From the Pastor's Desk

Today is All Saints Day. The Solemnity is celebrated instead of the Thirty-First Sunday of Ordinary Time.

November 2 is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed or All Souls Day. The 10:30am Mass on Monday will include particular recognition of those who were buried from our parish during the previous year.

As the final month of meteorological autumn and within it the conclusion of the liturgical year, November draws our attention to the end times and issues of death. In a particular way throughout this month we pray for those who have gone before us. A Book of Remembrance is placed near the baptismal font and Paschal Candle. Already inscribed are the names of those whose funerals were at Saint Hugh during the past year (also see the bulletin cover). We will add the names given to us on the special All Souls envelopes. You may also write in the names of recently deceased loved ones who will be prayerfully remembered at the parish Masses this month.

The first Sunday of November is also recognized as Cemetery Sunday. Area Catholic Cemeteries including Holy Sepulchre, Queen of Heaven, and Resurrection will host prayer services this Sunday at 2:00pm. For a complete list of participating cemeteries or to learn more about the Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese, visit www.catholiccemeterieschicago.org

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. Let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

A new year of Grace will begin with the First Sunday of Advent: November 29

Gift cards, aka Scrip, make for popular holiday gifts. Orders will be placed this week and again during the first week of December for the many retailers who make their cards available through the Manna Group. A percentage of your order (2 - 30% depending on the merchant) is then rebated in cash to Saint Hugh. When you shop this way, your orders benefit our parish. See the regular Manna feature on page five of this bulletin for in-stock scrip and how to obtain a list of available retailers.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

Prayer for National Vocation Awareness Week November 1 - 7

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Who is Man for Woman & Who is Woman for Man?

Father Thomas Loya, the pastor of Annunciation of the Mother of God Byzantine Catholic Parish in Homer Glen, will speak on the Theology of the Body at 7:00pm on Tuesday November 10 at Divine Infant Parish, 1600 Newcastle Ave., Westchester. Father Loya will teach us the why behind our being a man or being a woman. Only when we know the real why can we come to know our deepest needs as man and woman and how to be man and woman to each other. The answer all along is stamped in the very language and theology of our bodies created in God's image and likeness, male and female. Contact Patricia Meyers at 708.865.0374 or pmeyers9@gmail.com.

Christmas Bazaar

DECEMBER 5

God's Word Today

A day to commemorate all saints, those known and unknown, has been celebrated at various times of the Church year since the fourth century. In the eighth century, Pope Gregory III dedicated a chapel in St. Peter's Basilica to "all the saints." The day of this dedication was November 1. We have commemorated all saints on this day ever since.

Listen to today's Beatitudes, looking carefully at your own life. How do you measure up to the ideals put forth by our Lord? As we open our hearts to the word of God, let us remember the saints who have gone before us and pray that one day we may embody the Beatitudes and come to be counted among those who enjoy God's presence in heaven. From Saint Margaret Sunday Missal, copyright © J. S. Paluch Company

All Saints by Paul Turner

In designating one day on our calendar for all the saints, the church chooses a time to honor our heroes - the men and women whose example we admire. Coming near the end of the church year, the solemnity of All Saints invites us into the mystery of death and the promise of eternal life.

An early tradition placed the festival on May 13. According to one story, Pope Boniface IV (himself a saint) began the celebration in Rome. On that date in 609 he dedicated a very old building as a new church. The Pantheon had been built to honor all the pagan gods, but Boniface rededicated the building as a Christian church in the seventh century. He brought the relics of the martyrs from the catacombs to this famous public place of worship. The parade of relics changed the Pantheon from a place for worship of all the pagan gods to a place that honored Mary and all the Christian saints - and in turn the one Christian God. Eventually the idea of a feast of all saints was transferred to Nov. 1, near the end of the church year.

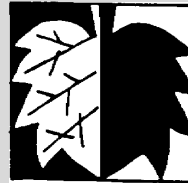

The church honors many saints with a day of their own on the general liturgical calendar, but there are many more saints than those. Since Vatican II, the number of men and women canonized as saints has increased considerably. Although we do not celebrate all their names on specific dates in all our churches throughout the year, we do gather them as one on this day.

Secular tradition has turned the eve of All Saints into a kind of anti-festival, a night when heroes of the underworld take command.

The Mass for All Saints Day always replaces the one for ordinary time, even when it falls on a Sunday.

All Souls

Crisp autumn chill penetrates our sweater-wrapped bodies to remind us of our weakness before the power of nature. As leaves fall from trees, plants die, and animals retreat, we feel the impending threat of death, which waits to take us home.

During this season of the northern hemisphere's year, the church celebrates the feast of All Souls. As our bodies and minds resign themselves to the inevitable cessation of life, our church calendar brings forth a somber feast to fit our temperament these increasingly darkened days.

The solemnity of All Souls comes as a sequel to that of All Saints. Having commemorated all the blessed who enjoy the face of God in their death, we turn our thoughts to the other souls who await the fullness of God's glory. The sequence of these two feasts implies a belief that those who have lived lives of holiness enjoy God's presence and can intercede for us before the throne of God. The feasts also imply that others, having lived more sinful lives, still await that glory. These are the dead we remember every November 2 - members of our families, friends, the lonely and forgotten, and public figures who have touched our lives. On this day we pray that God will have mercy on them and grant them the vision of blessedness for which they longed.

The liturgy for this day still offers three Masses. When the church created this feast in the middle ages, it became so popular that priests were given the unusual permission to celebrate three Masses that day. The permission remains, as do the separate texts for the Masses, even though not every parish takes advantage of the permission. The readings are drawn from the collection of texts we use for funerals.

When the church gathers for prayer on November 2, we still remember the faithful departed, even when it falls on a Sunday. Those who assisted us in life receive assistance from us in their death. This feast celebrates our union with the church in every place and beyond all time.

November Gathering

The ladies of our Society of Catholic Women will hold their monthly gathering on Monday November 2 in Keating Hall beginning with the Rosary at 6:30pm.

The business portion of the meeting is always followed with refreshments. New members will be warmly welcomed.

Treasures from our tradition

Eight hundred years ago, the church's practice of penance underwent major revision as theologians, called scholastics, reflected on the practice of their day. By then, penance was normally a very secret rite, celebrated completely apart from the community. Public penance had mostly disappeared behind the walls of monasteries and the cloister grills of convents. The scholastics trimmed penance down to bare essentials, even sweeping aside age-old traditions like a laying on of hands and prayers of absolution. All that was left was the confessor's simple statement, "Ego te absolvo," "I absolve you."

In 1614 a new ritual book tried to make penance more public and solemn. It suggested, but did not require, that the priest wear a surplice and stole, and hear the confession in a confessional. For the first time, we have the directive that the priest be separated from the penitent by a screen, a rule that some bishops applied very strictly. By the 1940s, large numbers of Catholics availed themselves of the sacrament of confession every Saturday, and most people thought confession was a prerequisite for Communion. In some urban parish churches, confessionals were staffed, usually by the junior priest, for several hours every day, even during the celebration of Mass. It is remarkable how quickly things changed, but as we have seen, the system has collapsed before and what often comes next is an impulse of the Spirit, new life, and a fresh start.

Stewardship thought

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Matthew 5:3

"Poor in spirit" is confusing for many of us. It simply means to place your trust in God, putting His will first and being strong in faith. As we celebrate the lives of the saints on All Saints Day, remember, we, too are called to be saints. Dialing down our own pride and ego and turning up the humility will help us on our path to sainthood.
