THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*The greatest among you
must be your servant.
Whoever exalt themselves
will be humbled;
but whoever
humble themselves will be exalted.*

MATTHEW 23:12

The Greatest Among You
Must Be Your Servant

There is no question that Jesus had a way with words. The Word of the Lord is filled with what we are very familiar with in our society — sound bites if you will, which convey so much meaning. The last verses of today’s Gospel from St. Matthew contain one of those short statements which carry so much more meaning. Jesus says, “The greatest among you must be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted.”

In those two sentences are found the key to a stewardship way of life, which revolve around service and humility. There is no question that these are powerful words. They reveal to us all that we need to understand to be a true disciple of Christ. In his letter to the Philippians St. Paul wrote, “Though He was in the form of God, He did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but EMPTIED HIMSELF, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, HE HUMBLING HIMSELF by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.” - Phil. 2:5-8.

True humility will be ultimately exalted by God. Our society teaches us to strive to reach the top, but Jesus is reminding us that we need to regard others as more important than we are. We have two choices in life perhaps, to be self exalters, or to be God-exalted. Is there any doubt as to what we as Christians should pursue?

If you did not return your Stewardship Commitment form at Mass this weekend, please continue to prayerfully consider what you can do to be God-exalted – you can return your form in the collection plate at any mass the next few weekends or by dropping it by the office.

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: Why do we pray to saints?

Answer: We really don't pray to saints as much as we ask them to pray with and for us. In the same way we ask other people to pray for us, we ask saints for their intercession and their spiritual assistance. So just as I ask my friend to pray, I can also call upon St. Peter, St. Augustine, and St. Catherine and ask their intercession and their prayers. We believe that because the saints are already in heaven they are close to our Lord and can petition him on our behalf for the graces and needs that we have.

But why ask the saints for prayer? Why do we believe it is possible? One of the four marks of the Church (that we pray in the creed) is that the church is ONE, along with holy, catholic, and apostolic. The Church--past, present, and future--is united in faith, purpose, and mission; we are one body, and in Christ all time and all people are united. This is the great communion of saints that highlights the unity of the body of Christ. When we pray, we do so in union with the whole Church: saints and sinners, present and past, in solitude or community. We are one.

NATIONAL VOCATION WEEK

November 5-11

Did you know that in our country, compared to 50 years ago, there are 20,000 fewer priests and 130,000 fewer religious sisters? At the same time, the Catholic population has continued to grow steadily. Many factors have contributed to the decline: growing secularism, a lengthened period of adolescence, attitudes about celibacy, etc. During the week we encourage all Catholics to:

- ◆ Take time to pray for vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.
- ◆ Reflect on our own vocation and strengthen our personal relationship with Christ.
- ◆ Participate in the CALLED BY NAME process.
- ◆ Invite and encourage young people to consider a vocation to priesthood or religious life and to consider participating in our discernment opportunities.
- ◆ Educate our young people about the importance of silent prayer and taking the time to truly listen to God's voice in our hearts.

Do you know a faithful young man who may have a vocation to the priesthood? We believe that our future priests will come from our own parishes and schools, but we need your help to identify them. We're looking for high school students or older. During National Vocation Awareness Week, we are asking you to recommend young men whom you believe might have a vocation to priesthood. Any man you recommend will receive information from the Vocations Office and will be invited to participate in our discernment opportunities such as retreats and our vocation camp.

Recommendations may be made online at vocations website:

Stewardship Commitment Weekend

Please return your commitment card

This weekend is our Stewardship Commitment Weekend. Last week you should have received a letter from Fr. Brad, followed a few days later by our Stewardship Booklet and Commitment Brochure.

We hope you have had time to review the Stewardship materials and prayerfully consider your Stewardship role at Saint Thomas More. The booklet is filled with ministry opportunities and includes a description of each one. The same information also is available on our website at www.stmore.org.

The brochure includes not only your commitment for ministries but also your financial and prayer commitments. Remember, the completed brochure is merely an expression of your intention to give back to God a faithful and generous share of the gifts He has entrusted to your care. It is not binding and your commitment to the parish may increase or decrease just as the resources God entrusts to you may increase or decrease.

Hopefully you have completed both the front and back of the brochure and are ready to return it this weekend. If not, please continue to consider your Stewardship commitment and return the completed brochure at Mass next weekend or run it by the office.
