From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time. Monday is Halloween. Be good to the trick-or-treaters. November 1 is All Saints Day - a Holy Day of Obligation. The 7:00pm Mass on Tuesday will include recognition of those who were buried from our parish during the previous year (see the bulletin cover). November 2 is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed or All Souls Day.

November draws our attention to the end times and issues of death. Throughout the month we pray for those who have gone before us. A Book of Remembrance, placed near the baptismal font and Paschal Candle is inscribed with the names of those whose funerals were at Saint Hugh this past year. We will add the names given to us on the special All Souls envelopes. You may also write in the names of recently deceased loved ones who will be prayerfully remembered at the parish Masses during November.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

Weekly Vincentian Reflection

In the Gospel today, Zacchaeus accepts our Lord joyfully; and the sign of his acceptance is his open house and his resolution to give half of his goods to the poor.

Jubilee of Mercy: December 8, 2015 - November 20, 2016

Last Sunday's Gospel gave us a tax collector's beautiful prayer to take with us from this Jubilee Year of Mercy. Today, another tax collector's encounter with Jesus offers a comforting memory to cherish, but also a challenging mission to embrace. Zacchaeus' short stature matched how contemptible, socially and spiritually, Zacchaeus' religious acquaintances considered tax collectors to be. Jesus counters that judgment with mercy. Radical sin meets unmerited grace. God seeks and finds the lost; a sinner's home becomes salvation's house. The sinner "quickly" welcomes salvation "with joy", while the righteous grumble judgmentally at God's mercy. Mercy challenges us, too. Like Zacchaeus, we have been sought and found by Jesus, called by name to welcome Jesus into our heart's home. Therefore, we must go forth from this Jubilee Year of Mercy as "missionaries of mercy," seeking our fellow sinners with Jesus, receiving them with joy as cherished brothers and sisters, and joyfully offering our judgment-free hospitality as Jesus' own "Welcome home!" - Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. ## All Souls by Paul Turner

Crisp autumn chill penetrates our sweater-wrapped bodies to remind us of our weakness before the power of nature. As leaves fall from trees, plants die, and animals retreat, we feel the impending threat of death, which waits to take us home.

During this season of the northern hemisphere's year, the church celebrates the feast of All Souls. As our bodies and minds resign themselves to the inevitable cessation of life, our church calendar brings forth a somber feast to fit our temperament these increasingly darkened days.

The solemnity of All Souls comes as a sequel to that of All Saints. Having commemorated all the blessed who enjoy the face of God in their death, we turn our thoughts to the other souls who await the fullness of God's glory. The sequence of these two feasts implies a belief that those who have lived lives of holiness enjoy God's presence and can intercede for us before the throne of God. The feasts also imply that others, having lived more sinful lives, still await that glory. These are the dead we remember every November 2—members of our families, friends, the lonely and forgotten, and public figures who have touched our lives. On this day we pray that God will have mercy on them and grant them the vision of blessedness for which they longed.

The liturgy for this day still offers three Masses. When the church created this feast in the middle ages, it became so popular that priests were given the unusual permission to celebrate three Masses that day. The permission remains, as do the separate texts for the Masses, even though not every parish takes advantage of the permission. The readings are drawn from the collection of texts we use for funerals.

When the church gathers for prayer on November 2, we still remember the faithful departed, even when it falls on a Sunday. Those who assisted us in life receive assistance from us in their death. This feast celebrates our union with the church in every place and beyond all time.

All Souls at St Hugh: Since November 1, 2016 is a Holy Day of Obligation, we have added a Mass at 7:00pm that Tuesday. That evening Mass will include particular recognition of those who were buried from our parish during the previous year (see the bulletin cover). Throughout the month of November we pray for all those enrolled in our Book of Remembrance including all those whose names are inscribed through the All Souls envelopes. Each week a daily mass has the intention: Saint Hugh Purgatorial Society.

Stewardship thought

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over." LUKE 19:8

We are all called to graciously give back to the Lord in proportion to the blessings we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but is called to give equal sacrifice. No amount is too small or insignificant! Open your heart, how is God calling you?

Wills / Bequests

After providing for your loved ones, please consider naming Saint Hugh Parish as a beneficiary of your estate.

Vote - November 8 election

The Catholic Church is nonpartisan and does not endorse candidates. The Church offers guidance for discernment as we make decisions on how to vote with a properly formed conscience.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has updated Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship at: www.usccb.org

The Catholic Conference of Illinois encourages us to review the seven themes of Catholic Social Teaching at www.ilcatholic.org

Treasures from the tradition

The recent "October count" tracking the statistics of participation at Sunday Mass calls to mind the situations of churches where it is difficult or impossible for Catholics to worship freely. This is especially striking in English Catholic history, as freedom of worship was systematically dismantled at the time of the Reformation. It seems that most English people retained deeply Catholic sympathies throughout the period of religious upheaval. Catholics who refused to participate in the public worship of the Church of England were called "recusants," and beginning with the reign of Elizabeth I, they were subject to strict penalties. Recusant literally means "a person refusing to obey a command." Most of those laws were in force until the early 1800s, and Catholics were not entirely emancipated from the duty of Anglican worship until 1829.

Recusants paid heavy fines for not attending the state church. Holding on to Catholic faith was therefore a luxury of the very rich, who maintained private chapels, and sent their daughters and sons to English convents and monastery schools on the continent. Remarkably, the first among all British peers, the Dukes of Norfolk, the hereditary Earls Marshal of England, have never given up their Catholic faith. Many of these wealthy recusant families founded the colony of Maryland, and later many members of the old Catholic families continued on to the Kentucky frontier in search of greater religious freedom.

JUBILEE OF MERCY

ABOUND

God wraps his world and his people with his mercy. This is no minimal gesture. It is a grace that abounds. With clues from God's Word, we can see this movement of grace and mercy suffusing all reality. The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. The Lord is good to all, and his compassion is over all that he has made. (Psalm 145:8-9)
