First Sunday of Lent

Your ways, O Lord, make known to me;
teach me your paths.

From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the First Sunday of Lent. We were reminded on Ash Wednesday that this penitential season is marked by the three traditional disciplines: fasting, prayer, and almsgiving.

Some suggestions:

- Worship at Daily Mass (10:30am Monday through Saturday) in addition to your Sunday obligation.

- Participate in the Stations of the Cross. A version of the Way of the Cross is prayed each Friday of Lent at 7:00pm

- Our Communal Reconciliation Service with individual confessions and absolution will be Tuesday February 27 at 7:00pm. The schedules for Lenten Reconciliation Services at the other parishes of our Renew My Church grouping are found on page four.

- Participate in the Operation Rice Bowl project of Catholic Relief Services. Visit: www.crsricebowl.org

- Sign up for Best Lent Ever e-mails: DynamicCatholic.com/40days

- Participate in a retreat, a day of reflection, or a program - workshop in spirituality:

The Well - Congregation of Saint Joseph, LaGrange Park
csjthewell.org 708.482.5048

Mayslake - mayslakeministries.org
630.852.9000

Portiuncula - Franciscan Sisters of the Sacred Heart, Frankfort portofprayer.org 815.464.3880

Bellarmino - Jesuits, Barrington
jesuitretreat.org 847.3811261

- Encourage, through prayer and example, those preparing for Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist) at the Easter Vigil or during the Easter Season.

During today's 10:30am Mass the names of our Catechumen and Candidates for Sacraments at the Easter Vigil will be added to our Book of the Elect. The Book of the Elect will be presented to Cardinal Cupich this afternoon at Holy Name Cathedral and then displayed near the baptismal font throughout Lent. This is intended as a visible reminder to pray for all those preparing for sacraments of initiation; including those who are preparing through our Religious Education Program for First Holy Communion during the 10:30am Mass on April 22 and our Confirmandi who will receive the Sacrament of the Holy Spirit from Bishop Manz during the 10:30am Mass on April 29.

Our Elect, Catechumen and Candidates, will participate in ritual Scrutinies (aka Exorcisms) on the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

Clear Conscience

Usually, the first reading has something in common with the gospel. Today's however, has more in common with the second reading from St. Peter. They both talk about Noah and the ark, where the few good people were saved by going through the water. Peter compares that to the waters of Baptism, in which we are saved by God. Just as God washed away the evil of the world in the waters of the flood, so the waters of Baptism made us into a new people who have clear consciences, both because God has forgiven our sins and because we promise to follow only Him.

That leads to the Gospel, where Jesus is tempted by Satan. But unlike the people of Noah's time, Jesus does not fall to the temptations. Instead, he comes out of the desert, telling us to repent and believe in the good news. That means we have a choice to make: Do we accept this kingdom and repent, or do we ignore our baptism and do what we want? Do we still have a clear conscience when we think of how much time we spend getting to know Jesus? Ever pray or read the bible outside of church? Do we spend near as much on the poor, as we do for our entertainment?

Next time you see a rainbow, think about the covenant that God made with Noah. Just as God's promises get better and better till the coming of Jesus, we are challenged to be more and more like Him. Are you satisfied with just a promise that God won't destroy us all in a flood? Or are you ready to live the New Covenant that Jesus promises to those who will follow him?

ENCOUNTER MAJD

In Iraq, we encounter Majd and his family, people forced to flee violence, searching for stability. How are we called to welcome the stranger in our midst? How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Saint of the day

February 22. Every cathedral has a “cathedra,” a bishop’s chair that is used only by the bishop when he presides in the cathedral. It’s a symbol of his authority as chief teacher and liturgist of the diocese. So, today we celebrate the authority of the chief bishop, Saint Peter and his successors, the popes.

February 23. Without knowing a whole lot about Saint Polycarp, he has entered into the life of the Church because he was a martyr, a witness to the faith with his life. That alone links all Christians together. That level of testimony to the faith is notable.

Prayer of Lenten Solidarity

God of All Peoples,

As we look ahead to our Lenten journey, may our fasting be a hunger for justice, our alms an offering of peace, and our prayers a reflection of humble and grateful hearts.

We ask the Holy Spirit to accompany us as we spend these 40 days reflecting on what it means to be companions on the journey to encounter our global human family.

How may this encounter with our neighbor transform our own lives? How may our prayers, fasting and almsgiving support those worldwide who are forced to flee their homes for safety or better opportunities?

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Amen

Question of the Week

What can I do to live up to my covenant with God during this season of Lent?

Vincentian reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus overcomes the temptations to wealth, power and esteem. As we begin Lent, may we open our hearts to the grace of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Your almsgiving in the St. Vincent de Paul poor box will help the poor to celebrate the grace of God's love this Easter.

Stewardship thought

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God.... - MARK 1:14

Do you ever think about how difficult it must have been for Jesus to come into Galilee, knowing that John had just been arrested for teaching the same message that Jesus was proclaiming. It must have taken great love and trust for Jesus to do what the Father had sent Him here on earth to do. In the same way, following a life of stewardship takes great love and trust from us. We must be willing to surrender completely to God, trusting that God will always give us all that we need to fulfill His plan for us.

Wills / Bequests

After providing for your loved ones, please consider naming Saint Hugh Parish as a beneficiary of your estate.

Treasures from our tradition

The Holy Father usually marks the solemn opening of the Lenten fast with a procession and Mass on Ash Wednesday evening. He walks from the Benedictine monastery, San Anselmo, down the Aventine hill to the Dominican monastery of Santa Sabina. This very old tradition was revived by Pope John XXIII in the late 1950s. Have you ever wondered who gives the pope his ashes? It's the cardinal who has been given the "title" of the church of Santa Sabina. The pope's homily at this Mass states his theme for Lent.

Santa Sabina dates from the fifth century, and is one of the most beautiful churches in Rome. One of the panels on its main doors features the Crucifixion, a scene not normally depicted in art until much later. In the year 1219 the pope gave the church to Saint Dominic for his new religious order, the "Order of Preachers," commonly called the Dominicans, and it remains their world headquarters to this day. That pope, Honorius III, was a member of the Savelli family, and this church was their personal family chapel. Sabina was a wealthy Roman lady who became a Christian and was martyred, and whose home became a place of prayer. Later, the church built on that spot was dedicated to her memory.
