Merry Christmas

It is Christmas! Our Gospel reading on this festive holy day is the opening words of the Gospel of John. St. John says, “The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came to be through him.” That is why we celebrate today. Pope Francis opened his sermon on Christmas day last year by saying this: “Christmas is joy, religious joy, an inner joy of light and peace.”

At Mass on Christmas Eve we hear, “I proclaim to you good news of great joy; today a Savior is born for us, Christ the Lord.” It is this joy we need to feel, this joy we need to carry to others. Many have expressed the joy of today. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI said this about Christmas: “Joy is the true gift of Christmas. We can communicate this joy simply: with a smile, a kind gesture, a little help, forgiveness. And the joy we give will certainly come back to us... Let us pray that this presence of the liberating joy of God shines forth in our lives.”

The angel Gabriel greeted our Blessed Mother Mary with the Greek word Kaire! That means “Be joyful.” God is near us today; He is so near that He became a child. Let us take that joy and share it with others; let us take that joy and change our lives and the lives of others. When we say “Merry Christmas” let us mean it with every fabric of our being.

Vocation Awareness

"Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people"

The good news of the incarnation is meant to be shared with all people. We are each called to be proclaimers of this Good News in a particular way. If you think God might be calling you to share the joy of the Gospel as a Catholic priest, contact the vocations office for more resources and to learn more about discerning your vocation: 270-683-1545, jason.mcclure@pastoral.org, www.owensborovocations.com

Petition: For mothers and fathers, grandmothers and grandfathers. May they have the wisdom and grace to help their children find God's path for them, we pray to the Lord

Saints & Special Observances

- Sunday: The Nativity of the Lord (Christmas)
- Monday: St. Stephen; Kwanzaa begins
- Tuesday: St. John
- Wednesday: The Holy Innocents
- Thursday: St. Thomas Becket; Fifth Day within the Octave of the Nativity of the Lord
- Friday: The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph
- Saturday: St. Sylvester I; New Year's Eve Seventh Day within the Octave of the Nativity of the Lord

“For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord.”

The birth of every human child is a reminder of God’s love for us. It is a cause for celebration. Each child is precious and unique. Each child comes into the world with an array of talents, abilities and gifts that God wants them to spend a lifetime to identify, accept, develop and use for their own benefit and the benefit of others. But the birth of God Incarnate, God become Man, the Third Person of the Trinity come to live among us, is unlike any other birth of a human child. We believe that Child was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary and raised by Mary and her husband, Joseph, who knew he was not the real father of that Special Child. As instructed, they named the Child Jesus, and he grew in wisdom and grace in their loving care. In the midst of all of the commotion and commercialism that has become the cultural and economic event of Christmas, let us make time to grow in our understanding of the real meaning of the Birth of Christ. That is a real cause for Celebration.

Adoration Schedule for Christmas & New Year’s

Middle School Youth Christmas Party

The middle school youth group enjoyed a delicious Fazoli's spaghetti dinner provided by Brian & Mary Katz (THANK YOU!!), Christmas movies, and a dirty Santa gift exchange Sunday evening. We will be taking a break for the holidays, but will be back on Sunday, January 8 from 4:00-6:00 pm. We hope you will join us in the New Year for weekly fun and fellowship at STM middle school youth group! Thank you to all those who have brought snacks and volunteered to chaperone as we continue to rebuild our middle school program!

Marriage Saving - the Post Weekend Phase

The post-weekend phase of Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) is as crucial to the healing of a troubled marriage as the initial weekend experience. During the post-weekend sessions, the weekend technique is further developed and combined with additional tools to explore other areas of the marriage relationship. The registration deadline for the January 13 program is January 6, 2017. To register, please call 270-852-8346 or email: fleliot@audubon-area.com or visit the web site at www.retrouvaille.org

Evening of Discernment

The Sisters of St Benedict of Ferdinand, Indiana, invite women ages 18-40 to a prayer and discussion group to assist participants in discovering God's plan for them. Join Sister Traci Stutz for an evening of discernment through the program "God has a plan for you," which will be held at the monastery in Ferdinand on Tuesday, January 17. The program at Monastery Immaculate Conception will begin with prayer with the sisters at 5:00 pm Eastern time, followed by dinner. At 6:30 pm there will be a discussion about topics of interest to those discerning their life paths. Participants may join the sisters for the entire event, or just the parts they are able to attend. Contact Sister Traci at 812-367-1411, ext. 2901, or visit www.thedome.org/events.

Catholic Men's Conference

The Diocese of Owensboro is pleased to welcome Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan, Archbishop of New York, along with Fr. Larry Richards and Robert Rogers to the February 11, 2017 Catholic Men's Conference of Western KY. This year's conference will take place at the RiverPark Center in downtown Owensboro. Our Thanks To St. Mary School

School art classes once again design STM Christmas Card

Saint Mary High School art classes have once again this year designed our Saint Thomas More Christmas Card. Last year, we asked art students at Saint Mary High School to work on a Christmas Card and it was so well received, we decided to make it a tradition and do it again this year.

Our thanks goes out to Mrs. Hein for allowing her students extra time in art class to work on our designs.

We had so many great designs this year, it was hard to pick just one, so we wanted to give all the students a little credit and feature them here in the bulletin. We had beautiful designs that truly represented the spirit of Christmas from each of the four high school classes.

Our thanks to everyone who participated in the effort this year. We can't wait to see next year's beautiful designs.
