Saint Hugh, what's not to like?

Congratulations Fr. Robert!

From the Pastor's Desk

Thank you!

I would like to thank Bishop Manz for coming to St. Hugh and sharing this special day with all of us. I am happy to be here, and look forward to the coming years I get to spend with the people who are St. Hugh.

Thank you to all those who helped prepare for this very special day. Your help and contributions made this day special for me and our visitors. Thank you to all those who made donations to the picnic, this includes those that gave monetarily, supplied items for the picnic or raffles, gave their time to help setup, during, and for cleanup.

Thank you to Fr. David, Fr. Chris, Fr. Waldemar Stawiarski, Fr. Jacek Dada, and Fr. Reszel. Thank you most especially to Bishop Manz, who I look forward to working with in Vicariate IV. Thank you to Bishop Manz's Master of Ceremonies, who made sure everything on the altar ran smoothly. Thank you to Deacon Frank for supporting me during the installation and the Masses to come. Thank you to Jacob and Jon Spansail, our altar servers for helping as well during Mass. Thank you to Fran, Sally, and our choir for making beautiful music. Thank you also to our Parish Council and Finance Council for being there to support and advise me.

Lastly, I'd like to thank the people who are St. Hugh for being welcoming, kind, and sharing your "church home" with me. I look forward to getting to know you all in the time to come.

With a thankful heart,

Fr. Robert M
Pastor

NPM Convention in Baltimore, Maryland – More thoughts

From Seeds to Roots: The Transformation of the Sacred Liturgy.

- moderated by the Steve Petrunak. President of NPM: Michael Joncas, Elaine Rendler-McQueeney and Paul Turner were present after the Vatican Council when NPM began in 1976.

Some statements are memorable:

- 1) Song adds solemnity to the celebration and gives greater efficacy to the texts.
- 2) Our ministry is not holy but a way to holiness.
- 3) Jim Hansen made the role of cantor popular.
- 4) Song brings rush of the Holy Spirit.

Please consider music ministry as a fruitful way to worship with our parish.

Rehearsals resume after Labor Day on Sundays at 9:15 am.

Fran Serpe, Music Director

"Music ministry provides beauty, joy, comfort, and musical prayer for our communal liturgies and various parish celebrations. This is possible due to the generous sharing of time and talent of diverse and committed members. If you can carry a tune and want to learn, come sing with us." Elaine Rendler - OCP

Taken Out of Context

If you want to start an argument, try telling your wife that St. Paul's letter to the Ephesians says she should agree with everything you say. I'm sure that many people have taken out of context the line about wives being submissive to their husbands. In fact, the first sentence says they both should be subordinate to one another. (Eph 5:21)

So what does Christ show us guys about being subordinate to our wives? Paul mentions the main example: Christ handing himself over for her (the Church) refers to his death on the cross. He made it even clearer for them the night before he died: He washed the feet of his disciples and told them to do the same for each other. (Jn 13:14-15)

Still not sure that subordination is a mutual quality in marriage? Paul explains that marriage is the best example of "love your neighbor as yourself." He quotes Genesis 2:24 about two people becoming one body. So your love for yourself now becomes love for your spouse. Do I love my wife so much that what she needs is as important to me as what I need? Do we encourage and support each other in our chores and weaknesses? Do we support each other's faith? Ladies, ask yourselves the same questions.

Paul's conclusion is that marriage is a sign of what the church should be. If you ever want to know what the love of Christ for his Church is, look at how a couple in a strong marriage love each other. And if you want to have a good marriage, love each other as Christ loves you.

As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD.

Saint of the Day

August 27. Perhaps Saint Monica is best known as the mother of Saint Augustine. She was also the mother of two other children, and is known as a woman of great prayer. We know that she prayed for the conversion of her son, and her prayers were heard. She also prayed for and obtained the conversion of her husband and mother-in-law.

August 30. Canonized in 2009, Saint Jeanne Jugan had a history of helping the elderly and the poor. She founded the Little Sisters of the Poor to help her with her work, and by the time of her death they numbered 2,400. Her life included a few obstacles, but Saint Jeanne was a woman of determination and vision and she got it done.

August 31. We know little about Saints Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus except what we find in scripture. We know that they were Jewish men of some standing who were not afraid to express their respect for Jesus. Each in his own way played a role in the life of Jesus that required courage and showed some understanding of who Jesus was. We need volunteers to help sell SCRIP after Mass.

Question of the Week

It is time to take a stand. Can I say, like Simon Peter, "I believe"? Can I say, like Joshua, "I will serve the Lord"? How can I show others where I stand?

Trust

I may trust Jesus too little, but I can never trust him too much.

--Anonymous

Stewardship Thought

"If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve...As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

(JOSHUA 24:15)

Stewardship
a way of life

When we commit to serve the Lord, we must be willing to become a partner in the work of the Lord. A partner is a person who invests time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports the parish and Church mission. If we say we serve God, we must actually do something and not merely talk about it!

Vincentian Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks, "Do you also want to leave?" We must ask ourselves if we really want to hear the good news of his love for us and for others. Is this word of God able to break into our consciousness, change us and call us to hear the cries of the poor.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent DePaul was able to hear the cries of the poor by assisting families, providing food, money for utilities, rent and other bills. God Bless You!

Is God calling you?

"You have the words of eternal life." Will your path of holiness be as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life?

If God is calling you to serve the church as priest or religious visit: ChicagoPriest.com and/or VocationsCAVA.org

Occupancy

The value of life does not depend upon the place we occupy. It depends upon the way we occupy that place. --St. Thérèse of Lisieux

Welcome to Saint Hugh

We welcome John Albrecht & Susan Fleming to the St. Hugh family.

Treasures from our Tradition

This is the height of vacation season, but as anyone who has ever been to Rome in the summer knows, no time to visit there! The city is sweltering, and in a pre-air-conditioned world long ago, Romans figured out that they needed a break in the surrounding hills. Even the pope clears out. His destination is usually Castelgandolfo, a lovely little hill town southeast of Rome, overlooking a tranquil lake. It has been a papal possession since about 1600, and in 1929, when most of the papal states were finally lost, the papal dwelling was given "extraterritorial rights," meaning that it is an extension of Vatican City and not under Italian rule. The Vatican observatory maintained telescopes here for decades, far from the glare of the city lights of Rome, but although the observatory offices remain here year round, the telescopes are in Arizona. Pope Francis spends less time here than his predecessors, though he still slows down the pace of his work in Rome.

Vacations can help us visit friends and relatives, and revive those human contacts that the pace of our lives keeps us from cultivating. The pope needs a break, and so do you. Vacation comes from a word meaning to empty oneself. There's still time to clear the calendar for at least one golden summer day even if you don't have a personal castle in the hills!
