Happy Father's Day

From the Pastor's Desk

Liturgically, today is the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time. As the third Sunday of June, today is also Fathers' Day in the United States. The following Blessing of Fathers is taken from our Baptismal Rite:

God is the giver of all life, human and divine. May he bless the fathers of these children. With their wives they will be the first teachers of their children in the ways of faith. May they also be the best of teachers, bearing witness to the faith by what they say and do, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen

Next weekend we will welcome the Rev. Melanio Viuya, MJ to preach at each of the Masses as we participate in the sixty-eighth annual Archdiocesan Missionary Co-operative. Every summer each parish dedicates one weekend to reflect on and to pray for the missionary activity of the universal church and to support one particular cause. This year we have been partnered with the Missionaries of Jesus (MJ). Father Viuya has provided the brief description of his congregation found below. Please make your donation using the envelope designed for this purpose and place it in the regular collection. Additional mission envelopes are available at the church doors or from an usher.

Below is a group picture from Confirmation on Sunday May 15. If they have not already done so, parents of those confirmed should make arrangements to pick-up group and individual photos of this happy Easter season celebration by contacting the faith formation office.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Mission Appeal - MJ

The Missionaries of Jesus (MJ) is an international and multicultural religious missionary community founded in the Philippines in 2002.

Our objective is the promotion of the universality of the Christian message through presence (witness and dialogue of life), proclamation, and prayer.

Our mission is to unveil the real face of Jesus hidden in our brothers and sisters in any mountain and plain; forest and city we work and live – as we gather Jesus' friends and disciples.

We are working in the Philippines, Papua New Guinea, Guatemala, and the USA. We focus on evangelization of people, formation of leaders, education of the youth, socio-economic and health needs of the poor and the indigenous people. www.missionariesofjesus.com

The Response of the Gospel of Mercy

El Salvador, Honduras and Guatemala are currently experiencing some of the highest rates of homicide and violence in the world, resulting in the forced displacement of thousands of their citizens to neighboring countries, as well as to the U.S. Many of those targeted for deportation by the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Agency (ICE), have valid claims to humanitarian protection in the U.S. but lacked adequate legal representation or were fast tracked through legal proceedings without basic due process guarantees.

Question of the week

As today's Gospel confronts me with the question of who Jesus is for me, the Jubilee Year challenges me to ask, to whom will I become an instrument of Jesus' mercy?

Jubilee of Mercy: December 8, 2015 - November 20, 2016

Today, as he often does, Luke portrays Jesus "praying in solitude" (Luke 9:18). The Jubilee Year of Mercy invites us to rediscover the value of silence as the prayerful setting in which to reflect on the ways in which God's mercy transforms our lives, in order to make mercy the heart of our own lifestyle. But in a line that sounds odd, Jesus "rebuked" his disciples "and directed them not to tell anyone" (9:20-21) after they professed their faith in Jesus as "the Christ of God" (9:20). Jesus challenges us also to profess our faith not by what we say, but by what we do: take up our own cross daily (9:23) and "bear one another's burdens" (Galatians 6:2). Our gratitude for God's mercy toward us should make us instruments of God's mercy toward all. Then, as Zechariah prophesies in today's first reading, the fountain of God's mercy will open to purify the whole world from the sin and selfishness that cause suffering and sorrow to so many (Zechariah 13:1). - Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Stewardship thought

If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. - LUKE 9:23

We are not very good at “denying ourselves” in our society. Our current economic situation is evidence of what happens when people think they can have everything they want. Jesus calls us to set our own personal “wants” aside so that we have the resources to follow Him instead.

Treasures from the tradition

It's almost midsummer day! One of the great hidden treasures of our liturgical calendar occurs this week. There are only three "nativity" feasts on our calendar: for the Lord, the Blessed Mother (September 8), and the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist on June 24. Friday's date is anchored by the Annunciation (March 25), when Mary learns not only of her own child's advent, but of Elizabeth's child. We are exactly half a year away from Christmas Eve. There are strong traditions around this feast. Just as the winter solstice provides a rich vocabulary for Christmas, so does the abundance of light at midsummer inform this celebration. Just as at Christmas, a religious festival spills over into culture. As summer light reaches its peak, the sun-drenched zones of northern Europe see people staying up all night, kindling "St. John's Fires" in the long summer twilight. Bonfires seem to be the unifying force in all these celebrations, kindled along the shores of the St. Lawrence in Quebec and Montreal, with harbor illuminations in France. You may be most interested in the custom in San Juan, Puerto Rico, the Baptist's own city. People there will leap into the sea between midnight and dawn to honor John. Why not find your way to a pool, a lake, or a sandy beach this week and plunge in to recall your baptism? It's a tradition!

Luke by Paul Turner

Every third year most of the Gospels at the Sunday Eucharist come from Luke. In Ordinary Time, we hear many passages about Jesus' ministry in sequence. During Advent, Christmas, and Lent we hear sections that accent the themes of those seasons.

Luke excelled in quantity and quality. As the writer also of Acts of the Apostles, he composed nearly a third of the New Testament. The most eloquent of all the evangelists, Luke includes in his Gospel the beautifully crafted stories of the Annunciation to Mary, the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son. Without his work, we would have no knowledge of those stories.

The author's identity is a mystery. The original work probably dates to 80-85 AD. But the Gospel itself never identifies the name of its author and the earliest editions assigned no author's name to the Gospel's title. Paul's Letter to Philemon lists someone named Luke among his co-workers (24). At the end of the second century, Irenaeus of Lyon reported that Luke, the companion of Paul, wrote the third Gospel, and it has been called "Luke" ever since. Nevertheless, it cannot be proved that Paul's companion is also the author of this Gospel.

Legends have grown up about Luke. The Letter to the Colossians calls him a beloved physician (4:14), causing a tradition that the evangelist was also a doctor. In the Middle Ages, physicians and painters belonged to the same guild so stories formed that Luke had also created works of art.

Luke's Gospel stresses several important themes: God's necessary plan for salvation, prayer in the life of Jesus, the role of the Holy Spirit, and the dignity of the poor. Among the evangelists, Luke is symbolized as an ox, a sacrificial animal that foreshadows the sacrifice of Christ.

JUBILEE OF MERCY NOTICE

The first requirement to live mercifully is to notice those who need mercy, kindness, and forgiveness. If we are distracted or absorbed in ourselves, we will never notice. And we will never be merciful. The first step is to look. "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus." (Luke 16:19-20)
