15 Ways To Show Evangelism and Stewardship This Summer

- Invite a single friend over for a meal.
- Turn off the TV, phone, and computer, and spend an hour devoted to someone you love.
- Attend an extra Mass on a weekday this month.
- Abstain from something you like – meat, a latte, a cold drink – on Fridays and save the money for a charity.
- Take your rosary with you for an early morning walk.
- Recycle more.
- Think of a charity which is amply blessed at Christmas. Remember it with a gift mid-year.
- Each day, say a prayer for one of the world's trouble spots.
- Surprise an old friend with a phone call.
- Buy or pick a flower for someone without a "reason".
- Take your family to a farmer's market if in season.
- Stop for a moment during your busy day and enjoy an ice cream cone or other favorite treat.
- If you hear a great homily, tell the homilist.
- Splurge on some produce and buy enough to share with someone in need.
- On occasion, try turning your prayer before meals into a spontaneous prayer of thanks, using your own words.

ST. SHARBEL MAKHLUF

On July 24th, we celebrate the feast of a saint who ran away from home! St. Sharbel was born Yussef Antoun Makhluf in the Lebanese countryside in the mid-1800's. His life was a simple one, attending school, caring for the family cow, and taking long solitary walks to contemplate the beauty of creation. When his family pressured him to marry, the young man quietly left home without a word. He traveled on foot to a nearby monastery. When his family caught wind of where he had gone, the decision had been made. After being ordained a priest, St. Sharbel still showed a longing for solitude. He received permission to become a hermit. His reputation for holiness, however, led to a busier life than he might have liked! Many people sought him for advice and blessings. St. Sharbel Makhluf's life reminds us that a life of prayer -- even an unconventional one -- is attractive!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: July 26 is the feast of Joachim and Anna. Who are they and what do we know about them?

Answer: Joachim and Anna are the parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, yet there is absolutely no biblical reference to them whatsoever. So where do we get their names, and what is their story?

Their names are found in an apocryphal (hidden) gospel known as "The Infancy Gospel of James." Apocryphal, or hidden gospels, consist of accounts of Jesus' life that were ultimately not accepted as inspired works, and thus were not included in the Bible. However, they sometimes captured the Christian imagination, spilling into the devotional dimension of the community. James' infancy gospel begins with the parents of Mary and their desire for a child. In their prayer and petitions to God, they are heard and given the blessings of a child, whom they named Mary. While we have no idea who Mary's parents really were, the fact that we celebrate the feast of Joachim and Anna indicates that the bond of family love is important in the Christian life. Long before Grandparents' Day was established, the church had a feast that honored the presumed grandparents of Jesus. While their names are part of non-inspired apocryphal legends, the fact of the Savior's human ancestry is not. Christ, the incarnate Word, dwelt among us in the flesh in a human family. In honoring the grandparents of Jesus, we really proclaim our faith in the Incarnation -- God becoming human!

Remember in Prayer...

Almighty and eternal God, those who take refuge in you will be glad and forever will shout for joy. Protect these soldiers as they discharge their duties.
