We are St. Thomas More Parish, members of the living Body of Christ,

Serving the Lord Through Participation

“As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD” (Joshua 24:15). The role of a father is critical. An earthly father’s example of strength, wisdom, and compassion is the first Gospel proclaimed to children regarding the Fatherhood of God. St. Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, is a strong model of a just and righteous man. Take a moment today to consider the model you are to the people around you.

Among the compelling Eucharistic themes proclaimed in today’s readings is the notion of “participation” as found in Saint Paul’s letter to the Corinthians. Good stewards are part of a Eucharistic family: loving, welcoming, serving. An important part of living as a steward comes about in the many ways we can participate in the life of the Church.

No matter how much time we have to give, no matter what our skills or interests, no matter what our level of commitment, there is a way to participate as a good steward to enrich our lives and the lives of others to build up the Body of Christ.

How do you participate in the life of your parish?

A Prayer for Christian Fathers

Heavenly Father,
you entrusted your Son Jesus,
the child of Mary,
to the care of Joseph,
an earthly father.
Bless all fathers
as they care for their families.
Give them strength and wisdom,
tenderness and patience;
support them in the work
they have to do,
protecting those who look to them,
as we look to you for love
and salvation,
through Jesus Christ
our rock and defender.
Amen.

Inspiration for the Week

Today is all about transformation. The bread and wine is transformed into the body and blood of Christ and we, by partaking in the Eucharist, are also transformed into the body and blood of Christ. St. Augustine issued a wise instruction regarding the Eucharist: "Become what you eat." This is the real challenge of every eucharistic celebration. Will we allow God to transform us into his Son so that the hope, love, healing, comfort, and mercy he embodies can be brought to our world through us? As Jesus feeds us, how can we feed others?

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Traditions Explained

Question:

One of my coworkers said that Catholics believe we kill Christ again when we celebrate the Mass since it is his sacrifice. I know that is not right, but how do we explain it?

Answer:

We do indeed believe that the Mass is the unbloody sacrifice of Jesus on the cross and we believe that the sacrifice is made present again on the altar--not to repeat it, but to join ourselves to it. We are joined to the saving work of Christ, not just simply remembering it.

The closest thing we might have in our culture is when a couple saves some wedding cake in the freezer, and on their first anniversary they may watch their wedding video and eat the cake, all to recapture the moment. The Jews celebrate a Seder meal, not to remember the Passover, but to participate in it through the ritual foods, questions, and readings. "The Catechism of the Catholic Church" describes the Mass as the "Holy Sacrifice, because it makes present the one sacrifice of Christ" (#1330). To think that we must sacrifice Christ over and over again would negate what he did on Calvary. To celebrate and renew it each day allows us to participate in it. That is the "source and summit" of Christian life (#1324).

Saint Thomas More Feast Day

Thursday, June 22

We invite you to make plans to attend our upcoming Saint Thomas More Feast Day celebration with an Old Fashioned Church Potluck.

Each year we like to do a little something to recognize the feast of our patron saint. We have had everything from an ice cream social to an hors d'oeuvre reception. This year, we wanted to have something a little extra special as we welcome Fr. Al Bremer to Saint Thomas More as Parochial Vicar.

Following our regular Thursday evening 6 p.m. Mass, you're invited to the parish hall to share dinner with fellow parishioners and meet Fr. Al. Saint Thomas More will provide hamburgers and hot dogs, and we ask each of you to bring a dish to share.

- A-H      Salads
- I-R      Chips and Other Side Dishes
- S-Z      Dessert

Church also will provide iced tea and lemonade for the dinner.

We hope to see everyone at Mass at 6 p.m. on Thursday, June 22 and look forward to an evening of fellowship.

App Tip of the Week

Use our new mobile app to say the Rosary

The new Saint Thomas More app is great for keeping up with news about the parish and ministry groups but, did you know it also is a helpful prayer tool?

Just select the "Prayers" tile on the home screen and you will find dozens of Catholic prayers. Plus, a special section has all the prayers of the Rosary laid out in the order they are to be said, along with all the Mysteries of the Rosary.

We hope you are enjoying the new app. If you have comments, just touch the "Staff" tile and send us a message.
