SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son." - Mt 22:2

From Our Stewardship Council

It has been said that God has no grandchildren, only children. Just as we have responsibilities to our Earthly families, our Heavenly Father expects us to contribute to His family. This is stewardship. Before you get overwhelmed and determine that you are too busy to do more- let's discuss what this actually entails. Stewardship is the use of what we have for the good of others- the giving of our time, talents, and treasures. We can all do something, and most of us can do something more than what we are currently committing to God. However, just as children often decide to leave responsibilities to the family up to their parents or siblings, we, as God's children, often shirk our responsibilities knowing that Vicki Volunteers-a-Lot will pick up the slack. Well, Dad's calling us out and telling us to pitch in.

As we approach Commitment Sunday, sit down and pray as a family (remember to include the kids!) to determine what God is calling you to give in the coming year as His children. How can you give of your time, talent, your treasure? You may decide to give your time to lector at Mass, be part of the growing young adult group, or cook for St. Elizabeth Meals. You may be able to lend your talents as a carpenter to make repairs at the church or as a teacher for Faith Formation. Finally, maybe you skip coffee one morning a week and give that money to the church to keep the lights on at Mass!

We are all busy and it's hard to find the time to do more, but Dad's counting on all of us to help out- don't make him come down here!

Vocation Awareness

"I can do all things in him who strengthens me."

Have you ever felt that God might be calling you to a vocation to priesthood or consecrated life but feel like you are not worthy or not capable? St. Paul reminds us that God gives us the strength to follow the plan that he has for our lives. If you feel called to serve God and the Church as a Catholic Priest, contact the Diocese of Owensboro Office of Vocations: 270-683-1545, www.owensborovocations.com or jason.mcclure@pastoral.org

Petition: That from the many called to holiness in Christ, those chosen to follow Him more closely in the priesthood and consecrated life will respond with humble readiness, we pray to the Lord.

Therefore be merciful, even as your Father is also merciful.

-Luke 6:36

7 Reasons to Pray the Rosary Daily

St. Louis de Montfort is considered one of the best writers on the importance of Mariology and praying the Rosary. One of his most influential books is The Secret of the Rosary, and in it has given these 7 reasons why all Catholics should regularly pray the rosary.

Here are his 7 reasons:

- 1) It gradually gives us a perfect knowledge of Jesus Christ
- 2) It purifies our souls, washing away sin
- 3) It gives us victory over all our enemies
- 4) It makes it easy for us to practice virtue
- 5) It sets us on fire with love of Our Blessed Lord
- 6) It enriches us with graces and merits
- 7) It supplies us with what is needed to pay all our debts to God and to our fellow men, and finally, it obtains all kinds of graces for us from Almighty God. *Consider praying a rosary today. Remember that October is the month dedicated to THE HOLY ROSARY.

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: Who is Ignatius of Antioch and what example does he offer us in Christian living as we celebrate his feast day on October 17?

Answer: As Bishop of Antioch, Ignatius witnessed to the faith during the reign of Emperor Trajan, who ruled from 98-117. Persecution of the Christians broke out in Antioch, and Ignatius was captured and taken to Rome for martyrdom in the arena.

On his journey to Rome, Ignatius writes seven letters to various churches. These letters give powerful glimpses into the theology and practice of the early church, along with insights into the role of a bishop as pastoral leader. Ignatius is the first to use the term "Catholic Church" to refer to the various Christian communities of the Roman Empire. The best known of his letters is the one he wrote to the Romans. Ignatius addresses influential Christians who might be tempted to intercede on his behalf, thus sparing him from martyrdom. As Christ willingly offered himself as witness to God's total love, Ignatius, too, desired to be "food for the wild beasts," so that he could become "the pure bread of Christ." Eucharistic living was so crucial to Ignatius that he was willing to die in order to model himself on the Lord who willingly offered all.

Mini Edition

Stewardship and Prayer Commitment Weekend is Nov. 4 - 5

Prayer is the first step toward establishing and maintaining one's unique relationship with God. Even though so many parishioners already have a strong commitment to prayer, studies show us that, in some parishes, 40% of the members do not have a daily commitment to regular prayer. One of the tasks of your parish then, should be to assist all of our parishioners, both young and old, to learn how to pray to God in a way that fits their inclinations, capabilities and lifestyle.

Prayer, whether personal or communal, is not simply something the church asks of us. The time we spend in prayer should be nourishment for our soul and emotional health. Prayer should be gratifying and should help us to experience peace and joy and to instill in us a sense of well-being. Prayer provides guidance and solace. When prayer becomes our daily priority, the problems we face in our families, jobs and personal relationships are put into perspective. But let's face it — we live in a world of “instant everything.” The marketplace sells us e-mail, fax machines, cable channels with movies on demand, cellular phones, and faster and faster Internet connections Will we soon be able to simply “download” our prayers and be done with them? Staying focused on prayer, although challenging, is possible. A commitment to prayer enables us to make it a priority over all the busyness that clutters our lives.

As we near the close to our Stewardship Commitment opportunity for 2018, let us consider the following ways of focusing on prayer in our lives:

- Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
- Attend Mass on a Weekday
- Join the Rosary Prayer Group
- Receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation
- Join a Bible Study Group
- Join the STM Men's Prayer Group
