He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. — Mk 5:41-42

FAITH LEADS US

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus,

This Sunday's Gospel reports two stories of healing. One story tells us about a father's great love for his dying daughter. The other story tells us about a desperate woman who risks much as she seeks healing from Jesus. In each story, the request for healing is itself a courageous act of faith, and yet very different circumstances are represented by the lives of each suffering person.

Jairus is described as a synagogue official, a man of considerable standing in the Jewish community. Distraught over his daughter's poor health, he approaches Jesus and asks him to heal her.

As Jesus leaves with Jairus, Mark describes a second person who seeks healing from Jesus, a woman with a hemorrhage. This woman secretly touches Jesus from behind and is immediately cured. In response, Jesus turns and asks who touched him. The woman could have remained anonymous, yet at Jesus' question she steps forward and acknowledges what she has done. Jesus responds by acknowledging her as a model of faith and sends her away in peace.

At this point, we can imagine Jairus's impatience with Jesus; his daughter is dying and Jesus hasn't helped him yet. As if to build a sense of urgency, messengers suddenly arrive and confirm Jairus's worst fear: his daughter has died. Jesus curiously ignores their message and reassures Jairus. When they arrive at Jairus's home, they find family and friends mourning the girl's death. Jesus enters the room of the dead girl, takes her by the hand, and instructs her to arise. Jairus's faith in Jesus has not been in vain; his daughter is restored to life.

The contrasts between Jairus and the woman with the hemorrhage are stark and revealing. One is a man, the other is a woman. One is a public official, an important person in the community. The other is a woman who has lost everything to find a cure to a condition that separated her from the community. One approaches Jesus publicly. The other approaches Jesus secretly. Yet in each case, faith leads them to seek out Jesus in their time of need.

With love and prayers,

-Rev. Fr. Arockia A. Stanislaus

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Catholic families of Immaculate Conception, St. Joseph and St. John, believe that ours is the Mission of Christ. We live and proclaim the Gospel through prayer, liturgy and action. We accept the challenge to live in the Gospel, to love others as Christ loves us, and to be model of Christian stewardship. Empowered by our Baptism, we give witness to the values of Christian unity, Service. Compassion and Justice.

WORD OF THANKS

Dear brothers and sisters
There is a journey we all must make. We will either choose to make it or we will be forced to make it. It is time for me to start my Journey from Alma Center, Fairview and Fairchild parishes to Spring Valley, Elmwood and Boyceville parishes. Past seven months I have been enriched by your love and concern, learned many things and enjoyed being with you.
Now, my heart is filled with happiness, satisfaction and gratitude. I am fully satisfied that I have done my job with God's grace and I hope beyond your expectation. I want to thank everyone by name who helped in all my initiatives and endeavors. But the list will be too long. I thank each and every one of you.
I always need your prayers, love and concern. Please remember me in your valuable prayers and you are most welcome to visit me at Elwood where I will be having my residence.
I earnestly request you to give the same love and concern to Fr. Daniel Thelan who is young, energetic and full of ambitions.
Thank you so much
With love and prayers,
Fr. Arockia Amirtha Raj Stanislaus.

PARTY TODAY!

Today is our last Sunday with Fr Amir. We are having a Going Away Pot Luck Lunch at noon today in his honor, at Immaculate Conception, and we urge parishioners from all three parishes to attend. Please bring a dish to pass. We wish him well in his new assignment, and hope his new parishes appreciate him as much as we do.

IC PCCW MEETING JULY 8

Immaculate Conception PCCW (Altar Society) will meet next Sunday, July 8th, after the 10:15 Mass. We need all ladies of the parish to attend for some important discussions.

NEW BULLETIN!

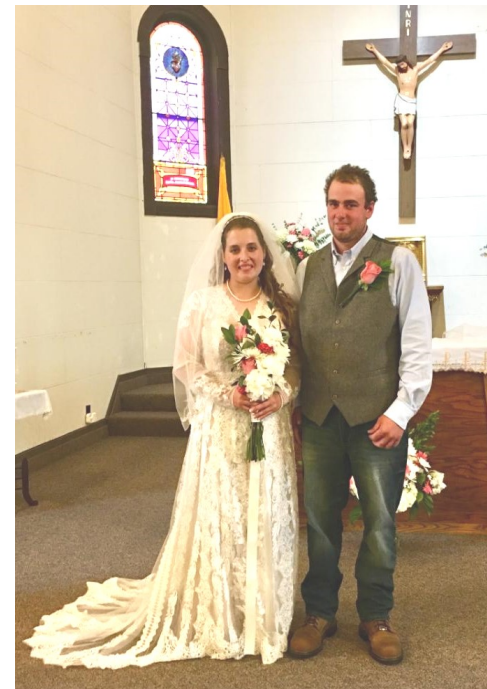

We welcome your feedback on our new bulletin. We have been working hard on it, and this is our end result. We will continue to accept parishioners who would like to sponsor the bulletin with their own business or intention but don't want a full ad. And also suggestions for new businesses to contact for ads. Your help in this is welcomed and appreciated. If you have any questions, contact Dawn Kaufman.

RAFFLE PRIZES

Well, it's that time again. We are planning ahead for the IC Roast Beef and Pork Dinner in August, and the St Joseph's Soup Supper in October. We are looking for raffle prizes for the big raffles each church has at their fundraiser. If you are willing to donate a super nice prize, money, or can get prizes from local businesses, please contact your PCCW. IC-Pat Gower or Joan Esser, SSJJ-Marcia Baugher or Dawn Kaufman.

FUND RAISING FOR PAINTING THE CHURCH

If you have any ideas for raising money to paint the church, please bring them to the parish councils. Both Immaculate Conception and St Joseph need to be painted, and it's an expensive job. Let us know your ideas! We have some new ideas for both churches, and hope to convey the projects very soon! But we need more! Each church will cost several thousand dollars to fix up, and it all depends on donations from you and any fundraiser we can accomplish.

Mr & Mrs Zach and Abby Janke

We would like to thank everyone who worked so hard to make sure the church, rectory and grounds were ready for this occasion. Everything looked wonderful
Congratulations Zach and Abby!

Thank you to Cal and Maria Casper for the wonderful job you did refurbishing the Baptismal Font at IC. It looks fantastic! We appreciate all the work you put into it.
