St. Hugh First Communicants ~ April 22, 2018

From the Pastor's Desk

While the liturgical calendar returned to Ordinary Time (think Green) following Pentecost, the two Sunday days following the Easter Season are given to a pair of so-called feasts of devotion. This weekend is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

In 1264, Pope Urban IV extended the Feast of Corpus Christi to the universal church. The medieval feast has been combined with the nineteenth century Feast of The Most Precious Blood of Christ (Sanguis Pretiosissimus Christi) to form today's solemnity. In addition to Holy Thursday and First Communions during Easter-time, we welcome this opportunity to reflect on the importance of the Eucharist.

In the United States June 3, when not a Sunday, is the memorial of Saint Charles Lwanga and companions. Today, in Kampala, I will be among a million faithful, including many pilgrims, celebrating the Uganda Martyrs.

On this first Sunday of June, we happily recognize, congratulate and bless those who are members of the Class of 2018. While commencement, literally a beginning, is about what happens next, the graduation rites also allow one to look back and appreciate with gratitude what one has achieved during his or her studies. The following prayer For Graduation was composed by Jim Dinn for Pax Christi USA:

Spirit of Wisdom, whose truth fills our world and invites us into a lifetime of learning, bless these graduates. Give them joy and a sense of accomplishment in what they have achieved. But give them also a thirst for knowledge. Make them seekers who will enjoy the process of discovery. Let their education go beyond classrooms and books. Sensitize them to the lessons of experience and the wisdom of the heart. Open them to faith as well as reason, intuition as well as logic. Give them curiosity that goes beyond partial answers and old insights. But through all their life give them an inner peace so they are neither inflated by what they know nor frustrated by what is still beyond their grasp. Abiding teacher, may this graduation signal the beginning of their larger education. Bless them and all of us with your wisdom and peace. Amen

On the Friday following Corpus Christi, that is nineteen days after Pentecost, we annually celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. This June 8 is a major feast for the Comboni Missionaries of the Sacred Heart of Jesus (MCCJ).

The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is also recognized as a World Day of Prayer for the sanctification of priests. This practice was established by Pope Saint John Paul II in 2002. In your kindness, pray for holy priests both diocesan and religious.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

I never noticed it before, but our reading from Mark's gospel is similar to the story in John's gospel of the wedding feast at Cana. They begin with a problem presented to Jesus: Lack of wine (John) and a place for Passover meal (Mark.) Jesus responds to both by giving orders: to the waiters (Jn) and to the apostles (Mk.) And both have miraculous changes: water into wine (Jn); bread and wine into Jesus' Body and Blood (Mk.)

Now the wedding feast showed Jesus replacing the water used for purifying dishes with wine to bring joy to the wedding. He replaced the kosher laws with a new one, the law of love, symbolized by the feast. In our gospel today, Jesus replaces ordinary food with spiritual food. He is doing something new, beyond the requirements of the Old Testament.

What does that mean for us? Jesus is showing God's love for us in a new way. The bread and wine at the last Supper were signs of Jesus' body being broken and his blood poured out for us on the cross. When he gave his life for us, he rose from the dead to give us hope. And now we have the Eucharist, in which he becomes our new food and drink.

Do we really believe that the Eucharist is Jesus, the Son of God? The way to measure that is to ask, how has Jesus changed your life? Do you love others more because you know God loves you? Do you have less fear of the future, because the Holy Spirit gives you courage? Let us look forward to being renewed in spirit whenever we receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

Saint of the day

June 3. Today we celebrate 22 martyrs of Uganda, Saints Charles Lwanga and Companions. Their stories are set in the court of a chief who did not share their faith. Even though they were pages in his court, their faith meant more to them than his approval and support.

June 7. Blessed Franz Jaegerstaetter, a married man with children, refused to serve in Hitler's army and was arrested and executed as a result. Not condemning fellow Catholics who did serve, Blessed Franz felt he had to follow his conscience and resist.

June 10. Blessed Joachima was a wife, mother, widow, and founder of the Carmelite Sisters of Charity. Used to taking care of others, she experienced total dependency on others toward the end of her life.

Stewardship thought

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." - MARK 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself to us completely for our salvation. He offers us the chance to drink from His cup. In the Eucharist, we meet Christ personally and, if we listen to Him, we know what drinking from His cup means our own sacrifice – giving up some of our time, talent and treasure to do His work on earth.

PRECIOUS BLOOD

On this solemnity we focus our attention on the Body & Blood of Christ. We listen to the story of the renewal of the old covenant, which Moses sealed by splashing the blood of animals on the altar of sacrifice, as well as on the people. Jesus, whose blood is the blood of the new covenant, shed that precious blood on the cross, saving us from sin and promising us everlasting life. Blood is the life source that courses through our bodies. The precious blood of Christ is the life source for our spirits. Today may we offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Lord, whose Body and Blood strengthen us to bring the Good News to everyone we meet. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Vincentian reflection

Today as we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ let us pray for those who are hungry, malnourished, and starving.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help those who are hungry. This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting families, providing funds for food, utility, rent and other bills, etc. Thank You!

Scrip (a.k.a. gift cards)

Use our most convenient fundraiser for your kick-off to Summer shopping. We have posted a list of participating retailers in the church vestibule. That list is also at www.sthughlyons.org. In-stock scrip (gift cards) are available after the Masses and during the week at the parish office. The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
June 3, 2018

The cup of salvation I will take up, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

—Psalm 116:13

Treasures from our tradition

The origins of today's solemnity lie in thirteenth-century Belgium. In those days, people seldom received Holy Communion, and never from the chalice. A nun in a troubled convent, Juliana of Liège, devoted her life to stirring up love for the Eucharist, lobbying for a feast day to honor the Blessed Sacrament with Masses and processions.

Juliana may have been inspired by the Ascension Day processions in nearby Bruges. Crusaders brought a treasure home to Bruges from Constantinople in 1204: a reliquary said to contain a cloth from Joseph of Arimathea with which he had helped prepare the body of Jesus for burial. The stain on the cloth was said to be the holy blood itself, and so the people of Bruges built a great basilica to house the relic. Bruges became a great center of pilgrimage because of this treasure, and the procession of the Holy Blood is still one of the greatest festivals in Belgium today. The bishop carries the relic through the narrow streets, and the people wear medieval costumes and act out scenes from the Bible.

Wills / Bequests

After providing for your loved ones, please consider naming Saint Hugh Parish as a beneficiary of your estate.

Question of the week

Do I feel different after receiving the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist? How can I take the Body and Blood of Christ that I receive in the Eucharist and make a difference in what I say and do? How can I help build up the kingdom of God in the world?
