From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

While August 15 is still the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary; since the holy day falls on a Monday, the obligation to attend Mass is dropped for this year. The next holy day of obligation will be November 1, the Solemnity of All Saints. Our parish Mass on Monday's holyday - without obligation - is at 10:30am

Valentine's Day was six months ago and is six months hence. Here are some resources related to the vocation of marriage:

www.foryourmarriage.org - a project of the USCCB includes daily supports for marriage and parenting.

www.joyfulagain.org - local retreat program for widows and widowers. October 22-23 - Batavia or November 5-6 - Lemont. 708.354.7211

Strengthen, renew, and rekindle your marriage sacrament at a WWME Weekend October 7-9 or December 9-11 at Elk Grove Village. Call Jim & Kris at 630.577.0778.

The Revised Marriage Rite, now called the Order of Celebrating Matrimony, may be used beginning September 8 and must be used after December 30. Our deacon, Frank Mamolella; our music director, Fran Serpe; and I will attend an Office for Divine Worship workshop to help us implement this change at Saint Hugh.

Plan to attend our annual parish picnic next Sunday. Details are on page four of this bulletin. FREE food, fun, etc.

The names of the scheduled reader, Eucharistic ministers, altar servers, and Manna agent for a given weekend Mass are now available on the calendar page of our parish website: www.sthughlyons.org. Direct access to the parish calendar is also available at: www.tinyurl.com/sthughcalendar. Simply click on the particular Mass for the names of the scheduled ministers.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Of musical note

by Fran Serpe, Music Director

The 2000 pastoral musicians who attended the convention in July were asked to meditate on three key questions and a prayer.

Since you listen and sing our liturgies as well, I'd like to share them with you as an examination of conscience:

1. Will you be attentive to the voice of God speaking to you through the gift of music?
2. Will you be faithful to your responsibilities by using your gifts in service of the Christian community?
3. Will you keep the song of God alive by living in harmony with the message of the Gospel? May God who has begun the good work in you bring it to completion right up to the day of Christ Jesus, who is Lord forever and ever.

Pope Francis puts it this way:

Proclaiming Christ means showing that to believe in and to follow him is not only something right and true but also something BEAUTIFUL, capable of filling life with new, SPLENDOR and profound JOY even in the midst of difficulties. Every expression of TRUE BEAUTY can thus be acknowledged as a path leading to an ENCOUNTER with the LORD JESUS.

If we take these words to heart, we will all be doing our part to spread the word and develop the skills that St. Hugh Parish needs.

You are invited to:

In your kindness, pray for the repose of the soul of Robert Soukup. Funeral rites for Mr. Soukup were held at Saint Hugh on Thursday August 11.

Jubilee of Mercy: December 8, 2015 - November 20, 2016

This Jubilee Year of Mercy bids us share our own experience of Jesus' mercy with those on what Pope Francis calls the "peripheries"--people who feel marginalized, even unwelcome--inviting them to come home. But with all this mercy, why today's mayhem? "Do you think I have come to establish peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division" (Luke 12:51). Jesus "breaks down" those "breakups" in painful detail--parents, children, even in-laws. "Against" appears eight times in five verses. Jeremiah faced death for bearing witness (Jeremiah 38:4). Can't we bear at least a small share of the sometimes merciless cost of sharing mercy? The Letter to the Hebrews warns us, keep your "eyes fixed on Jesus" and "so great a cloud of witnesses," lest we "grow weary and lose heart" as we run "the race that lies before us" (Hebrews 12:1-3). After all, "for the sake of the joy that lay before him," Jesus "endured the cross" (12:2). Can't we endure our small crosses for the sake of sharing mercy?

N. our Bishop by Paul Turner

“N. our Bishop”

During the eucharistic prayer at every Mass, we pray for the local bishop. In the text of the prayer, he is called “N. our Bishop.” The priest replaces the “N.” with the bishop’s first name—the name with which he was baptized.

This ancient custom shows the bishop’s unifying role. The entire diocese prays for him by name in the heart of every Mass. The people learn their special relationship with this man, his responsibilities for them, and their responsibilities to him.

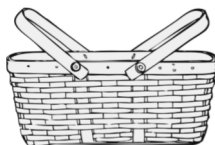

The bishop mentioned is the ordinary of the diocese in which the Mass is celebrated. If members of your parish visit another diocese to celebrate Mass, you do not pray for your own bishop. You pray for the bishop of the place where the Mass occurs. Whenever priests travel outside their diocese, they learn the name of the local bishop so that they can pray for him at Mass.

Other bishops may also be mentioned, including a coadjutor appointed to succeed the bishop currently in office. An auxiliary bishop, who assists the ordinary in office but will not succeed him, should also be mentioned by name. If there is more than one auxiliary bishop, they may be mentioned as a group. When the bishop presides, instead of saying his own name, he prays for “me, your unworthy servant.” When the bishop of a diocese dies, these words are omitted from the eucharistic prayer because there is no bishop in office.

During the Mass, we each pray for our own concerns—our families, our coworkers, our neighbors, and all the people we love. But the church reminds us that we also need to pray for those we might otherwise forget, and one of them is N. our bishop.

Representatives of the various parish ministries will be at the picnic. Sign-up for choirs, SCW, various catechetical programs, and the NEW Thursdays at Seven for post-confirmation teens and young adults.

Stewardship thought

Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. LUKE 12:51

Living a stewardship lifestyle means stepping out of our comfort zone when needed. Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves, stay in the middle of the road. In today’s world we are called to be informed and take a stance for life, marriage and religious liberty.

Question of the week

How can I spread true peace in my little corner of the world by “keeping my eyes fixed on Jesus”?

Treasures from the tradition

Long ago, a signet ring was an essential part of the wardrobe of influential people. A letter or document would be sealed with hot wax, and a signet ring pressed into the wax would affirm the origin of the document. In the case of the pope, at least from the thirteenth century, the ring was used to seal public documents with hot lead, saving the red wax for private letters. The public documents were called bullae after the Latin name for the lead stamp, and we still call them “papal bulls.”

It is not surprising, therefore, that a signet ring has long been bestowed as part of the inauguration of a pope. The ring is called the Pescatorio, or “Ring of the Fisherman.” It reminds the wearer of his link with Peter, and his responsibility to continue the apostolic ministry of “fishing for human beings.” Until 1842 it actually functioned as a signet ring. Now, each pope receives a new gold ring at the beginning of his ministry. It goes on the fourth finger of his right hand and bears some fisherman design, usually St. Peter casting nets from a boat, as well as the pope’s name in Latin. A custom that endures for the pope, but not so much for bishops, is for people being introduced to him to kiss the Pescatorio as a sign of respect for his teaching authority. Another enduring custom is for the ring to be smashed and defaced at the pope’s death, originally a way of preventing counterfeit deathbed documents.

JUBILEE OF MERCY

RESOLVE

Once the mercy of God really and truly takes hold in our lives, we know clearly what we must do. We resolve to live now in light of that mercy. We cannot carry on as before, when we did not fully know or grasp the dimensions of God's mercy.

"Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much."
