From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Second Sunday of Lent. The penitential season is marked by the three traditional disciplines: fasting, prayer, and almsgiving.

Today we liturgically welcome all those who are preparing to receive sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist) at the Easter Vigil or during the Easter Season. The latter group includes those who are preparing through our Religious Education Program for First Holy Communion on Sunday May 7.

During the 10:30am Mass, the names of our adult Candidates for Sacraments are added to our Book of the Elect.

Bonnie Vins will be received into the Catholic Church with the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil, Saturday April 15.

Christie Finnigan will complete her initiation with the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil, Saturday April 15.

Leticia Ibarra will complete her initiation when she is confirmed by Bishop Manz in a Vicariate ceremony on Friday May 5.

As a visible reminder for us to pray for all those preparing for sacraments of initiation, the Book of the Elect will be displayed near the baptismal font for the rest of Lent.

Those whose names are inscribed there will then participate in ritual Scrutinies during the 10:30am Mass on the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent as they prepare to receive the initiation Sacraments.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

Woman of the Year

At their March 6 meeting, the St Hugh Society of Catholic Women elected Susan Kahler as their Woman of the Year. Mrs. Kahler will receive her award at the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women's Vicariate IV banquet on May 20. Congratulations.

Parish pride this Lent

Our worship space was recently renovated. Show that you are proud of our sacred space and help others feel welcome during Lent.

- Before Mass: Greet one another. Introduce yourself. Move toward the center of the pew so that it is easier for others to enter. Silence your phone. Smile.
- During Mass: Actively participate. Sing. Take the initiative at the sign of peace. Pray with and for each other. Smile.
- After Mass: Return two copies of Breaking Bread to each book rack. Return the Order of Service card to the hat clip with the word WELCOME being the first thing that the next person will see. Put the kneelers up so that it is easier for the next person to enter. Remove whatever you have brought into the pew including the bulletin, tissues, diapers, papers, and water bottles. Smile.

You are invited to:

Saint Patrick by Paul Turner

Everyone knows when St. Patrick's Day is. But in the world of Catholic trivia, March 17 is often something else.

St. Patrick served as archbishop of Armagh in the fifth century. He brought Christianity to Ireland, where it continues to flourish. Today, Patrick has advanced far beyond most other saints, into the world of secular calendars, parades, greeting cards, table decorations, and parties. Not even the 12 apostles can boast such a festive following.

However, because of our quirky church calendar, many March 17s come and go without a mention of Patrick at Mass.

Our church ranks saints' days by their importance. The principal days are called "solemnities." Christmas and Easter are the two most important. Next are the celebrations called "feasts." Here is where we find, among others, the apostles. Then there are "memorials," the saints of general interest on the universal calendar like Francis of Assisi, Therese the Little Flower, and some of our newest saints like Maximilian Kolbe and Andrew Dung-Lac and companions. They show the multiculturalism of the communion of saints.

Then there are "optional memorials." These saints have limited or local interest, and your community may opt in or opt out of celebrating them. These include Nereus and Achilleus, Maria Goretti, Turibius de Mogrovejo, and believe it or not Patrick. Consequently, a parish could skip over Patrick every year and celebrate something like "Tuesday of the Fourth Week of Lent." When March 17 falls on a Sunday, Patrick drops out for a year. Sundays take precedence over optional memorials.

However, the principal patron of a diocese, parish or country takes the status of a solemnity. When March 17 falls on a Sunday in Lent, locales under Patrick's patronage may celebrate his day on March 18.

The liturgical color for Patrick is white, as for other saintly bishops who were spared a martyr's death. We reserve green vestments for ordinary time.

Stewardship thought

Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you. GENESIS 12:1

God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we may have to struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness and greed. Yet God promises to show us a new land and a better way to live.

Saint Joseph

Since the tenth century, the Church has honored Saint Joseph, the spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on March 19. Declared Patron of the Universal Church in 1870 by Pope Pius IX; in 1989 Pope John Paul II added the title Guardian of the Redeemer. Since March 19, 2017 is the Third Sunday of Lent, this year the Solemnity of Saint Joseph is transferred to Monday March 20.

Treasures from our tradition

The Blessed Sacrament was not reserved in church buildings in the first centuries of the church. In those early years, of course, people met in borrowed "house churches," gathering on the Lord's Day for community, apostolic teaching, the breaking of the bread, and the prayers, as Acts of the Apostles tells us. Dispersed, people went their way into the workaday world until the next assembly. Weighing down their hearts was the absence of brothers and sisters, not only the sick, but those imprisoned for the faith. No wonder they developed a way of extending the food of the Holy Table to them.

Forty years ago, every altar boy in training heard about Saint Tarcisus. He was a twelve-year-old boy at the time of intense persecution in fourth-century Rome. His community had begun to convey the consecrated bread from their Eucharist to those condemned to death or awaiting trial. Normally deacons did this, but on one occasion, it was necessary to send the boy to bear the holy mysteries to the prison. The legend says that he was an athlete, and was detained on the way by some playmates who wanted him to join in their game. When he refused, they demanded to know what he was carrying. The situation went from bad to worse, and he was badly beaten and died of his injuries. A hundred years later, a pope called him a second St. Stephen. In the nineteenth century, Cardinal Nicholas Wiseman of England wrote a novel in which he expanded the story and popularized it. By then, no one seemed to notice that this twelve-year-old was actually touching and ministering the Eucharist, unthinkable until recently. Scholars say the story rings true: the first reason for setting some Eucharistic bread aside was not adoration, but Communion of the sick.
