NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Saint Hugh, what's not to like?

I am the living bread that came down from heaven;

whoever

eats this bread

will live forever.

~ John 6:51

From the Pastor's Desk

Thank you all who have been responding to St. Hugh's needs.

1. Your attitude has inspired me so much because you are able to sacrifice so much for this parish. I have witnessed on many occasions people who have been in a similar situation; and I don't know any community that can be compared to St. Hugh, so I know we can accomplish our goals. Of course we have to be patient to see the change that we want to happen. So please give it time and Christ will Bless us all and give us what we need and even more...
2. Last Sunday you saw a little information about our second collections. They are happening at St. Hugh again. You will find blank envelopes in the back of the church. They can be used if you want to put extra donations to the second collection and be credited for your second collection donation (for tax purposes). If you don't want to use the envelopes and just donate to the second collection, it is up to you. Many Roman Catholic parishes use the second collections to help their parish. Our second collection will be used for "Parish Needs."

A few of our needs are:

- * Our winter energy bills that still need to be regulated before next cold season.
- * We have some repairs that need to be done on the buildings as well.

Again, thank you for your support and everything that you do for St. Hugh.

With Blessings,

Fr. Robert M.
Pastor

We are looking for people to be on the Halfway to Hugh Committee!
If you are interested please contact the Parish Office and let us know!

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Masses for August 15, 2018;
The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary are at 10:30am and 6:30pm.
This is a Holy Day of Obligation.

The second collection will be for the needs of St. Hugh. Any labeled envelopes you put in either collection will go towards what they are labeled for.

Chicken or Egg

"Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." (Mt 6:12) You could read that line as a warning that God only forgives those who forgive others. Paul reverses that conditional meaning to say that we forgive because God has already forgiven us. So which came first, the chicken or the egg?

In a sense, both are needed: Jesus died on the cross to show that God forgives sins you haven't even committed yet. We have to want to be forgiven and accept that gift from God. And we also have to be willing to forgive those who have hurt us. There are many ways to do that. One is to forgive in your heart. If it is someone you love, you know they didn't mean to hurt you and so you don't get angry at them. If you don't love the one who hurt you, you still need to forgive, so you can let go of the hurt. (And be forgiven for not loving your neighbor!)

Paul also tells us to be kind and compassionate (Eph 4:32.) We can go to the next step after forgiving in our hearts: We show our forgiveness in our actions. A friend or relative might get a hug; others might get a handshake or words of forgiveness. Jesus showed how much God wants to forgive us by his death on the cross. Because we are forgiven, we are then able to forgive others. So while God's love and forgiveness are always first, we must be able to forgive others so that we can accept it from God.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever.

Saint of the Day

August 12. Saint Jane Frances de Chantal was a wife and the mother of six. She and two others founded a community intended for those who could not join the established congregations. They wanted to actively engage in the works of mercy, but social circumstances forced them to live a cloistered life.

August 13. Saint Pontian was a pope who abdicated his office when he was sent into exile. Saint Hippolytus had himself elected an anti-pope and opposed not only Saint Pontian, but others as well. Eventually, these two were exiled together where they reconciled and became good friends.

August 14. Saint Maximilian Mary Kolbe, a Conventual Franciscan, is best known for volunteering to take the place of a condemned prisoner in the death camp. But he also worked tirelessly for the spiritual welfare of people through a deep devotion to the Blessed Mother. His whole life seemed to revolve around Mary as the path to God.

August 17. Saint Joan of the Cross' conversion is credited to an elderly woman whom most people thought was crazy, but who reached Saint Joan's heart. Saint Joan of the Cross went on to found a religious congregation and several charitable institutions. franciscanmedia.org/source/saint-of-the-day

Question of the Week

Can I identify times in which Jesus has sustained me in difficult situations? How can what I receive today sustain me throughout the week ahead?

Stewardship Thought

"Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" (1 KINGS 19:7)

Stewardship
a way of life

Jesus knows that our stewardship journey will be difficult; we are not designed to do it on our own. Fortunately, Jesus gave us the greatest gift of all – the gift of the Eucharist; His own body and blood. When we join our sacrifices with the sacrifice of the Mass, we find the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.

Vincentian Reflection

In this Gospel the love that Jesus reveals through the symbol of the cross is: self-giving, sacrificial, healing, forgiving, in solidarity with the weak, confident in the power of God.

During the hot summer months many of the elderly, especially those who are sick, are not able to find relief from the heat. Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring respite and hope to them.

Is God calling you?

Jesus continues to draw those who believe. Our world is hungry and thirsty for the Bread of Life. Will you share your faith? Consider ministry in the Church. (John 6:41-51)

After providing for your loved ones, please consider naming Saint Hugh Parish as a beneficiary of your estate.

Treasures from our Tradition

Careful readers of the "Treasures" will have noticed that the two columns about the oldest monastic communities in the United States refer to the colonial states. The Louisiana Purchase gained a great treasure for our nation, the Ursuline monastery of New Orleans. Among the greatest pioneers of that city were nuns who came from France on a perilous voyage in 1727, pestered by pirates and tossed by fearsome storms. These were genteel, well-educated Ursulines, yet their first task was to roll up their sleeves and open a hospital to care for the pestilence-ridden colony. Next, they opened a school for girls and launched a plan to educate the women being shipped over from France to marry settlers. In this way, they had enormous influence in molding patterns of family and domestic life.

At Christmastime in 1814, the threat of a British assault on the city was growing. On the terrifying night of January 7, 1815, the women of New Orleans gathered in the monastery chapel to pray that the city be spared from destruction in battle. The mother superior made a vow to have a Mass of Thanksgiving on that date every year should the Americans win. That night, Our Lady of Prompt Succor, to whom the nuns had great devotion, became the protector and patron of this great city. The convent in the French Quarter is the oldest standing building in the Mississippi valley, and the only surviving building of the French colonial period. The nuns relocated in 1824, but their old monastery is preserved as a museum and archives for the Archdiocese of New Orleans. The school the nuns began, Ursuline Academy, is the oldest continuously operating Catholic school, and school for women, in the United States.
