DISCIPLES RESPONDING

How do we use God's gifts?

"The Earth is the Lord's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it." Ps 24:1

We are all called to be good stewards; however, we must first hear the call. Jesus calls us to many things, but we can simplify these into three major areas. He calls us to share our time in some form, to share our talents with others, and to share our treasure for the building of His Kingdom. God himself bestows these gifts of time, talent and treasure upon us. How we utilize these gifts tells us what kinds of stewards we are becoming.

In basic terms, a steward is someone who is in charge of something that belongs to someone else. Over the past several years here at St. Thomas More Parish, we have learned to become better stewards of the gift of time through prayer, the gift of our talents through ministry, and the gift of treasure through our finances. Thus by returning a portion of these, we are embracing stewardship as a way of life.

Last week we explained that we will combine the commitment of Stewardship into one annual appeal for 2018. You will be hearing from your friends, family members and acquaintances in the bulletin insert each week as they share what stewardship means to them and their life.

Although we are emphasizing stewardship commitments at this particular time of year, remember that stewardship is a process, not an event. We are all called to be the stewards of God's work each and every day of the year.

Vocation Awareness

"Have no anxiety at all, but by prayer and thanksgiving, make your requests known to God."

As we look to the future of our Church, there can be a temptation to grow anxious about the lack of vocations. St. Paul challenges us to have a different attitude. Make a commitment to pray daily that young men have the courage to respond to God's call to the vocation of Holy Priesthood. "Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." If you feel called to serve God and the Church as a Catholic Priest, contact the Diocese of Owensboro Office of Vocations: 270-683-1545, www.owensborovocations.com or jason.mcclure@pastoral.org

I live by the mercy of Jesus, to whom I owe everything and from whom I expect everything. - St. John XXIII

OTHER NEWS

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: Why is the Church against stem cell research, especially if it offers the possibility of cures for diseases like Alzheimer's and Parkinson's?

Answer: Like so many issues, the truth about stem cell research is more complicated than a few sound bites and vague promises of cures. For the Church, the problem is with embryonic stem cell research, not the research itself. The destruction of human life, even for a seemingly noble cause, is never acceptable. The ends cannot justify the means. Stem cells can be obtained in other ways, including from the placenta as well as from adults. So research is possible without the destruction of other life. On the other hand, stem cell research shows much promise, but no concrete results. Some scientists also dispute what diseases might be cured by new discoveries. The research is still in its early stages. The question for our country is whether we should invest a lot of money in research now, looking for cures that will probably remain out of reach for most people, or should we invest that money in other programs with more immediate benefits, especially those that stress prevention and education. It is indeed a complex issue that requires close scrutiny and investigation before we jump to inaccurate conclusions or make decisions based on good, but misinformed, intentions.

NEWS FROM THE DIOCESE

Scripture Sunday October 15

The Bible is a personal gift from God to guide us and Pope Francis has asked all dioceses to designate one Sunday a year as Scripture Sunday. October 14/15 is Scripture Sunday in the Diocese of Owensboro.

Consider:

- Carry your Bibles to Mass (your Protestant friends will wonder what you are up to!). Mark your Bible for the readings of the day and then follow the readings in your Bible during the Liturgy of the Word.
- Each family will receive a bookmark with Lectio Divina guidelines to help them pray the Scriptures along with a blessing of Bibles at the end of Mass.

The Bible is part of our Christian heritage just like the Mass and is one of the ways we encounter Jesus Christ.

Important Notice!

To help protect our children, anyone aware of the abuse of someone under age eighteen is required by law to report this to local law enforcement (1-800-222-5555) or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877-KYSAFE1; 1-877-597-2331).

The Diocese of Owensboro wishes to assist anyone abused by a person working for the Church (paid or volunteer), either past or present. To report such abuse, please call the Pastoral Assistance Coordinator on the confidential phone line (270-852-8380).

The diocesan sexual abuse policy, most recently revised effective July 1, 2014, describes the diocese's response to sexual abuse concerns, and can be found (in the Gathering Space or in the Parish Office) and also on the diocesan web site (www.rcdok.org/safe).

Diocesan Appeal Draws to a Close

Saint Thomas More begins parish stewardship effort

This weekend marks the conclusion of the Diocesan Disciples Response Fund Appeal. The Diocese of Owensboro's annual appeal helps fund Diocesan led efforts such as retirement and healthcare for priests and the cost of seminary school for young men considering the priesthood. Fund also are used for charitable efforts conducted at the Diocesan level.

Disciples Response

Last year, Saint Thomas More parishioners generously exceeded our goal. Fifty-percent of funds raised above our goal are returned to the parish. Funds returned to Saint Thomas More from last year were used to support charitable giving in our own community through gifts to Paducah Cooperative Ministries, the Community Kitchen and more. Prayerfully consider what you can do this year to support the Diocese Fund Appeal.

After this weekend, Saint Thomas More will begin our Stewardship efforts as we launch Disciples Responding. As a companion to the Diocesan Appeal, Saint Thomas More's stewardship efforts are broader, in that we ask parishioners to not only commit to financial giving, but also consider giving of their time, by working in one of our many ministry opportunities and also asking parishioners to look inward and make a personal commitment to prayer in the coming year.

Starting next week, you will see stories from fellow parishioners explaining what stewardship has meant to them in their faith lives as we lead up to Saint Thomas More's Stewardship Commitment weekend on Nov. 4 and 5.

Please take time this weekend to consider how you can financially support our Diocese and then, over the course of the next month, pray about your stewardship commitment to Saint Thomas More.

WELCOME

Every quarter in this space, we will recognize the newest members of our parish. And, just a reminder for those families that are new to Saint Thomas More - stop by the parish office during business hours and pick up a welcome bag.

We also invite you to visit our website at www.stmore.org for Mass schedules, ministry opportunities and more.

Saint Thomas More is glad to have you as part of our faith family!
