Week at a Glance

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 7/8, 2018

When we find ourselves skeptical all the time, unable to trust anyone or anything, we have a problem. Trust is essential in a conversion process, and we all are in a continual process of turning toward and moving closer to God. If we find it hard to trust the promises of God, then we will find ourselves lost and bewildered.

Sometimes the biggest obstacle to a stewardship way of life is lack of trust. This is true for individuals as well as parish communities.

- Do we believe that God will provide for our needs?
- Do we believe that if we give it all away we will receive even more in abundance?
- Do we believe that there is true freedom in complete surrender?

Many will say that the principles of a stewardship way of life sound good spiritually and are inspiring. But when really faced with the tough decisions, they will fall back on placing trust in themselves, material goods, or money. Are we true disciples and good stewards as we claim? Where do you place your trust? Have you chosen a path where you are all in or are you still keeping something for yourself because you just aren't sure all this talk of "consider the lilies" is real or just pretty words on a page?

ST. KATERI TEKAKWITHA

On July 14th, we celebrate the feast of the "Lily of the Mohawks." St. Kateri Tekakwitha is the first Native American woman to be canonized. Orphaned by a smallpox outbreak, Kateri survived with severe scarring and impaired eyesight. Despite tragedy, she was a devout girl at a young age, often building crosses from sticks in the woods. When she was 18, she began secret instruction in the Catholic faith with French missionaries. Her commitment to Christianity and vow of virginity was misunderstood and ridiculed by her fellow villagers. She escaped to a nearby mission, where she attended daily Mass, taught the children, and cared for the sick and the elderly. Sometimes the greatest misunderstandings can come from those closest to us. Like St. Kateri, God invites us to be faithful to our commitments of faith and to always respond in love.

2018 Sophia Award

Do you know someone at St. Thomas More who is sixty-five or older and who embraces and lives a life of stewardship – giving of their time, talent and treasure? The Diocese of Owensboro created the Sophia Award, which is an award to celebrate someone from each parish who exemplifies stewardship in their life. Bishop Medley will celebrate Mass at 2:00 pm, Sunday, September 9, 2018 at St. Stephen Cathedral with all of the award recipients. To nominate someone go to owensborodiocese.org/sophia/. The nomination deadline is July 16.

Remember, only 3,000 tickets will be sold. For more information on how to obtain your raffle tickets, please call 502-34-1586 or 502-348-1578 or go to our website at www.scnfamily.org.

VOCARE

VOCARE is an annual celebration of vocations to priesthood and religious life in the diocese. This year is our fifth annual VOCARE event and it takes place Friday, September 14, 2018 at the Owensboro Convention Center. Tickets and tables will be made available for purchase beginning June 1. Please save the date and make plans to join us!

Bequests and Wills

The simplest way to make a planned gift is by naming Saint Thomas More Church in your will. A bequest is a meaningful way to support our work without affecting your cash flow during your lifetime. Your attorney can include it when you prepare or revise your will or you can add a codicil at any time.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: We are considering homeschooling our children. Does this present a problem when it is time for them to receive the sacraments? What must we do?

Answer: Homeschooling is legal in all 50 states, and like other types of education, has its advantages and its drawbacks. There are many factors to consider, and each family has to decide what the best way to educate its children is. With religious education, many dioceses have a formal policy that outlines procedures and expectations, some of which include more than just academic information. Call the religious education office to find out what they are for your area.

In general, though, an appointment with your parish priest to discuss your situation is the best first step. An opportunity to discuss what is available, what the expectations are for each sacrament, and how you can best prepare your child helps make your time of preparation more effective. The priest can direct you to good catechetical materials, parent information classes, and other choices and possibilities for your child. All parents need to be part of their child's religious education, taking a lead in instilling the values and beliefs of their faith. Communication and information helps us all to teach and preach the Gospel as Jesus did.

Mini Edition

Here Comes Fall

Hard to believe but school starts in one month

It seems like summer just really got underway but here we are with a month left before school starts for most on August 9. In addition to school starting, Saint Thomas More has several upcoming events in the fall and leading up to the end of the year.

Our Youth Activities will gear up again weekly starting in mid-August. Keep an eye on the bulletin, our website and this page in particular, for dates and more information about our youth programs.

RCIA classes begin August 30 with a welcome and introduction class. If you know anyone interested in learning more about our Catholic Faith, let the office know or have them get in touch with us for more information.

Our Stewardship Commitment weekend is coming up in September. Now would be a good time to start thinking about the gifts and talents that God has given to you and how you can use those to help in one of our many ministry opportunities.

On October 28, we will have our 2nd Annual Parish Fall Festival Picnic. Fun games, great food, a beer garden, hay rides and more! Mark your calendars now!

Finally, just as a reminder... there are just 170 days left before Christmas!
