Do Not Neglect Your Stewardship Commitment During the Summer

The month of May means summer is right around the corner after plenty of chilly weather and rain. Flowers are blooming and trees are budding. And Christian stewards are reminding themselves that stewardship continues as we head into the days of vacation, barbecues, family reunions and trips to the beach.

We need to be especially mindful of our commitment to giving to our parish and our community. The Chronicle of Philanthropy reports that November and December are the biggest months for giving in the United States. But for those lazy days of summer? Not so much.

Just think about the giving during the holiday season. Every school classroom has a charitable project, youth groups take a turn working at the local soup kitchen and shelters are inundated with food and donations. The Christmas spirit inspires us to share the bounty. But often, charities tell us that the shelves are not quite so full in the summer, even though people are still hungry. Agencies scramble to fill the roster of helpers who are out on vacation.

The true Christian steward is well aware of summer needs, as well as being aware of their own need to give throughout the year. This could mean involving your whole family in a summer project at a shelter or soup kitchen. The Christian steward can offer to pick up the slack for a day or two when an agency is short on helpers. Remember also to make that special monetary gift that equals the holiday giving.

We should, of course, not forget our parish when we go away on vacation. Make sure to increase your gifts to make up for those weekend Masses you will not attend at your parish.

Summer offers a chance to have fun and adventures. Your summer stewardship plan can be as unique and beneficial as the season itself.

A Memorial Day Prayer

God of power and mercy,
you destroy war and put down earthly pride.
Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.
Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely
into your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord.

R/. Amen

Mass at 6:00 pm

followed by a dinner to welcome

Fr. Al Bremer

our new Parochial Vicar

Men's Prayer Group

Many people have sounded the alarm about boys leaving the Church. And the facts are scary — statistically about 8 in 10 Catholic youth will leave the Church by college, and evidence indicates that more boys leave than girls.

But every Catholic parish has exactly what is needed to keep boys Catholic: men. The presence of intentional mentors in the lives of young men has a profound effect. From their youngest years boys imitate what they see in men around them. As they get older they "look up" to these examples, these mentors, and learn from them how a man lives in this world.

The problem has arisen, however, that most boys do not have regular encounters with Catholic men. And the rapid decline in fatherly presence and engagement is compounding the problem. Sadly, that vacuum is quickly filled with the world's false masculinities that don't glorify virtue and holiness, but promiscuity, power, and prestige.

Please join us Saturday, June 10 at 7:30 am for breakfast and a discussion on how we can be better mentors, how you can "follow Christ" by leading.

The following volunteers are needed for the coming school year. Please prayerfully consider helping in our Church's very important ministry, the catechesis and instruction in faith of our kids and youth.

Inspiration for the Week

At the Lord's Ascension the disciples were given very clear instructions, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." These are instructions for us as well. We have been given a purpose and a mission as believers and followers of Jesus Christ. Our celebration reminds us to take time for prayer. Prayer can deepen our awareness not only of who we are but of the Holy Spirit bringing Christ's mission to fulfillment. With this knowledge, we can believe more deeply and then act on that belief.

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Traditions Explained

Question:

Why do some dioceses move holy days, or not even celebrate them at all. Doesn't everyone do the same thing?

Answer:

The short answer is no, not everyone does the same thing. Although the Church is universal, there are many local customs and saints that each country, sometimes just a region, will honor. For example, feast days and patronal days may not be major feast days on the Church's universal calendar, but are celebrated as such in one place. Holy days of obligation are the same way. The US Conference of Catholic Bishops has a certain amount of discretion in choosing days that best reflect the local church's experience and history. Another reason certain feasts are moved is a practical one. With limited clergy, or a great difficulty for people to get to Mass, the feast day may be transferred to a Sunday. The rationale is that if a significant feast should be part of the Church's celebration, then better to do so on a Sunday when people and clergy are available, rather than try to fit it on a day when one or both cannot be there.

Our Best Wishes

Fr. Michael Charles assigned to St. Mary of the Woods

ast weekend we said goodbye to Fr. Micheal Charles at a reception in his honor held between the 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. Sunday Masses.

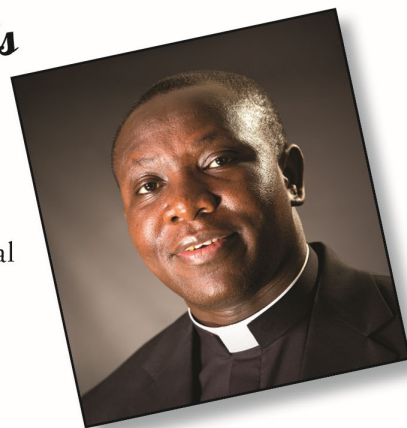

True to form, as you can see in the below, right photo, Fr. Micheal Charles picked up many a child as everyone waited in line to wish him well. Fr. Michael Charles as been assigned to St. Mary of the Woods parish in Whitesville KY.

Fr. Brad noted in his comments on Sunday that St. Mary of the Woods is his home parish and Fr. Michael Charles will easily feel at home with great families and the parish's school.

Fr. Michael Charles has been a great asset to Saint Thomas More in the two short years he has served as Parochial Vicar. He has spent his time very involved in the St. Mary School System and could been seen in the crowd at nearly every sporting event from basketball to baseball to soccer.

We wish Fr. Michael Charles all the best and hope he finds his way back to Saint Thomas More in the future.
