SEEKING

Easter Sunday is a day all about seeking. The early Christian communities gathered around the Apostles, seeking more about the life and ministry of the Lord Jesus. Saint Paul told the baptized Colossians to “seek what is above.” Mary of Magdala went to the tomb, seeking to find the Lord’s body so that she could anoint it. We come to church on Easter Sunday seeking many things. For some of us, this is a once-a-year journey, when we seek connection with the foundations of the Christian faith. For others, this day is the culmination of a long journey of Lenten repentance. For the newly baptized, this is the first day of a new life filled with promise and expectation. Whatever it is that we seek, let us be inspired by the disciple whom Jesus loved who, when he saw the wrappings of cloth inside the empty tomb, “saw and believed.” Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Dear Lovers of the Risen Lord,

Our Paschal Candle for 2015 is called "The Resurrection and the Life". It is all handmade and painted.

"The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned." Is.

This candle will be among us and used throughout the year until next Easter Vigil. Our Holy Father has declared an extraordinary Jubilee Year beginning on December 8, 2015, Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception and closing on the Solemnity of Christ the King in November of 2016. The Priests Council of the Diocese of Reno has already begun discussions on how this holy year can be celebrated in the context of the theme of Mercy. Some great ideas have been surfaced. I will share more about that with you in the coming months. May Christ Jesus, Who is our Resurrection and Life, bless and keep you and raise you up in His great Mercy! Blessed Easter!

In peace and joy+

Father Larry Morrison

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Our tradition has a way of honoring age-old customs, and is patient with how practices unfold in different places. The name of today’s feast illustrates this well. English is a Germanic language, and our word “Easter,” or German “Oester,” points back to the pagan goddess Eostre, the star of the vernal equinox feast. The Greek title “Pasch” reaches back in a more helpful manner to the Hebrew “Pesach,” or “Passover.” “Paschal Triduum” may be slow to replace “Easter” in our vocabulary, but it is clearer about the mystery we celebrate today, the culmination of three days laden with mystery and meaning.

You can hear the older term, and the resistance to English influence, in the Irish “Casca” and Scottish “Pask.” Romance languages stay close to the deep paschal tradition, with the French “Pâques,” Spanish “Pascua” and Italian “Pasqua.” Memories of our pagan past with “Oester” will not soon fade away: even Japanese Christians are under her spell, for today’s feast is called “I-suta.” Swahili, a young language, takes the more traditional route with “Pasaka.” Each language yields a rich insight into the feast. Spanish includes a sense that today is a “big Sunday” by adding the designation “Pascua” to the greatest feasts, such as “Pascua de la Natividad” (Christmas). Once Christ is risen, every step of life’s journey is illuminated by the light of the Pasch! —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

GOD'S WORD TODAY

The first Easter Sunday must have been very difficult for the apostles. They had given up three years of their lives to follow the man they believed to be the Messiah, only to watch him be crucified and buried. All seemed lost. By fixating on the events of Good Friday, they had great difficulty understanding the message of resurrection at first. But their eyes and hearts were opened when Jesus spoke their names, ate with them, and breathed on them his gift of peace. From this moment, they were empowered and infused with a new courage and enthusiasm. With the gift of the Holy Spirit, they became powerful witnesses to the message of hope and new life. As we rejoice in the glory and power of the Resurrection, we come to realize that the victory of Christ over sin and death can likewise be ours. Let us live this Easter Day with faith and conviction, and then we will share forever in the fullness of Christ's resurrection. From Saint Margaret Sunday Missal, copyright © J. S. Paluch Co

catholic heart workcamp

Catholic Heart Work Camp is coming back to Reno this summer and we need your help!

We need work sites. Each day will be spent either renewing homes by doing such things as painting, housecleaning, yard work, and minor home repairs (experienced trouble shooters will visit the sites to check on workmanship and provide help when needed); or helping at day care centers for low income families by assisting with the children's programs, working at homeless shelters or at centers that distribute food to the needy. Let us know if we can help you! July 27—August 2 at Snows.

LOW-GLUTEN COMMUNION WAFERS

These communion wafers are made from pure wheat starch and water, and have been approved for use by Catholics by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

These low-gluten wafers have been certified by an independent food testing lab to contain less than 20 PPM (less than .002%) gluten and meet the USA Food and Drug Administration standards for gluten-free food.

See FDA Defines Gluten-Free Claim for Food Labels at www.FDA.gov.

Brothers and Sisters, I am working on making these Hosts available to you soon! We will offer completely separate containers for the Altar Breads and a separate Crystal Ciborium for those who need these special Hosts...as I do myself!...and am using one of the larger ones for my masses now for the last three weeks. Prayer for our Diocesan Synod

God our Father,
You have called us by baptism
to be faithful members of your Church.
Send the Holy Spirit to guide the work of the Second Synod of the Diocese of Reno.
Inspire us to bring new life
to the mission of your Church
here in northern Nevada.
Through the work of our Synod,
may we follow where the Holy Spirit leads,
to become instruments of hope for the world
in spreading the Good News
to people far and wide.
With the example and help of Mary our Mother who gathered with the disciples in the upper room,
may we listen to the promptings of the Spirit.
Come, Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of your faithful,
and kindle in them the fire of your love.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Beginning in April, on the second and fourth weekends of each month, one of the St. Rose of Lima delegates to the upcoming Diocesan Synod will lead the parish in the Prayer for Our Diocesan Synod near the end of Mass, just before the celebrant's final blessing. In addition, on the fourth weekend of each month one or more of the delegates will be available in the Narthex after each Mass to take your input or questions regarding the Synod. More information about the delegates and an online form for submitting comments is available via the St. Rose website by clicking on "SYNOD 2015."

*Christ is Risen!
Alleluia*

I AM RISEN

I am risen, and I am always with you, alleluia; you have placed your hand upon me, alleluia; your wisdom has been shown to be most wonderful, alleluia, alleluia.

ISSUES OF PEACE & JUSTICE

"This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad!" The alleluias we sing today remind us of the foundation of all our Hope, Jesus Christ. Our broken world can sometimes seem hopeless, but we know otherwise. "Life in society must be based on the divine plan because 'the theological dimension is needed both for interpreting and solving present-day problems in human society.' In the presence of serious forms of exploitation and social injustice, there is 'an ever more widespread and acute sense of the need for a radical personal and social renewal capable of ensuring justice, solidarity, honesty and openness. Certainly, there is a long and difficult road ahead; bringing about such a renewal will require enormous effort, especially on account of the number and gravity of the causes giving rise to and aggravating the situations of injustice present in the world today. But, as history and personal experience show, it is not difficult to discover at the bottom of these situations causes which are properly 'cultural,' linked to particular ways of looking at man, society and the world. Indeed, at the heart of the issue of culture we find the moral sense, which is in turn rooted and fulfilled in the religious sense.' As for 'the social question,' we must not be seduced by 'the naive expectation that, faced with the great challenges of our time, we shall find some magic formula. No, we shall not be saved by a formula but by a Person and the assurance that he gives us: I am with you! It is not therefore a matter of inventing a 'new program.' The program already exists: it is the plan found in the Gospel and in the living Tradition, it is the same as ever. Ultimately, it has its center in Christ himself, who is to be known loved and imitated, so that in him we may live the life of the Trinity, and with him transform history until its fulfillment in the heavenly Jerusalem'" (Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church by the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, #577).

Prayer for Vocations

Loving God,

You speak to us and nourish us through the life of this Church community.

In the name of Jesus, we ask you to send your Spirit to us so that men and women among us, young and old, will respond to your call to service and leadership in the Church. We pray especially, in our day, for those who hear your invitation to be a priest, sister, or brother.

May those who are opening their hearts and minds to your call be encouraged and strengthened through our enthusiasm in your service. Amen.

PADRE SERRA SAYS:

Jesus told His Disciples, “I came to serve, not to be served.”

A vocation is a call to serve. It is a profession, an urge, a predisposition to undertake a certain kind of work. It is a choice for which you are particularly suited. The central question always is, “How best can I serve my God and others?”

If you feel a calling to the married life, there are many Church ministries from which to choose. Many are in need of your service, as a deacon, a Eucharistic minister, a visitor to the sick and aged, or an usher. Whatever you choose, do something that serves others. When you do this, you are serving God.

If you feel a calling to priesthood or religious life, ask questions and talk to priests or religious. They know that surviving isn't enough. They can help you come to know your vocation or career, or even your own true self.

Above all, start with prayer. Whatever your vocation, if you are good at what you do, it is a gift from God. Only through prayer will you be able to recognize what vocation gift He wants to give to you.
