A SOWER WENT OUT TO SOW....

From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. A couple of weeks ago, I used this space to encourage a spirit of welcome with suggestions for extending hospitality. A reverse-psychology variation on that idea is found in Father Paul Turner's column on page four of this bulletin.

Two parish groupings were part of the Pilot Stage of Renew My Church (RMC). As they complete their work, five more groupings will now participate as we Ramp Up to a full Phase One. From our Vicariate, the parish grouping that includes Saint Celestine (Elmwood Park), Saint Cyrian (River Grove), and Saint William (Chicago) is beginning the RMC process.

As this major initiative of the Archdiocese of Chicago progresses, pray for all the parishes (parishioners and priests) involved. The Saint Hugh parish grouping also includes Saint Mary (Riverside), Mater Christi (North Riverside), and Saint Pius X (Stickney). The RMC Prayer is in the next column.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

Renew My Church prayer

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today, as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us. In every age and in our own time, you call to us and say: Renew My Church.

Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us, and enable us

- to hear you clearly
- to listen to each other attentively
- to imagine our future boldly
- to discern your direction wisely
- to persevere in your holy will courageously
- to stay together in charity
- to surrender our own plans readily
- to embrace the greater good
- to hand on your gifts to future generations.

May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles, and all the saints. May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.

We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

Weekly Vincentian Reflection

In today's Gospel, we hear the story of the sower and we know that "some seed fell on rich soil, and produce fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirty - fold." As you support the work of St. Vincent de Paul, know that together our efforts will produce fruit a hundred fold.

Worldwide, there are 65.3 million people who have been forced out of their homes (with an estimated 34,000 people displaced per day). While the majority of forced migrants remain in their home countries, 21.3 million have been forced to flee and seek refuge in other countries. Over half of these refugees are under the age of 18. Stewardship thought

The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit. - MATTHEW 13:22

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in worldly activities that you have no time for God? Stewardship is a lifestyle to be lived every day. It effects all the decisions we make. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week.

Getting the Least by Paul Turner

If you'd like to get the least out of going to Mass on Sundays, here are some strategies you can try:

- Eat a large meal just before going to church.
- Arrive for Mass late.
- Sit in the back of the church.
- Read the bulletin during the service.
- Don't sing any songs.
- Don't make the responses.

- Keep your cell phone turned on and handy to hear your ring tones and send texts.
- Chew gum.
- Mentally criticize the appearance of people you see.
- Be angry about something. It really doesn't matter what.
- Think constantly about where you are going when Mass is over.
- Whenever there is time for silent prayer, look at your watch.
- Let your mind wander throughout the service, but especially during the readings, the homily, and the eucharistic prayer.
- Never offer to assist as a greeter, usher, lector, communion minister, server, or cantor.
- Don't contribute to the collection, or if you do, use coins.
- Avoid eye contact during the sign of peace.
- Never drink the Blood of Christ at communion.
- Leave Mass early. After you receive communion, head for the door. Do not return to your seat. You may want to put your car keys in one hand while you receive communion with the other.
- Drive away as quickly as possible. If others who are trying to get the least are in your way, honk the horn at them.

Don't pray at home during the following week, unless an emergency comes up.

Treasures from our tradition

Two centuries ago, Archbishop John Carroll worried that Americans would not appreciate the linguistic veil over our worship, and asked that the liturgy in the new United States be in English, not Latin. How did our liturgy come to be in Latin in the first place? In the first century, the dominant language in the regions where the church first flourished was Greek. Today in much of the world, almost everyone speaks at least a bit of English. Recently, the European Union even considered making English its official language, a curious proposal since only two English-speaking countries are members.

Just as English is a unifying language today, it was hard to function in the ancient world without a smattering of Greek. Even the word "Eucharist" comes from the Greek for "thanksgiving." For a long time, Greek was the language of worship, even in Rome. Slowly, society in the west shifted to a bias for Latin and against Greek. Latin first appeared in public prayer at the end of the second century, in the colonial outposts of North Africa. Soon, Latin became the language of culture, and so as fixed prayer forms were written, they were transmitted in Latin. From Rome and Africa, over the next four centuries, the new liturgical language of Latin spread north to Gaul and Britain.
