From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Third Sunday of Lent. The penitential season is marked by the three traditional disciplines: fasting, prayer, and almsgiving.

Last Sunday - Bonnie Vins, Christie Finnigan, and Leticia Ibarra enrolled their names in the Book of the Elect as our adult candidates for sacraments of initiation this Easter. This Sunday - they participate in the first of three scrutinies or exorcisms as part of the RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. See Father Turner's article on page four.

Our Book of the Elect is displayed near the baptismal font throughout Lent as a visible reminder for us to pray for all those preparing for sacraments of initiation this Easter including the students in our Religious Education program who will receive their First Holy Communion on May 7.

Since the tenth century, the Church has honored Saint Joseph, the spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on March 19. Declared Patron of the Universal Church in 1870 by Pope Pius IX; in 1989 Pope John Paul II added the title Guardian of the Redeemer. Since March 19, 2017 is the Third Sunday of Lent, this year the Solemnity of Saint Joseph is transferred to Monday March 20.

Lent is a penitential season. In addition to having a priest confessor available each Saturday following the 10:30am Mass, I am available at other times by appointment. Also, know that our Lenten communal reconciliation service with individual confessions and absolution is scheduled for 7:00pm on Tuesday March 28.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

"Lent is a favorable season for opening the doors to all those in need and recognizing in them the face of Christ... Each life that we encounter is a gift deserving acceptance, respect and love. The word of God helps us to open our eyes to welcome and love life, especially when it is weak and vulnerable."

-Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2017

Welcoming people fleeing violence and conflict in various regions of the world is part of our identity as Catholics. We seek to protect the vulnerable and recognize the human dignity of all. This Lent ask Congress to support these people by welcoming them, offering assistance and seeking an end to the war. Stewardship thought

Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again. JOHN 4:13

Jesus reminds us that material things, even something as basic as water, can never satisfy us for long. When we build our lives around material possessions we always want more. True Joy and Peace only comes when we follow Jesus; when we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered".

Scrutiny by Paul Turner

Tell people they will face a scrutiny before they can join your community, and they will probably say, "Thanks, but no thanks." Boldly, our church expects not one but three scrutinies of the elect before their baptism at Easter.

Scrutinies are rites of self-searching and repentance. When people from another spiritual background seek baptism in the Catholic church, they do so by stages. First we accept them into the order of catechumens. Then as they complete their catechetical formation we enroll them among the "elect," or those chosen for baptism. This rite of election generally coincides with the beginning of Lent. Three times during Lent the church prays the scrutinies to encourage a spirit of repentance among those who seek a worthy celebration of baptism.

Although scrutinies have returned fairly recently to Catholic parishes, they originated early in church history. St. Ambrose and St. Augustine celebrated them in the fourth and fifth century to mark the spiritual progress of the catechumens. The moral preparation of catechumens included prayers of exorcism to drive out the spirit of evil which kept them from embracing Christ as their light. In the scrutinies the church discerned if those exorcisms had achieved their effect. Catechumens entered the church, stood barefoot on goatskin and renounced evil influences all night. Those unworthy of baptism had to wait another year for Easter to roll around again.

Today's scrutinies seem less intense. They still include an exorcism, in which the priest or deacon prays that the spirit of evil may be replaced by the spirit of good. Their purpose is not so much to examine the candidates' mental readiness but their spiritual readiness. Scrutinies offer the catechumens the support they need to approach the waters of baptism worthily.

For those who are already baptized, the scrutinies invite us to embrace the same spirit of self-searching and repentance. At Easter we renew our baptismal promises as we see the catechumens baptized. So during Lent we renew our repentance as we see the elect scrutinized. The scrutinies remind us of the seriousness of our Christian life and inspire us to turn from evil and pursue good. They enliven our recommitment to Christ at Easter.

Treasures from our tradition

Long ago, the custom of sending some pieces of consecrated bread from the Lord's table began to take hold. Originally it was a way of assuring the sick and imprisoned of their bonds of faith and affection with the community from whom they were separated. By the third century, at least in Rome, we have evidence that the bishop would consign some of the sacred elements to presbyters or deacons.

There was a crisis in the unity of the church early on, called the quartodeciman controversy, since some people wanted to celebrate the Pasch on the fourteenth day (quartodecima) of the Jewish month Nissan, even if it didn't fall on a Sunday. The debate so fractured the church that the historian of the era, Eusebius, reported a new development to the pope. He wrote that the churches holding to the Lord's Day sent out consecrated bread to the disgruntled people of the quartodeciman pastors with whom they were quarreling. Meanwhile, bishops complained about people taking the Eucharist home. St. Cyprian told a cautionary tale of a sinful woman who tried to open the "casket" containing the consecrated bread in her home. She was deterred from receiving, he said, by flames erupting from the box. Clearly, he wanted people to think twice before bringing Communion home!

The Council of Nicaea defined the "old rule of the church" as allowing for reserving the eucharistic bread for the sake of the dying. The same council could foresee circumstances of persecution when people might have the Eucharist on hand to administer to one another in a time of great danger, literally, at the point of a sword. The first and enduring purpose for reserving the Eucharist is viaticum for the dying.
