From the Pastor's Desk

While the liturgical calendar returns to Ordinary Time (think Green) following Pentecost, the two Sundays following the Easter Season are given to a pair of so-called feasts of devotion. This weekend is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity and next weekend is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Since what we are celebrating is not a specific event in the life of Jesus, these are sometimes referred to as idea feasts. Today's solemnity was declared a universal observance by Pope John XXII in 1334.

The extra envelope this week is for retired priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago. It helps to support my four living predecessors: Fathers O'Connor, Stokus, Moran, and Burnell.

Wednesday is Flag Day. Officially established by the 1916 proclamation of President Wilson; in 1949 President Truman signed an Act of Congress designating June 14 of each year as National Flag Day.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Of musical note Vacation for Children and Choirs

Our Children's Choir celebrated the end of their wonderful year singing for Jesus at a Pizza Party. They presented their favorite songs and games as well as a skit showing how determined they are to continue worshipping during the summer. Children return for rehearsal on Wednesday, September 13 at 5:00 – 6:00pm to prepare for singing on the first Sunday of the month: October 1 at 10:30am.

St. Hugh Ensemble and Choir are also taking a break for the summer. Their commitment to weekly singing at 4:00pm Saturday or 10:30am Sunday during the year is much appreciated. The energy dedicated singers bring to sung prayer is a wonderful gift to all. Summertime they will be alert to listening to those around them to grow our music ministry. They return September 9-10 to sing together again for another year of grace.

The Resurrection Choir will continue to sing for funerals. Consider joining if you are available during the morning. Cantors will meet every other week for rehearsal throughout the summer for our weekend liturgies. We welcome new vocalists as well as instrumentalists as we shift to vacation mode. Any participation you'd like to offer is welcome!

Weekly Vincentian Reflection

As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise. Your support of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul helps the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them.

A recent executive order, signed on March 6, imposes travel restrictions for nationals of six Muslim majority countries; suspends refugee resettlement for 120 days; and drastically reduces the number of refugees the United States welcomes from 110,000 to 50,000, a historic low. Urge the President & your policymakers to rescind these policies and enforce the core American values of welcoming persecuted families and individuals who come to the U.S. to rebuild their lives in safety and dignity. Stewardship thought

For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son.... John 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love? Are you generous with your time, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

Treasures from our tradition

It is often heard that today's observance is an "idea feast," and that it is somewhat difficult to grasp its meaning. Other great solemnities, such as Christmas and Easter, have an easily grasped core. Yet, even though the Trinity is at the heart of our faith, firmly declared in the Creed since the Council of Nicea in 325, we are used to having people shrug and say, "Well, it's a mystery."

Perhaps it is more helpful to think of this as a "relationship feast," since it unveils our deepest identity. Dorothy Day was a great social reformer, pacifist, and ardent lover of the Trinity. When people told her that she would certainly be canonized one day (the process is indeed underway), she protested dismissively by remarking that people were raising a fuss just because she was not afraid to talk about God. She loved the Trinity, and treasured the traditional icon for the feast, also known as "The Hospitality of Abraham," depicting the three angelic beings seated at a table tilted toward the viewer and laden with bread and wine. For her, the Trinity revealed the heart of the Catholic life, three C's if you will: community, communication, and communion. That was not an "idea" for her, but what it means to be created in the image of the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Sign of the Cross by Paul Turner

Each Mass begins with the sign of the cross. The priest says, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," and the people answer, "Amen." Meanwhile, all make the traditional gesture in accompaniment. Usually they use their right hand to touch their forehead, breast, and left and right shoulders while the names of the Trinity are pronounced. In some cultures, people kiss their thumb afterward or fold their hands. Some lower their head or close their eyes, but others look straight ahead to draw inspiration from the faith of the entire community.

Prior to the Second Vatican Council, the priest gestured the sign of the cross alone while saying the words silently. Pope Paul VI personally requested that a communal sign of the cross be introduced at the start of the Mass, where it has been since 1969.

The sign of the cross is a popular way to begin and conclude prayer. For example, a mealtime blessing often opens and closes with it. It verbally proclaims our faith in the Holy Trinity as it announces our intentions to do and say all things in the name of God.

At times during Mass, the priest traces a cross in the air with his right hand raised up, fingers extended, and palm facing his left. He positions his hand in the direction of people or things he blesses. He does this, for example, after putting incense on burning coals, while blessing the deacon before he reads the Gospel, while calling down the Spirit over the bread and wine during the eucharistic prayer, and while blessing the people just before the dismissal. His first and last words at Mass are the sign of the cross.
