Second Sunday of Lent

Our Lenten Communal Penance Service with individual confession and absolution is Tuesday February 27 at 7:00pm

From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Second Sunday of Lent. We were reminded on Ash Wednesday that this penitential season is marked by the three traditional disciplines: fasting, prayer, and almsgiving.

Our Communal Reconciliation Service with individual confessions and absolution is at 7:00pm on Tuesday February 27. The schedules for Lenten Reconciliation Services at our partner parishes in our Renew My Church grouping are found on page four.

After Masses last Sunday, our catechumen and candidates in the RCIA attended the Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion at Holy Name Cathedral. See our picture on page five. Our "elect" will participate in ritual Scrutinies (aka Exorcisms) during the 10:30am Mass on the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent as they prepare to receive the Sacraments of Initiation.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

Next Friday: Meatless Soup Dinner

Our Society of Catholic Women (SCW) is hosting a meatless soup dinner following the 7:00pm Stations of the Cross on Friday March 2. Reservations are required. RSVP via phone 708.447.3108 or e-mail sthughlyons@sbcglobal.net or at <https://tinyurl.com/scwsoup18>

Farewell

Father Jose Manuel Garcia Oviedo will be leaving the MCCJ Mission Center in LaGrange Park to take on a new assignment with the Comboni Missionaries. He would like to thank everyone for their support and kindness during his seven years in America. Please join him on Saturday March 10 at Mary Queen of Heaven, 5300 24th St., Cicero for a farewell Mass at 6:30pm with a reception to follow.

This is a Test

I used to wonder how God could lie to Abraham about sacrificing his son Isaac. But the story begins by telling us God put Abraham to the test. Abraham himself seems to know it's a test. Apparently, I'm the only one fooled by God.

I don't know if I would have passed the test. I would have at least argued with God about it, begging him to spare my son. Yet in our second reading, St. Paul reminds us that God did not spare his own son. (Rom 8:32) He passed his own test. Jesus was sacrificed so that God could show us how much he loved us. If God loves us so much that he gives his Son to die for us, why would he not forgive us? He doesn't. But he is still testing us.

What does that tell us about life? You may have noticed that things don't always go your way. Does that mean those tragedies are our fault? No, God gives everyone free will and some people choose to do wrong. God intervenes sometimes and lives are saved. Other times, God intervenes by saving us after death with our resurrection. As long as people doubt God's love, there will be tests. That's why it is so important to proclaim the Kingdom: so that someday all people will know God's love and not need to be tested.

Girl Scout Cookies

Members of our local troop will have your cookie favorites available for purchase following the Masses this weekend and next weekend.

ENCOUNTER CESIA

We encounter Cesia in Nicaragua, where, despite a lack of economic opportunity, young people pursue their dreams by building businesses to better their lives.

How can you work to improve the lives of others this Lent? How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Saint of the day

March 2. Saint Agnes of Bohemia, aka Saint Agnes of Prague, never married, but had a number of nobles interested in her as a possible wife. Preferring the religious life, she joined the Poor Clares, but not until after she had built a hospital and a friary for the local Friars. She lived the Poor Clare life for 45 years.

March 3. Saint Katharine Drexel founded the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament to minister primarily to Native and African Americans in the U.S. She used much of her inherited wealth to support both the sisters and the ministry. She entered religious life as a Sister of Mercy before founding her new community which opened its first foundation in Santa Fe, New Mexico, in 1894.

Question of the Week

In the Gospel, God says, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him" (Mark 9:7). What is Jesus saying to me? What is Jesus asking me to do?

Vincentian reflection

Lent is a call not just to "give up something" but more important to "give something for the poor." Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell. This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist families, providing for food, utility, rent and other bills. God Bless You!

Stewardship thought

"Here I am!" he answered.

- GENESIS 22:11

It is easy to say, "Here I am, Lord," when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say "Here I am, Lord," when a neighbor needs our help, when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support? Often times we are called when it's not convenient for us. Discipleship is not always easy, most of the time it will make us uncomfortable and vulnerable.

Wills / Bequests

After providing for your loved ones, please consider naming Saint Hugh Parish as a beneficiary of your estate.

Treasures from our tradition

The second Sunday of Lent every year recalls the Transfiguration of the Lord. Since the fourth century, Mount Tabor has been the focus of devotion to this event. As mountains go, it is not particularly lofty, rising about fifteen hundred feet, within view of the Sea of Galilee and very close to Nazareth. Scripture doesn't identify the mountain, but in the year 348 Saint Cyril of Jerusalem said he preferred Mount Tabor to Mount Hermon as the site of the Transfiguration, and his opinion won. It has long been a strategic military site, and ancient fortresses are visible on the heights. Over the centuries, churches and fortified monasteries rose on the mountaintop, only to be destroyed by various invaders. Six hundred years ago, local Christians started to decorate the ruins with flags and banners on the Feast of the Transfiguration. In 1631, the Sultan granted permission to the Franciscans to live on Mount Tabor, and they have been there ever since, discovering the ruins of an old Crusader church and constructing the present church on the site in 1924.

The top of the mountain is divided into Greek Orthodox and Latin (that's us) zones. At one time, tourists arrived on the summit by bus, but this is no longer permitted. Some ride bicycles up a challenging and winding path, while others take the four thousand three hundred steps constructed for Christian pilgrims in the fourth century. It's hard to imagine the fishermen following Jesus up this craggy mountain without complaint. Visitors will sympathize with Peter's plan to construct booths and stay put with Jesus, Moses, and Elijah for a while, enjoying the view, and planning the trip back down.
