Follow Me

Christ said, "Follow Me," and the Apostles basically dropped everything, ceased pursuing what they were doing — in some cases with good jobs and vocations — and followed Christ. We are called to follow the Lord from the moment of our Baptism, but how many of us actually take that calling seriously?

It is not just a question of hearing the call; the key is whether we are listening for it? It is there, but we must be aware of it in order to respond.

Elisha's call and our calls are signs of God at work. God has a plan for each of us. We are the means by which God's work is continued in our parishes, in our communities, and in the Church. God's ministry on earth will be carried out and accomplished. None of us is the entire ministry; we can all be replaced. However, by the same token in God's eyes we are absolutely necessary.

Are we ready to respond?

Are we ready to be disciples of the Lord?

Inspiration for the Week

How does your commitment to Jesus Christ affect your life? Our faith is not just a private affair but something that influences all of our relationships. Our baptism brings us into a very intimate relationship with God and makes us a brother or a sister to all of God's children. That identity we share colors how we relate to them and the level of responsibility we have to them. If we open ourselves to truly receive our God as Father and those with whom we journey as brothers and sisters, it can profoundly change and affect us. How has your baptism changed you?

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Traditions Explained

Question:

What does Jesus mean when he talks about taking up our cross?

Answer:

Our journey of faith begins in baptism. When we are faithful to it, we find God's plan for us, his way of allowing us to participate in his saving work, which in turn becomes for us our own salvation. Stated simply, we share in the mission of Jesus each day. We live our life with all of its ups, downs, joys, and sorrows in union with the mission of Jesus. Our work then is holy. It is joined to the cross, God's will for Jesus--the way in which he destroys sin and death and makes eternal life possible. His sacrifice accomplishes what we ourselves cannot do.

To take up the cross, then, means that we share in the mission of Jesus and so embrace the sufferings of the cross. It is our daily life made holy, given a redemptive mission. It is our purpose and goal to unite our life to that of Christ. St. Paul says it best, "If we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection" (Rom 6:5).

Saint Thomas More Feast Day

Thanks to everyone who joined us

Last week we celebrated our patron's Feast Day with Mass followed by a potluck dinner in the parish hall. We want to thank everyone who came out Thursday evening and enjoyed fellowship and some great food.

We also welcomed Fr. Al Bremer to Saint Thomas More. He is very pleased to be here and looks forward to meeting more parishioners in the coming weeks.

A special thank you goes out to our Knights of Columbus. The group helped out by cooking all the burgers and hot dogs and did a fantastic job! Also a special thanks to all the parishioners who brought a dish to share. A potluck is not a potluck if no one brings anything; and we had some very delicious dishes.

If you weren't able to attend Mass and the potluck, make sure to take a few minutes to welcome Fr. Al to Saint Thomas More.

App Tip of the Week

Did you forget to take a bulletin home? No problem!

The new Saint Thomas More app is great for keeping up with news about the parish and ministry groups but, did you know the bulletin for the week is right there in the app?

Just select the Bulletin Tile and you will see this week's bulletin at the top of the list and previous week's bulletins below that. Plus, if you want to get a head start, the bulletin is usually posted on the app the Thursday before so you can take a few minutes and read it ahead of time if you would like.
