Registration this Sunday

9:00am - 10:15am & 11:30am - 1:00pm

From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) will meet on August 8. One item on their agenda is the proposal to group Saint Hugh Parish (Lyons) with Saint Mary Parish and School (Riverside) and Saint Pius X Parish (Stickney). As part of the Renew My Church process, every parish in the Archdiocese will in a grouping. With regard to this proposal, we are now gathering parishioner feedback. Feel free to share your thoughts with me, with a member of the pastoral staff (Christine Alfred, Fran Serpe, Frank Mamolella) or with one of the PPC members (Cheryl Albertsen, Tony Diaz, Arlene Houda, Tina Melendez, Bev Swift). In September, I will forward our comments to Bishop Manz, our regional vicar. In November, Archbishop Blase Cupich will finalize the parish groupings.

Parish groupings are the next step in the Renew My Church process aimed at moving us towards the Archbishop's vision of an Archdiocese made up of parishes that have the resources and capacity to be vital and vibrant for a truly life-giving, disciple-making, and sustainable Catholic presence for years to come. Pray for the success of this effort.

We have begun collecting needed supplies for our seventh annual parish picnic on August 21. If you have a canopy or games that we can borrow or if you are able to make a donation of small prizes or items for raffle baskets, please contact the parish office. Monetary donations marked PICNIC will also be accepted through the collection basket.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Respect Life thought

Today we are collecting the baby bottles which were distributed two weeks ago for Women's Care Center of La Grange, a local crisis pregnancy center. Please leave your bottles in the baskets at the entrance to church. If you forgot your bottle today, please bring it to church next week – filled or unfilled. Bottles are reused for future collections. Thank you so much for caring for the littlest ones and their moms and dads!

Our thanks to Liz Shermack for organizing this Respect Life event on behalf of Saint Hugh Parish.

Question of the week

How can I enrich others this week with corporal and spiritual works of mercy, as Pope Francis' Jubilee Year of Mercy bids me?

Jubilee of Mercy: December 8, 2015 - November 20, 2016

"You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you" (Luke 12:20). Hardly sounds like mercy! Unlike some contemporary rich folks, there is no indication of lying, stealing, or cheating in Jesus' parable. The rich man made a living, not a killing. Why does Jesus name him "fool"? First, because of presumption. Five times in nine verses, the rich man declares, "I shall." God's not in charge here, I am! Second, selfishness--four times, "my/myself." No God, no neighbor; he talks to himself, about himself: my possessions, my productivity, my plans! So, instead of chasing "treasure for ourselves," Jesus and Pope Francis' Jubilee Year of Mercy bid us grow "rich in what matters to God" (12:21), namely, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Give food, drink, clothing, and healing; visit the imprisoned; bury the dead. Heal with Jesus' own gentleness the doubt, ignorance, and sins of others; comfort, forgive, be patient; and pray for the living and dead.

Stewardship thought

Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions.

LUKE 12:15

The Gospel message today is so contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not store up or hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.

Seventh Annual Parish Picnic

Sunday, August 21 beginning at 11:30am.

We will have games and small prizes for the kids, games inside the air conditioned hall for the young at heart (board games & cards), and food (hamburgers & hot dogs). Please bring a dessert to share. Representatives of the various parish ministries will be at the picnic with information so that you may discover, sign-up, or volunteer.

Treasures from the tradition

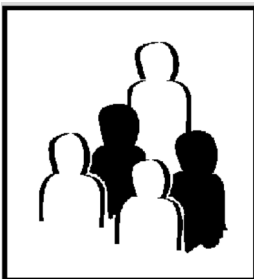

Sometimes the treasures of art can provide us with clues about traditions. Take, for example, the miter, the conical hat with lappets, or back-flaps that fall to the shoulders. This cap is worn by bishops in the Catholic West. Eastern Catholics favor a crown, but we have this curious headpiece. In Greek, the word means "turban." Old paintings and mosaics provide clues about headgear for bishops, and there is very little artistic evidence for the miter before the year 1000. Before then, some kind of head covering might have been worn to offset the damp and chill of unheated churches. The pope, as far back as the seventh century, often wore a cap called a camelaucum. Around that time, artists painting St. Peter began to portray their subject wearing this hat. By the year 1000 or so, the pope began to grant similar helmet-shaped headgear as gifts to visiting abbots and bishops. They returned home with these new chapeaus, and before long everybody wanted one! Today, miters are granted not only to bishops, but to certain favored abbots and occasionally abbesses. Pope Benedict XVI set aside the tradition of the papal tiara in favor of the miter, even on his coat of arms. Pope Paul VI was the last pope to have a coronation. As recently as the 1960s, miters were towering skyscrapers of jewels and rich silks, but now a simplicity of style is favored by bishops. Miters are here to stay, and experienced altar servers know how to await the bishop's removing of the miter, since he does not wear it when he is saying the presidential prayers or the Eucharistic Prayer.

Mass for the People by Paul Turner

Every Sunday and holy day a pastor celebrates one Mass for the people entrusted to his care (canon 534). If the pastor cannot do so for a legitimate reason, he may ask another priest to lead it, or he may celebrate the Mass himself on another occasion. If the pastor is responsible for more than one parish on Sundays and holydays, he may celebrate just one Mass for the intentions of all those people. In Latin, this Mass is called the missa pro populo.

Parish bulletins commonly publish the requested intentions for Masses throughout the week. But each weekend one of the Sunday Masses will be designated for this special purpose. It carries a title like "for the people," "for the parish," or "pro populo". The priest and parish receive no offering for this Mass. It is part of the pastor's responsibilities to the parish.

The Mass "for the people" is not required on other days, even though Mass may be well attended. Ash Wednesday and Thanksgiving Day, for example, are not holydays of obligation. Other Mass intentions may be accepted on those days.

This custom reminds the parish community of several values. The pastor has spiritual care for his flock, which includes praying for them and their intentions. The people can see that their priest is responding when they ask him to pray for their concerns. Sundays and holydays are honored as the special days on which the community gathers to praise God, share communion and hold one another in prayer.

At Masses for the people, the pastor is obliged to pray for the parish. Especially at those Masses, it's a good idea for the people to pray for one another as well.

JUBILEE OF MERCY

LAVISH

Jesus reveals the generosity of God's mercy when he lavishes forgiveness on those who ask for it. In Luke's Gospel, a sinful woman recognizes this lavish generosity, and it inspires her to a similar generosity toward Jesus. A woman . . . brought an alabaster jar of ointment.

She stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears. (Luke 7:37-38)

GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN

During this Jubilee Year of Mercy, all - including children and families - are asked to consider how to make the Corporal and Spiritual Works their own:

Corporal Works of Mercy

- Feed the hungry
- Give drink to the thirsty
- Clothe the naked
- Welcome the stranger
 - Visit the sick
 - Visit the imprisoned
 - Bury the dead

Spiritual Works of Mercy

- Counsel the doubtful
- Teach those who lack knowledge
 - Admonish sinners
 - Comfort the afflicted
 - Forgive those who hurt us
- Bear patiently with those who do us ill
 - Pray for the living and the dead
