reign. These are the evils that enslave us, denying us the basic freedom we need to live our faith. Freedom is not a license to give in to the baser drives of our being, but rather an ability to choose the higher gifts and the life of faith. It is not a freedom from, but rather a freedom for. We are freed from the slavery of sin for the life of faith. The virtues St. Paul lists are the very ones that we often associate with saints, who live these virtues in extraordinary ways in very ordinary lives. The fruits of the Spirit are the way we measure our growth in holiness and in faith.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes the fruits of the Holy Spirit as perfections that the Spirit forms in us as "the first fruits of eternal glory" (#1832). In other words, these are the virtues that are the result of living our faith and bringing it to perfection.

Love doesn't mean doing extraordinary or heroic things. It means knowing how to do ordinary things with tenderness.

First Holy Communion at Saint Thomas More Pray for these children as they continue their faith journey

Last weekend, Saint Thomas More children received their First Communion. First Holy Communion is a special time for families and the parish as a whole. It often calls to mind our own First Holy Communion and reminds us that God is always with us.

We continue to pray that they grow in their faith in the coming years in preparation for Confirmation.

Congratulations to all these young children and their families.
