Third Sunday of Lent

RCIA - First Scrutiny during the 10:30 Mass

From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Third Sunday of Lent. During the 10:30 Mass we have the first of three Scrutinies - part of the RCIA. Our Book of the Elect is displayed near the baptismal font and is intended as a reminder to pray for all those who are preparing to receive Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil (March 31) or during the Easter Season (First Communion on April 22 and Confirmation on April 29).

Lent is a penitential season. If you were unable to attend our parish Reconciliation Service this past Tuesday, know that our partner parishes in our Renew My Church grouping have communal penance services at 7:00pm on the following Mondays: Mater Christ (North Riverside) on March 5, Saint Mary (Riverside) on March 12, and Saint Pius X (Stickney) on March 19.

The members of the Priest Placement Board will soon be making their recommendations to Cardinal Cupich regarding the transition of pastors. Pray that they be responsive to the Holy Spirit who will direct them for the good of the Archdiocese of Chicago and for Saint Hugh Parish.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

Rest in peace

In your kindness, please pray for the repose of the soul of Virginia Hanczar. Funeral rites for Ms. Hanczar were held on Thursday February 22 at Saint Hugh and Resurrection Cemetery.

ENCOUNTER SAFIATA

In Burkina Faso, we encounter Safiata, a mother, grandmother and farmer who relies on the money she makes from her crops to put her children through school. How can our purchases this Lent support farmers and artisans? How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities? Visit csrricebowl.org for more

Farewell

Father Jose Manuel Garcia Oviedo will be leaving the MCCJ Mission Center in LaGrange Park to take on a new assignment with the Comboni Missionaries. He would like to thank everyone for their support and kindness during his seven years in America. Please join him on Saturday March 10 at Mary Queen of Heaven, 5300 24th St., Cicero for a farewell Mass at 6:30pm with a reception to follow.

Girl Scout Cookies

Members of our local troop have your favorite cookies available for purchase following the Masses this weekend.

Ten Commandments

As we are now well into Lent, we can take a look at what it means to turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel. A good place to start would be the Ten Commandments. The reading from Exodus presents us with one of the first listings of the Commandments. In this passage, God explains some of the laws to show how serious they are. For the first one, God includes making images to be used for worship. In the days of Moses, people of other cultures made images of their gods and declared that the image was the god, and so should be worshipped. The LORD wanted his people to remember that God cannot be limited to an image or idea. That is still true today. Our images and statues are meant to help us pray to God, not to that work of art.

On the other hand, some people give a superstitious meaning to religious articles. Burying a statue to help sell your house could be one example. If you want to ask for a favor from God, just ask Him. God is much more likely to listen to a sincere prayer than a superstitious action.

God also emphasizes some commands by duplicating them. He tells us not to steal from others, and also not to plan to steal from our neighbor. The same with adultery: Planning it is just as bad as doing it. Jesus simplified all these commands when he reminds us to love God with all your heart and love your neighbor as yourself. Let's remember that as we turn away from sin to serving God better during Lent.

Saint of the day

March 7. Saints Perpetua and Felicity are two well-known names among the early church martyrs. Saint Perpetua's diary gives us facts about their last days.

March 8. Saint John of God's life story is proof of the possibility of conversion and change with the grace of our merciful God. The first part of his life was not very praiseworthy, but once he turned to God and asked for mercy, he became the saint that we know.

March 9. Saint Frances of Rome is a good example of what Vatican II hoped for - an active laity who take their baptismal call seriously. Her life shows that the call for an active, dedicated laity has been a part of the Church all along.

Meet our RCIA - Elect

My name is Jamie and I'm 25 years old. I am a young woman who is completely filled with love and joy! I work at Loyola Hospital in the Rheumatology department.

Throughout my days I tend to stay determined/motivated to achieve each goal I set for myself.

I believe I am a very giving/caring person and tend to put others before my own needs/wants. Speaking of "wants", I really desire to complete my Sacraments. I have gone through my Baptism/ Communion during my adolescent years.

So, now that I'm an adult I find it crucial to build a better relationship with God. "Growth is vital to human life; the body and mind must grow to stay alive."

- While preparing with other adults in the RCIA, Jamie Conroyd will be Confirmed by Bishop Manz at Saint Hugh Parish on April 29

Wills / Bequests

After providing for your loved ones, please consider naming Saint Hugh Parish as a beneficiary of your estate.

Vincentian reflection

In today's Gospel Jesus is asked "What sign can you show us?" Everyday we can see signs of how God has visited us in the blessings of our lives.

Let us be a sign of God's love by being a blessing to others. Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can be a sign of God's love to the suffering and poor.

Stewardship thought

You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything...
- EXODUS 20:4

How many "gods" do you put before God? "Idols" do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot like pride, power, ego, time, comfort or health.

Question of the Week

How can I take the mercy and wisdom of God and pass it on to others in my day-to-day life? Am I providing an example of God's mercy in my relationships with others? Am I providing an example of God's wisdom by valuing what the world ridicules?

Treasures from our tradition

If your parish is reading from Year B of the Lectionary today, and not Year A, as is normally done when there are elect present for the scrutinies and preparing for Easter baptism, you hear about Jesus driving the money-changers from the temple. If you wished to get as close as possible to this site today, you would in fact be at a Muslim shrine, the Dome of the Rock, built on the ruins of Herod's temple. Archeologists believe that this striking, gold-domed crown of a shrine is set precisely where the Holy of Holies once was. Jews believe that the rock is the exact spot where Abraham was prepared to sacrifice Isaac. It is not a mosque, as some think, but a shrine, the oldest one in the Muslim world. For them, the rock is the place from which the Prophet Mohammed ascended on a visit to heaven. The Crusaders mistook the shrine for the actual Temple of Solomon, and the infamous Knights Templar used it as their headquarters and model for their churches elsewhere. The geometric perfection of the shrine is a mathematician's dream. The inscriptions are not exactly hospitable though, since they encourage Christians to "depart from error" and declare that "Jesus son of Mary was only a messenger of God." In ancient times, those who prayed here after walking around the rock were given a certificate entitling the bearer to admission to paradise. The ticket had to be buried with them.

Saint Hugh in art

The image on the left is taken from the cover of the parish bulletin circa 1989. Here we see our parish patron saint lifting up to God a model of the parish church in a manner that recalls the saintly Bishop of Grenoble's historical cooperation with Saint Bruno in establishing the Carthusians at Chartreuse in southeastern France.
