Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 30/July 1, 2018

“If I but touch his clothes, I will be cured”

Many of us learned a valuable lesson in trust and faith from our childhood when you were told to stand up straight, with our arms stretched out and then instructed to fall back without bending our knees. It may have taken several attempts before we finally stayed straight, fell back and then were caught. But eventually, we learned to trust.

The disciples of Jesus witnessed many wonders before they had faith in Him. Mark tells us of a woman who heard about Jesus and believed that he would cure her if she just touched His clothes. She managed to touch His garment and was cured. But Jesus told her “Your faith has saved you.” He told the same thing to others who believed in him and were cured of illness and evil in their lives. When we believe in the goodness and mercy of our loving God and we believe in His desire to use all He has given us to the best of our ability for ourselves and for others, by imitating Jesus, we can be confident that He is saying to us “Your faith has saved you.”

Freedom consists not in doing what we like, but in having the right to do what we ought.
- St. John Paul II

ST. MARIA GORETTI

Have you heard of the patron saint of purity? Born to peasant parents in southern Italy, St. Maria Goretti was a devout girl whose life was marked by difficulty. Her father died when she was nine, leaving her single mother with six mouths to feed. Two neighbors helped on the family farm, including a young man named Alessandro. He began making crude comments towards Maria. She repeatedly denied him. After several years, Alessandro attacked Maria to force himself on her. She resisted and, in his anger, Alessandro stabbed her. Maria died from the wounds' infections, but her last words were "I forgive Alessandro Serenelli, and I want him with me in heaven forever." While he was in prison, Maria appeared to Alessandro with a bouquet of roses, one for each wound he inflicted. In a true miracle of mercy, Alessandro experienced repentance, became a Franciscan brother after his release, and was later present at Maria's canonization.

St. Maria Goretti, pray for us!

STM NEWS & OTHER NEWS

Be Part of our Upcoming Pictorial Directory Photos!

With a goal of 100%, we hope all families will sign up. Our directory will allow us to connect names and faces and stay connected. Photography times are still available (September 11, 12, 13, 26, 27 and 28. Times are 1:00 pm - 8:00 pm) – visit our website www.stmore.org to sign up now. WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: There seems to be a lot of division in some Christian churches over moral issues, especially abortion, ordination, and end-of-life care. If all Christians follow the Gospel of Jesus, why is there such a difference of opinion?

Answer: There is always a struggle between culture and religion, and part of that struggle is politics. To be politically correct means that you must embrace the secular virtue of the moment so that you are "enlightened," "sensitive," "aware," and, most importantly, "open-minded." Unfortunately, common sense can be sacrificed in the race to be "PC."

Some factions within Christian denominations have tried to redefine tradition, history, and biblical teaching to bend it around the politically correct religious thinking of the day. On the life issues that you mention, there are those who began with their own conclusions and have tried to bend theology around their conclusions. This is possible in part because of a lack of a central teaching authority and partly because society has become apathetic to these issues. It will result in a lot of division, factions, and schisms. The Gospel calls all believers to embrace the truth, to turn from sin, and to seek holiness and justice. No matter how hard some may try, a square peg will not fit a round hole. The camel cannot fit through the eye of the needle.

Prayer for Independence Day

Dear God,
 as we celebrate today with fireworks and festivals,
 help us never to forget the reason for our joy.
 Help us remember that our rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness were signed into our heritage with the willing blood of American patriots.
 Most of all, help us remember that the rights of all people are more than words on a document,
 and that all people have rights
 because you have given us the dignity of human life.
 Grant freedom to all,
 and give us the strength to protect the rights of others.
 Amen.

Mini Edition

St. Thomas More Feast Day Fun An evening of food, fun and fellowship

Last week we had a great turnout for our St. Thomas More Feast Day celebration. Thursday evening, our regular 6 p.m. daily Mass was followed by a pot luck get together in the Parish Hall.

We had one of the best problems that any event could have - we nearly ran out of food!

Nearly 150 people attended the dinner after Mass. We had a great time and while we nearly ran out of hot dogs and hamburgers, we had tons of other food that parishioners brought - great sides, pastas and of course, yummy deserts.

Thanks to everyone who came out and made the evening so much fun and thanks also to those who were able to bring a side dish or dessert. We couldn't have done it without you!
