Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord

Today's Gospel reading reveals the story of the magi who come from the east to pay homage to Jesus, the newborn king. The story of the magi teaches Christian stewards three Christmas truths: God, in the person of Jesus Christ, is present and active in the world, and good stewards strive daily to follow his star. Second, each of us, no matter our circumstances or station in life, has a gift to bring to the Lord. And finally, our life's journey always leads to Christ, even when at times we do not know where the road is taking us.

We follow all sorts of people and organizations on social media. Friends. Celebrities. An athlete, charity, or business. At times, we may think before following: do we want the additional postings or emails? Typically, following a business or celebrity does not require much of a commitment. We may or may not read every post that comes through on our feed. We might respond, or we may not. Even when we do, our response is often as simple as hitting the "like" button.

Following Jesus is a very different sort of thing. To follow Jesus means to enter into a relationship with him and to exercise good stewardship over that relationship. When Jesus asks us to follow him, we know that doing so is to have an impact in our lives. As with any friendship, if our relationship with Jesus is to grow, we will have to spend time with and pay attention to him.

How will you truly follow Jesus in 2018?

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: Besides the Wise Men, what is significant about the Epiphany?

Answer: Epiphany means "manifestation," or public display. The feast is usually celebrated January 6. In the US, it is celebrated on the Sunday nearest to January 6. It originates from a story unique to Matthew (2:1-12). Magi from the East come to offer homage to the newborn King, presenting him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. This part of Matthew's infancy narrative differs from Luke's account of the birth of Jesus. In Luke there are no Magi, star, nor gifts. Luke has Jesus being born in a stable after Mary and Joseph's long travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Matthew seems to have the family living in a house in Bethlehem, where the Magi find them. Why these differences? They stem from the needs and concerns of the audience the authors were addressing, as well as the theological stance of each author. Knowing the original intention helps get at the correct interpretation of the text.

Since Matthew was writing primarily to a Jewish community, his concern was to show that Jesus did not come just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. From his very birth, Jesus not only manifests himself to Jews, but also to Gentiles, who are prominently included in the manifestation, symbolized by the Magi and their journey. This is the most significant aspect of the feast of Epiphany. How do you manifest Jesus to all with whom you come into contact?

Spring Women's Retreat: Martha and Mary

"Essential Questions: What Martha and Mary Can Teach Us" is the theme of a March 16-18 spring women's retreat at Mount Saint Joseph Conference and Retreat Center (located 12 miles west of Owensboro on Hwy. 56). Most discussions of these two Gospel women focus on the frazzled worker Martha compared to her quiet, prayerful sister Mary. We will consider these stories from a different approach. During presentations that peel back the layers of the Gospel stories, quiet reflection, group sharing and celebration of the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist, retreatants will explore the links between Mary and Martha and their own lives. The retreat leader is Ursuline Sister Cheryl Clemons, Vice President for Academic Affairs/Academic Dean for Brescia University. The $180 fee includes meals and accommodations. Commuters can attend for $130. Take 10 percent off if paid in full by Feb. 16. To register, contact Kathy McCarty, 270-229-0206 or e-mail kathy.mccarty@maplemount.org. A brochure can be found at ursulinesmsj.org.

Mini Edition

A New Year Don't let the season of giving end

 The new year has just gotten underway and reflecting back on the previous twelve months, we all have probably taken a few minutes and thanked God for all the things he has given us.

At the end of every year, during the Christmas season, not only do we thank God, but we likely do something for those less fortunate than ourselves. It is a beautiful time of year and everyone and everything seems just a bit brighter and a bit more joyful.

Then, the brunt of winter sets in, the holidays come to a close and we tend to forget those less fortunate. We think a lot about ourselves and all the things we would like to accomplish in the new year, but that spirit of giving seems to fade away. While there is nothing wrong with focusing on what we would like to get done in the new year, we don't realize that food pantries are nearly empty, volunteers are scarce and the bank accounts are stretched for organizations that helped make Christmas merry for others.

Take a moment during the new year and amidst your resolutions, think about including a couple that have less to do with you and more to do with others. Vow to volunteer for a couple of hours a month or next time you are at the grocery store, buy a few extra things and donate them to a local food bank. In short, don't let the season of giving and the Christmas spirit die when the new year rolls around.

Eucharistic Adoration Give God an hour in the New Year

Why not include an expression of your faith amongst your New Year's Resolutions?

Commit to a regular time for Eucharistic Adoration each week. Just email us at adoration@stmore.org. If you can't commit to a regular time, that's okay. We would be happy to include you on our substitute list.

Of course, adorers are welcome anytime even without signing up for a specific hour or day.

Inclement Weather

As winter takes hold in the region, January and February are traditionally the worst months of the season weather-wise.

The last couple of weeks have been very cold and we will likely see some snow and/or ice soon.

If the snow and ice becomes so dangerous that we believe Mass should be canceled (which, even in the worse weather, would be a rarity) we will do our best to keep you informed.

If you have questions about Mass on a particular day, we encourage you to check our Facebook page or our website. Of course, you can also call the parish office for information. However, if the weather does force a cancellation, it is likely staff will not be in the office to answer the phone.

And, if you have the winter blues, just think - spring and warmer weather is only about 10 weeks away!!
