Sharing All Our Gifts

In today's first reading, the four activities of the earliest church are introduced to us as priorities of the church: devotion to the teachings of the apostles, communal fellowship, the Eucharist and prayer. The early members of the church saw themselves as devoted stewards of these activities. These were not options. They were the fruits of a genuine conversion to a life in Christ.

The Greek word Koinonia (κοινωνία) means association, communion, fellowship, and joint participation. It means to share in something. This is an excellent example of stewardship which has meaning for us today. Our parish is a community, one in which we are all called to share and to participate. Koinonia identifies an almost ideal state of fellowship and unity which should exist in the Church, the Body of Christ. It should be more than just attending Mass.

When we speak of stewardship, we understand that it means much more than placing something in the collection basket. It means that we share all of our gifts, our time and talent also, with the community and others in need. It will be difficult for us to ever match the sense of association and the joy of that early Church, but it is a model for us to which we as a faith community should aspire.

To be community and to be in communion with one another and with God requires active participation, not passivity. Father Thomas Merton O.C.S.O. once wrote: "The deepest level of communication is not communication, but communion...beyond speech...beyond concept."

This early community offers us an excellent example of how to better exercise stewardship in our own parish families.

Inspiration for the Week

Breathing is necessary for living. Without air and the ability to breathe, we would die. It is no wonder then that Jesus breathed on the disciples and gave them the Holy Spirit. As our physical breath is essential to physically live, the Holy Spirit is essential to personally and socially live. Jesus shows his friends that God is within them, sustaining them with his gifts and providing them with the fullness of life and love. We take God's role in our lives for granted and we give ourselves more credit than we ought. Much of what we treasure and accomplish every day is due to God's inner presence moving and acting within us calling us to new life.

Vocation Awareness

World Day of Prayer for Vocations – Called by Name
 Sunday May 7th, the Fourth Sunday of Easter is known as Good Shepherd Sunday. It has also been designated a World Day of Prayer for Vocations. This year marks its 54th year. As we celebrate the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, each parish in the Diocese of Owensboro has been invited to participate in CALLED BY NAME, a program of vocations awareness that offers an opportunity for us to pray for priestly vocations; to recognize gifts and potential for leadership and service in members of our parish; and finally, to call forth and encourage these members to share their gifts in priesthood. Perhaps you know a man (high school or older) who would, in your opinion, have the qualities to become a priest. We will follow up with them and offer resources for discernment and personally invite them to participate in our discernment programs such as, Come and See weekends, discernment retreats, and Made for More Camp. Please recommend this person by submitting their name online at <https://owensborodiocese.org/called-by-name/> or by contacting the vocations office: 270-683-1545 or jason.mcclure@pastoral.org

Made for More Summer Camp for High School Men
June 25-28

What are you called to do with your life? What does God want you to do with your life? This camp is for young men who have the courage to begin asking these questions and who want to give their lives to the One who first gave His life for us. Made for More is about giving your life to God. Whether you are being called to marriage, priesthood, consecrated life, or single missionary life, this camp is for you. Seek more to life than just getting by. Refuse to settle for anything less than the greatness to which God is calling you. Scholarships are available through the vocations office.
 For more information visit our website: www.owensborovocations.com or call the vocations office: 270-683-1545.

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Traditions Explained Question:

In a neighboring church pulpit there is an eagle, a lion, an angel, and a bull. What do they represent?

Answer:

Each symbol represents a Gospel. These symbols helped people to differentiate the Gospels at a time when most people could not read. The image of a man or angel represents the Gospel of Matthew and signifies Christ's human nature. The lion, a symbol of royalty and power, represents the Gospel of Mark and denotes Christ the King. The ox or calf, the sacrificial victim, represents the Gospel of St. Luke and highlights the priestly character of Christ's mission. The eagle stands for the Gospel of St. John because his theology is much more developed than the three synoptic Gospels. Just as an eagle soars above the earth, so John's theology soars above the other Gospels. The symbols for the Synoptics probably come from how each one begins. One of the initial lines of the Gospel of Mark begins: "A voice of one crying out in the desert." In the wilderness you can hear the roar of the lion for miles around. Matthew's Gospel opens with the genealogy of Jesus, and represents Jesus' human roots. The Gospel of Luke opens with the story of Zechariah the high priest who offered a sacrifice of a bull on behalf of the nation.

Welcome Our Newest Members

Easter Vigil welcomes RCIA participants

Every Easter Vigil, we are blessed to welcome the newest members to our parish and to the Catholic Church as a whole. This year, we received several men and women into the church who have spent the last few months preparing by participating in the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults.

RCIA begins in the fall and throughout the year, the candidates learn about our Catholic faith, the Church, the Sacraments and more.

This year we were especially blessed to welcome two families into the Church. Josh and Katie Smith completed RCIA and, at Easter Vigil, also had their baby daughter, Annakate Grace, baptized. The entire Domé family also studied together and were welcomed into the church at Easter Vigil.

We wish the Smith's and all our RCIA participants the best as they continue to grow their faith as full members of the Church and parish.

Congratulations to William Bell, Liz Domé, Danielle Domé, Dillon Domé, Tyler Domé, Al Krall, Josh Smith, Katie Smith and Ryan Timmons. And, a special congratulations to Annakate Grace Smith.
