ALLELUIA

Blessings and joy on this Fourth Sunday of Easter. Since the Gospel passage for this Sunday always includes a Shepherd metaphor, the Fourth Sunday of Easter is commonly referred to as Good Shepherd Sunday.

Using that same logic, Good Shepherd Sunday is annually the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. While we are all called to imitate Christ, some in the Church are called to more closely imitate Jesus as the Good Shepherd. Priests and religious are not "hired help" but rather, they give their whole lives to the Church.

Locally, we welcome the occasion of this Easter Sunday as we invite twenty-five of our young parishioners (listed on bulletin cover) to the Eucharistic Banquet.

Congratulations to our First Communicants. Congratulations also to their parents, god-parents, relatives, and fellow parishioners. Our thanks to all who have prepared them for this special religious occasion, especially their catechists.

...but wait, there is more. Since 1970, April 22 is also known as Earth Day. This year's Earth Day theme is End Plastic Pollution. From poisoning and injuring marine life to disrupting human hormones, from littering our beaches and landscapes to clogging our waste streams and landfills, the exponential growth of plastics is now threatening the survival of our planet. In response, Earth Day 2018 is dedicated to providing the information and inspiration needed to fundamentally change human attitude and behavior about plastics. Visit: www.earthday.org

This is your final chance to RSVP for the SCW's Spring Event - Free Pasta Dinner on Saturday April 28. ONLY those who have made dinner reservations will be served. See page five of this bulletin for all the details.

Next Sunday we will welcome the Most Rev. John R. Manz to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to twenty-five of our parishioners at the 10:30am Mass.

As an Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Chicago, Bishop Manz is the Episcopal Vicar for the region that includes Saint Hugh. He will return here later this year to install the Rev. Robert Marchwiany as the eleventh pastor of Saint Hugh Parish.

Our paschal festival is fifty days and will include the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord on Sunday May 13 (which is also Mother's Day) and will culminate liturgically with the celebration of the Solemnity of Pentecost, the so-called Birthday of the Church, on May 20.

During Easter, consider how you might more fully participate in the church's liturgy and the ministry and mission of our parish. For the next few weeks, a Parish Help Wanted / Volunteers Needed feature will be found at the bottom of page six in this weekly bulletin.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

The Rejected Savior

In the reading from Acts, Peter explains to the leaders of Israel how they cured a crippled man. They probably expected Peter to take credit for the cure, so they were waiting for him to hang himself by his words. Peter, of course, gives the credit to Jesus and then makes two important points.

First he calls Jesus the "stone you builders rejected, which has become the cornerstone." This quote from Psalm 118 was used often by the early Christians to show that Jesus was rejected by fellow Jews when he was crucified, but was actually doing God's will when he gave his life on the cross. Thus he became not just a martyr, but the savior of the world. This gave comfort to those who had expected the leaders of Israel to follow Jesus and recognize him as the Messiah. It also told those leaders that they could be forgiven for crucifying Jesus if they would simply repent.

The second point made by Peter was that Jesus is the one and only savior of the world. In those days, the Roman emperor was considered to be a god and was called a savior. Peter says this to the leaders because they had to obey the emperor and his appointed rulers over Israel. While we no longer look to politicians to be saviors, we need to remember that Jesus is the Savior: he forgives our sins, shows us how to love God and our neighbors, and hears our prayers. He lives in us to support us when the answer to our prayers is "no." And in the end, he is with us when we die to bring us to eternal life. When we love others (and are loved by others) we experience a taste of God's love. Now the choice is yours: to reject the Savior or make Him the cornerstone of your life.

Saint of the day

April 23. Slayer of dragons, rescuer of a king's daughter, and other legends seem to cling to Saint George. What we do know for sure is that he was willing to shed his blood for the faith.

April 24. Saint Fidelis of Sigmaringen was known for his generosity and care for the poor throughout his life. Starting off as a lawyer, he became disenchanted and joined the Capuchins where he was known for his prayer and preaching.

April 25. Most likely the first of the four Gospels, Saint Mark has one goal to present Jesus as God's crucified messiah, and he fulfills that goal concisely.

April 27. A diocesan priest with a great devotion to Mary, Saint Louis Mary Grignon de Montfort lived a life of notable poverty and simplicity. He encouraged daily communion at a time when it was not customary to receive the Eucharist frequently.

Vincentian reflection

Today, we celebrate "Good Shepherd Sunday" where we reflect on Jesus' love and care for us. This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to be "Good Shepherds" to the hearts of the poor, to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

Stewardship thought

I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice. Jn 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Him what He wants from you? How do you listen for His response? Usually, the answer is in "quiet whispers", so take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His response.

Question of the Week

In what ways can the Holy Spirit give me wisdom and courage to speak and act regarding issues in the world, in our country, in my community?

Treasures from our tradition

Most languages take the name for this fifty-day season from the Lord's Passover: Pasqua in Italian, Pâques in French, Paach in Dutch, Pascha in Greek and Russian. English has a much newer name, the name of a pagan goddess, Easter. For centuries before Christianity took hold, in both Germany and Britain the spring equinox was dedicated to her and the concepts of fertility and rebirth. She was said to be a playful spirit, following the Sun King's chariot, and ending the reign of winter. She had a magical companion, a rabbit who hid eggs in the fields to coax plants and animals to rebirth. It was believed that Easter once came across a bird with broken wings and saved it by turning it into a rabbit--an egg-laying rabbit at that! Although they were baptized, most people didn't take to the new Latin name (Pascha Domini) too easily, and kept calling the spring equinox by the old accustomed name. For good measure, they kept a pagan name for Christmas, too: Yule.

Volunteer(s) wanted

Assistance is needed with making the in-stock Scrip (formerly Manna) available for purchase after the Masses. Volunteers are stationed at the doors of church for ten minutes following the Mass at which they are scheduled. Helpers are needed at 4:00pm Saturdays and 8:00am Sundays. Contact Christine Alfred at the parish office.

Volunteers for liturgical ministers are always welcome. The present schedule of Readers and Eucharistic Ministers indicates that our greatest needs are for a Reader at the 8:00am Mass and for additional Communion Ministers at all Masses, but especially at the 8:00am Mass. Those willing to serve in these ministries will participate in a brief training session prior to being scheduled. Call Arlene Houda at 708.442.9268 or contact the parish office.
