The Word is a gift.

Other persons are a gift

Let us pray for one another so that, by sharing in the victory of Christ, we may open our doors to the weak and poor. Then we will be able to experience and share to the full the joy of Easter.

-Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2017

A recent executive order, signed on March 6, imposes travel restrictions for nationals of six Muslim majority countries; suspends refugee resettlement for 120 days; and drastically reduces the number of refugees the United States welcomes from 110,000 to 50,000, a historic low. This Easter urge the President & your policymakers to rescind these policies and enforce the core American values of welcoming persecuted families and individuals who come to the U.S. to rebuild their lives in safety and dignity. Call your members of Congress at 888.562.8232 or send an emailed message through <http://www.confrontglobalpoverty.org>

Stewardship thought

Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

JOHN 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, a new neighbor, a new work colleague, a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? Many of us can probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. A simple "hello" and a smile goes a long way.

Thank you

The Saint Hugh Society of Catholic Women (SCW) thanks all who participated in their annual luncheon Beyond the Sea and grand raffle. Congratulations to all raffle winners including SCW members Bonnie Tarry ($200) and Christine Alfred ($300). The next Monthly SCW Gathering is Monday May 1 beginning with the Rosary at 6:30pm. The next Wine, Women & the Word is Saturday May 13. In celebration of the 100th anniversary of the appearance of Mary at Fatima, the SCW will participate in some Marian activity on the thirteenth of each month from May through October. The ACCW Women of the Year luncheon is Saturday May 20. Congratulations to Susan Kahler.

Divine Mercy Sunday by Paul Turner

The Second Sunday of Easter is also called "Divine Mercy Sunday." When Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina in the jubilee year of 2000, he added the title to this day. In visions, Faustina heard Jesus request that the image of divine mercy be venerated on the Sunday after Easter, a day John Paul lovingly chose for Faustina's canonization.

Many communities display the image of Divine Mercy on this day. Jesus' penetrating, compassionate gaze reaches out to the viewer. Red and white rays emanate from his heart, symbols of blood and water—Eucharist and baptism. Many Catholics confess their sins or pray before the Blessed Sacrament in conjunction with this feast.

A priest may use the prayers from the votive Mass for Divine Mercy on any day when a stronger feast does not conflict. The Second Sunday of Easter has its own prayers and readings, so the votive Mass for Divine Mercy is never permitted on that day. Instead we observe the much older tradition of the octave day of Easter. The Gospel story of the doubting Thomas is heard every year on this day because Jesus appeared to him a week after the resurrection. The other texts for this Mass refer to the season and to baptism. This day used to be called Dominica in albis, the Sunday of white garments, because those baptized at the Easter Vigil wore their new vesture to conclude a week of catechesis about the sacraments.

Today the only change to this liturgy is its title: the Second Sunday of Easter, or Divine Mercy Sunday. The mercy of God may be proclaimed in the homily or the prayer of the faithful, but especially in the actions of believers, who extend God's mercy to all they meet.

Easter gratitude

Thank you to all who helped make our Triduum and Easter Sunday services beautiful and prayerful. We are most grateful for the generosity (time-talent-treasure) of many during this holiest of seasons.

Treasures from our tradition

The origins of the custom of burning a lamp before the tabernacle are in Jewish worship, where a lamp called ner tamid or "eternal flame" burns before the ark in every synagogue. The ark contains the sacred scrolls of the Torah. The flame represents the menorah in the Temple, and therefore is never extinguished. In fact, the word "tabernacle" itself is derived from Hebrew, as taber is the Hebrew word for "tent," and harkens back to the forty years of wandering in the desert. The pilgrim people were sustained in hope by an awareness that God was not only in the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night, but had quite literally "pitched his tent with them" in the shelter for the Ark of the Covenant. Some artisans have used this theme of "ark" or "tent" to design a tabernacle for the Blessed Sacrament.

In Christian practice, Anglicans and Catholics use a sanctuary lamp to point toward the presence of the reserved sacrament, and Lutherans use it as a sign of God's presence in the house of worship, but not necessarily as a clue that the Eucharist is reserved. Why, even in an age of electric light, is the sanctuary lamp an oil light or candle? Perhaps not only to point to Christ, the light of the world, but also to point to sacrifice. For the light to exist, there must be sacrifice. The oil or wax is transformed into light, just as those who pray here, or who will receive viaticum from here, are called to transformation in Christ.
