From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. A warm (hopefully no pun intended) welcome to all visitors to our parish this summer weekend.

On page four of this bulletin you will find an article by Father Paul Turner on the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). He describes the rituals that help to prepare adults for the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist) celebrated at the Easter Vigil. We are now preparing to welcome catechumens (unbaptized) and candidates (baptized, but not catechized in the Catholic faith) for the RCIA at St. Hugh. If you are interested, please let us know. If you know someone interested in learning about the Catholic faith, please encourage her/him to inquire and then pray for her/him.

Parish Masses are offered for the intentions of all who are present. A special intention for the Mass may also be requested. This is one way to remember and to pray for the dead, but it may also be a means to prayerfully celebrate an occasion such as an anniversary or birthday. The intention can be for the living or the dead and is usually announced in the bulletin and included in the Universal Prayer. The customary offering is $10 per Mass. The intention of one Mass each weekend is always for the people or Intention of the Parish. Many Masses are still available for this year. Masses for calendar year 2017 will become available next month. To arrange for an intention at Saint Hugh, contact Christine Alfred at the parish office 708.447.3108+1.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

July 14 is the Memorial of Saint Kateri Tekawitha. Called the Lily of the Mohawks, Kateri died in Quebec in 1680 at the age of twenty-four. 200 years later, in 1980, she became the first native American to be declared "Blessed". She was canonized a saint by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012.

Question of the week

Whom did I pass by on my way to today's Eucharist, and what hands-on mercy can I offer that person?

Jubilee of Mercy: December 8, 2015 - November 20, 2016

Could anyone object to Jesus' supreme lesson in mercy, the parable of the Good Samaritan? Jesus' devoutly religious audience certainly did! Scant sympathy for anyone foolish enough to travel crime-ridden "Jericho Highway" alone. Much sympathy for priest and Levite, hurrying to assigned temple ministry, unwilling to risk ritual impurity through hands-on mercy. No sympathy for Jesus' scandalous hero. Samaritans were religious apostates and political enemies. Jesus challenges them-- and us--to seek God's presence not only in liturgical beauty but in a fellow traveler's self-inflicted misfortunes. See God's presence even in someone outside the law, whose hands-on mercy springs not from religious obligation but from the heart's instinctive goodness. Since Jesus became our "Good Samaritan" despite our foolishness and sins, who are we to ration our mercy?

"Who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29). The next person we see who needs hands-on mercy! No conditions, no limits, no exceptions. Especially in this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Jesus commands, "Go and do likewise" (10:37).

Stewardship thought

Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."
- LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. But did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor, who may be someone you don't know, someone that looks different than you or someone you don't like, without expecting anything in return.

RCIA by Paul Turner

If you are interested in joining the Catholic Church, you'll hear about something called RCIA. The initials stand for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the book ministers use to guide you through the stages and steps of church membership.

If you've never been baptized, and you are old enough to read this, you begin your preparation with the precatechumenate. During this time you have some spiritual conversation about God and the church.

Once you decide to follow Jesus Christ, you celebrate the rite of acceptance into the order of catechumens. As a catechumen, you are considered a member of the Church in a broad sense. Unmarried catechumens may have a Catholic wedding; deceased catechumens may have a Catholic funeral.

During the period of the catechumenate, you become acquainted with what the church teaches, you follow the Christian way of life, you engage in liturgical prayer, and you help spread the gospel. The time span for this preparation varies.

This period of formation closes with the rite of election, when the church proclaims that God has chosen you for the sacraments. Usually the bishop leads this ceremony at the cathedral on the First Sunday of Lent.

During the period of purification and enlightenment, you make your spiritual preparation for baptism. This period usually coincides with Lent.

Finally you celebrate the sacraments of initiation: baptism, confirmation and communion. This usually takes place during the Easter Vigil at your parish.

As a new Catholic, you deepen your participation through the period of mystagogy by meditating, praying and doing works of charity.

If you have already been baptized, this preparation can be tailored to your needs.

Respect Life thought

Baby bottles will be distributed after each Mass next weekend.

When you take home a bottle and fill it with change, you will be helping the Women's Care Center of La Grange offer free pregnancy tests and ultrasounds, confidential and compassionate counseling, as well as maternity and baby items and medical and housing referrals. The bottles will be collected as you come to church on July 30-31. Thank you for being a life saver!

Treasures from the tradition

The first "presbyters" were advisers to the bishops rather than what we would call "priests," yet by the year 1000 our present-day understanding of the ordained priesthood is clearly in place. The Germanic influence was strong in those days, reflected in a series of questions posed to the candidate about his intentions.

The priest's role in the celebration of Mass had by then come to the fore, as the ritual notes that Mass vestments must be worn, the hands of the priest must be anointed with chrism, and a chalice with wine and water and a paten with a host must be given. Up to then, the ordination rite had stressed the presbyter as a collaborator with the bishop and a member of the order of presbyters. Then, in a not-so-subtle shift, the presbyter came to be seen as a "priest" designated to celebrate the Mass and, as the prayer suggests, to touch the chalice. By these days, remember, the cup had long vanished from Communion for the laity. A thousand years ago, today's patterns were already in place. The priest no longer saw himself as a member of a council of elders, a presbytery, and in some dioceses he had little influence over the bishop. Instead, he was either a pastor, with relationship to the eucharistic community in the parish, or he was a priest monk, offering Mass for the salvation of the departed or the intentions of the living.

DO

Living in the mercy of God means much more than thinking or talking about it. We live God's mercy when we do something that brings mercy to others. "Which of these three... was neighbor to the man?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise." (Luke 10:36-37)
