DISCIPLES RESPONDING

Pentecost Sunday
May 19/20, 2018

Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit, the birth of the Church and the beginning of its mission in the world. Pentecost Sunday reminds us that our lives are filled with the Holy Spirit and God has accomplished creative things in us through this gift. We have been entrusted with this great gift of the Holy Spirit.

Now is a good time to ask: Are we being good stewards of this gift? What creative things have we done to glorify God's accomplishments in us?

A LOOK AT... Sacristans

MINISTRY FOCUS

How Does Fr. Brad Know How Many Hosts to Prepare?

A Sacristan is a very special minister who prepares the altar, the hosts, makes sure there are enough Eucharistic Ministers present for each Mass and communicates any special circumstances to all affected. Sacristans gain a deeper involvement in, and appreciation of, the Mass, as well as have the opportunity to form more personal relationships with the clergy and other ministers. Do you know someone who would make a good Sacristan? Contact Jim Hess at jhess@stmores.org for more information.

PRAYER FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Spirit, fan into flame the gifts I received in my Baptism and Confirmation. I want to receive the fire of Your love as Your disciples did at Pentecost. Come with wonder and awe, with wisdom, understanding, and counsel, with courage and faith in You. Holy Spirit, may my actions witness to Your presence in my life. Help me to see the ways my strengths can serve others in their weakness. In all my interactions, I want to radiate love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Breathe new life into the world through me. Amen.

Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church

Pope Francis has established a new feast devoted to Mary as the “Mother of the Church,” to be celebrated on the Monday (May 21, 2018) after Pentecost. The decree observes that the veneration of Mary as Mother of the Church has ancient roots in Catholic tradition, reaching back to St. Augustine and St. Leo the Great. The title, the document says, is rooted in New Testament accounts about Mary. “She became the tender Mother of the Church which Christ begot on the cross, handing on the Spirit,” the decree said. “Christ, in turn, in the beloved disciple, chose all disciples as ministers of his love towards his Mother, entrusting her to them so that they might welcome her with filial affection.”

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: How do we know when we receive the Holy Spirit?

Answer: My brothers and I discovered something as we got older. There’s a little bit of dad in us. Each time we catch ourselves using one of his gestures, expressions, or comments about a meal, we say, "I'm getting more like Dad!" Many laughs and good-natured kidding have come out of it. Mom loves it, and so does Dad, although I doubt he'd admit it!

When we are confirmed, we receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. There is no radical change in us that makes us seem suddenly different. Over a period of time, we come to see that there is a little bit of the Spirit in us. We catch ourselves using the gifts, and often end up wondering where a bit of wisdom came from, or why we were so patient or we feel an intensity in our prayer. Perhaps we felt drawn to deepen our spiritual life or found courage in witnessing to our faith. That’s when we know we have received the Holy Spirit. We take on his image. Yes, we grow in age, grace, and wisdom, but we also grow in our awareness and understanding of the working of God in our life. We become more godlike, realizing we’re getting more and more like God. Our thoughts, words, and actions carry that quality and others, too, see it in us. You might call it holiness. But be confident! There’s a little bit of him in all of us.

The wind and fire of the Holy Spirit must continually break down those barriers that we continue to build between us; we must continually pass from Babel to Pentecost.

--Pope Benedict XVI
