

July 8, 2018 | Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Many who heard Jesus were astonished. They said,

“Where did this man
get all this?
Is he not the carpenter,
the son of Mary?”

~Mark 6:2, 3

Coffee with Father Robert on July 8; following the 10:30am Mass.

From the Pastor's Desk

St. Hugh goes forward!

Dear parishioners,

There are a few things for you to know about.

1. The St. Hugh Religious Education program will re-start soon after the Summer break! This year the 10:30am Sunday Mass attendance is included in the children's curriculum. The Religious Ed day Sunday will be over after the 10:30 am Mass. The curriculum is meant to be for children but ...

All parents of the Rel. Ed. Children are warmly invited to sit with their children at those Masses. In addition, there will be designated teachers to watch the children during the Mass time.

As new pastor of St. Hugh I have decided to propose this change. Perhaps, this way I will share with you more of a "European" model of Religious Education. I tried the model for several years at my previous assignment. It took a while but today it seems that it works for most of the students and their parents. A very similar model was introduced to me when I was a student at my Religious Education program many years ago. My parents also were present at Mass afterwards! And the parents of my classmates as well.

I strongly believe that we all can be visited by Christ in a very special way when we come to Mass. Those who already can receive the Eucharist are especially gifted. Obviously, different people have different needs and different backgrounds. Adults need something different and children are in their very special moment of life.

Christ offers so much. He is the Living Water, Healing, Light, Guidance, Fire, Manna from Heaven, Bread of Life. He is everything we need. He gives more than we ask for...

Come and be amazed by HIM here at St. Hugh.

2. I am also happy to announce that The St. Hugh Fest is planned for October 6th of this year. It will start after the 4pm Mass at Saturday!

We will celebrate international foods, cultures and our comradery here at St. Hugh. A global and local event!!!

It will be also a great time to help our parish financially by attending this event. We are also expecting some entertainment! Tickets will be available soon.

Please put the date on your calendars.

You are in my prayers,
Fr. Robert Marchwiany, Pastor

Strength in Weakness

Is Paul serious?

Can you imagine being content with "weaknesses, insults, hardships, and persecutions?" (2 Cor 12:10) Paul could have been proud of all that God revealed to him, and of all that he accomplished in spreading the gospel. But instead he boasts about his weaknesses. He knows that all the good work he has done have been accomplished by Christ. So he accepted suffering, rejection, setbacks and persecution because they helped him see how much Christ was doing through him. We can learn a lot from St. Paul. Remember how Jesus said to love your neighbor as yourself. Paul loved himself in the good sense of accepting his faults and weaknesses. He was always aware that he once persecuted Christians. But that fault enabled him to experience God's forgiveness.

St. Paul says that when he is weak, then he is strong. He knows that God will still work through him, showing God's power to heal the sick and draw converts to Christ, in spite of Paul's weaknesses. Paul did what he could to encourage others to follow Jesus, but he knew the results of his preaching and healing were up to God. When you think that you would fail at spreading the faith, remember Paul and give your weaknesses to God. Then see what he can do!

-Tom Schmidt, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me.

-- 2 Corinthians 12:9

Saint of the Day

July 10. Saint Veronica Giuliani was a Capuchin Poor Clare who received the unique gift of the stigmata of Christ. Few people have been blessed with these marks. Saint Veronica suffered misunderstandings because of the gift, but she endured through it all and was able to serve her community in several administrative roles.

July 13. Saint Henry, a German king and Holy Roman Emperor, lived life according to the customs of his times, but did it in a holy way. He is a clear witness to the holiness of secular life lived according to the gospel norms.

July 14. Known as the Lily of the Mohawks, Saint Kateri Tekakwitha's story is one of courage and humility. Courageously facing her uncle's dislike for anything Christian, she converted to Catholicism at age 19. This led to a life of extreme penance and austerity for the young woman. Escaping to Montreal, Kateri continued to live a life of prayer and penance.

Stewardship Thought

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts." (Mark 6:8)

How different we are from the Apostles who took nothing when they ventured out to serve God. Today, we make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along.

When we really put God first in everything and put money and possessions second, we experience more freedom to joyfully serve God and others.

Wills / Bequests

After providing for your loved ones, please consider naming Saint Hugh Parish as a beneficiary of your estate.

Question of the Week

How do I respond when someone is critical of me? Do I search myself to find my failings or do I merely look for reasons to reject their criticism?

Vincentian Reflection

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. From the beginning of the Society of St.

Vincent de Paul, members visit in pairs "two by two", those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance.

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

Scrip (a.k.a. gift cards)

Use our most convenient fundraiser for your kick-off to Summer shopping. We have posted a list of participating retailers in the church vestibule. That list is also at www.sthughlyons.org. In-stock scrip (gift cards) are available after the Masses and during the week at the parish office. Treasures from our Tradition

Last week's Treasure mentioned the "Nuns of the Battlefield," religious sisters from several communities who served as nurses in the Civil War. Florence Nightingale had only instituted female nurses a decade before in the Crimean War, so the idea of women tending to wounded soldiers was extraordinary. The medical and sanitary conditions on the battlefields were appalling, and the sisters were nearly all teachers. Few had any medical training beyond what they had learned as youngsters in the family. Anti-Catholic prejudice was so deeply entrenched in America that sisters could not wear their habits in public. These sisters were the first, and people on both the Union and Confederate sides soon began to marvel at their bravery, efficiency, and respect for Protestant soldiers. More than six hundred sisters from twenty-one communities went to war, serving in wretched conditions. They were tough and single-minded, efficient and fearless.

After the war, sisters could appear in public everywhere in the reunited nation, and often received the praise and gratitude of grateful soldiers and family members on behalf of their sister nurses. An outdoor monument to the "Nuns of the Battlefield" stands in Washington at M Street and Rhode Island Avenue. The inscription reads: "They comforted the dying, nursed the wounded, carried hope to the imprisoned, gave in His name a drink of water to the thirsty."
