From the Pastor's Desk

Thanks be to God! Alleluia! Alleluia! Music Ministry proclaims Jesus is Risen!

Each day of the Triduum we musicians tried to pay attention to the notes we followed, the texts we sang and each other. On Holy Thursday, cantors Carole Hallberg and Sally Olivares harmonizing during the psalm. Chris Alfred on violin and the choir welcomed back the Gloria with bells. On Good Friday we reflected with the choir and Celeste Quesada on violin during the Adoration of the Cross.

At the Easter Vigil, Rose Hawrylicz proclaimed the Exultet. At last the whole assembly was pleased to stand and sing Alleluia again. Celeste Quesada played violin and Veronica Alfred played flute. Cindy Gradek added a glorious trumpet for Resucito! and Jesus Christ is Risen Today.

On Easter Sunday at 8:00am cantor Sally Olivares sang Be Joyful, Mary. The assembly joined her in the Easter Sequence which preceded the Easter Alleluia. At 10:30am the choir and cantor Rose Hawrylicz returned to sing with Cindy Gradek on trumpet, Nick Pieta on oboe, Liz Pieta and Alexa Venditti on flute, and Jason Hallberg on percussion and cello. The Children's Choir offered a jubilant Communion reflection, Join in the Dance. Thank you to Cindy, Kevin, Alexys, Marissa, Fatima, Miriam, Linsy and Gianna. We appreciate the generous service of the Choir: Lorraine Marek, Marilyn Scapardine, Rosemarie Scheffel, Caroline Suvetor, Bonnie Tarry, Barbara Derwin, Sally Olivares, Mildred Estoce, Carole Hallberg, and Kim Thomas. Thank you to all musicians who rehearsed so diligently to prepare for these sacred days.

We welcome anyone who feels called to make music to praise God as cantor, choir, resurrection choir, or instrumentalist. May we be faithful servants who make sung prayer happen in our parish community.

The Messiah is Risen Indeed!

Fran Serpe, Music Director

Blessings and joy this Easter season. Our festival of fifty days will culminate liturgically with the celebration of Pentecost on May 15.

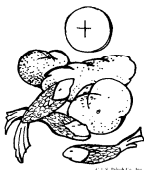

Last week's bulletin began organizing the listings of events off our campus under the headline You are invited to: This week you will find that feature at the bottom right corner of this page. Some of the abbreviated postings will be directed to particular readers i.e., the alumni of a school but most are offered to whomever is interested. Please use the contact information provided to learn more about the various programs and activities.

Fittingly, our parish will joyfully celebrate both First Holy Communion and Confirmation during this Easter Season. During the 10:30am Mass on May 1, the Sixth Sunday of Easter, twenty students in our Religious Education Program will receive the Eucharist for the first time. During the 10:30am Mass on Pentecost Sunday, May 15, we will welcome the Most Rev. Andrew P. Wypych, an Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Chicago, to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to sixteen of our parishioners. Kindly remember in your prayers those who are preparing to receive these sacraments, their parents, godparents, sponsors, and catechists.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Question of the week

Whom should I seek out this week and invite to a real breakfast with me? Can I then invite them to a spiritual breakfast with Jesus in a community that welcomes everyone to Jesus' feast of mercy?

Jubilee of Mercy: December 8, 2015 - November 20, 2016

How appropriate today's Gospel for this Jubilee Year of Mercy, both because of the "breakfast" Jesus provides ("a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread") and the number of fish in Peter's net ("one hundred fifty-three") (John 21:11-12). Of the fish, Saint Augustine suggests that the roasted fish is the suffering Christ. Saint Gregory the Great adds that Christ lowered himself to swim in the "water" of our humanity;
to be caught in the "net" of our death; to be "roasted"
in his Passion on the fire of suffering. Saint Jerome claims that "one hundred fifty-three" represents the full number of known species of fish, signifying that the Church's "net" has room for all our widely diverse humanity, securing our unity-in-diversity in the hands of Peter and his successors. Having received God's mercy as "the beating heart of the Gospel," may the Church-- we--"pattern [our] behavior after the Son of God who went out to everyone without exception" (Misericordiae Vultus, 12).

Mystagogy by Paul Turner

Mystagogy is a period of postbaptismal catechesis. It usually coincides with the 50 days of Easter.

Unbaptized adults and children of catechetical age celebrate the three sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil. That night they are baptized, receive confirmation, and share in the Eucharist for the first time.

To prepare for that evening, they have spent a long time in catechetical formation, learning how to act, think, and believe as Christians do. After their baptism, in the midst of the entire community, their formation continues for a while. That period is called "mystagogy."

Mystagogy invites the newly baptized to participate more deeply in all the things that Christians do—meditating on the gospel, sharing in the Eucharist, and performing charity. In all this, they let the meaning of the death and resurrection of Christ take firm root in their lives.

Of course, catechumens are expected to behave as Christians even before they are baptized. They should be turning away from a life of sin and turning toward Christ, establishing him as their center. But after baptism things are different. Now they are truly one with the Christian community, even to the point of sharing in the Eucharist. With the power of the sacraments, the newly baptized are better able to live as Christians and to reflect on the gospel and its effect on their lives in a more complete way.

Mystagogical catechesis primarily comes from the preaching at Sunday Mass. During this time homilists proclaim the paschal mystery as they break open the meaning of the sacraments in which it always comes to life. Preachers are to accomplish this task on the Sundays of the Easter season.

Stewardship thought

"Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, 'Do you love me?' and he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'" JOHN 21:17

All of us are challenged to show our love for Jesus by "feeding His sheep." Through prayer ask God how you should best use your time, talent and treasure to assist those who are in need. Remember that giving is an act of worship and helps advance the mission of our parish and greater Church.

Rest in peace

In your kindness, pray for the repose of the souls of John Butkovich and Chris Liska Carger. Funeral rites for Mr. Butkovich were held at Saint Hugh on Tuesday March 29. Mrs. Carger's funeral Mass was here on Thursday March 31.

New Life in Christ

Lauren Kate Freeman, daughter of ShuFeng/Teresa (Cheng) and John Freeman, and Maya Jade Espinosa & Liam Daniel Espinosa, children of Grace (Lu) and Daniela Espinosa, were baptized on Sunday April 3. Congratulations.

Treasures from the tradition

From the earliest centuries, we know that some Christian women desired to vow themselves to a celibate life to pray and serve. Some, but by no means everyone, wanted a kind of monastic life. Others wanted to stay in the family home. By the fourth century, the church was celebrating the "Consecration of Virgins," a rite performed by the bishop, and involving a "veiling" of the woman. It was looked upon as a form of marriage with Christ, partly because in the culture of the day a woman's status in society was linked to a man. The prayers and ritual for the consecration of virgins were exactly the same as the prayers and ritual for the consecration of a bride on her wedding day. The public character of the rite gave the bishop the opportunity to commend the virgin to the faithful, and to threaten with punishment anyone who tried to turn her from her commitment. Eventually, the rite fell into disuse for women living in the world, and was reserved for nuns. The Second Vatican Council directed that it be revived and restored, and in nearly every diocese, single women have embraced this form of consecrated life.

JUBILEE OF MERCY

REMEMBER

God always remembers to be merciful. It is a promise he makes and a promise he keeps. We may forget, but God does not. We can rely on that. "He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors." (Luke 1:54)
