

AUGUST 5, 2018 | EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Saint Hugh, what's not to like?

*The bread of God
is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.*

~ John 6:33

From the Pastor's Desk

Parish registration!

Maybe, you ask a question..

Why should I become a member of my (new) parish, where I attend Sunday and other Masses lately?

This article is especially for those who are new to St. Hugh Parish!

Perhaps you have been coming to St. Hugh for a while and you are not exactly sure what should be done next? Or maybe you know deep down what needs to be done but your schedule does not allow you to register to be officially a member of this parish?

1. It is simple! Start by calling our office. We will take it from there!
2. It is very important to be registered to a parish. It may be helpful when at some point you need proof of belonging to one!
3. In the Archdiocese of Chicago and most of Archdioceses and Dioceses in the United States, an official parish membership is not valid until the official registration is started.

When asking for any sacrament in the Catholic Church, expect a question "Do you belong to any Church?" (Registered).

It is a sign of practicing your Catholic Faith.

It is never too late to register.

4. When you are registered, you can request a tax statement from the parish where you belong. You are entitled to deductions from your registered gifts to the parish. Each gift from you will be registered by our office, if you use the envelopes.

The envelopes will be sent to you systematically after the registration.

The registration is free!

Please call to register ASAP!

St. Hugh needs you here now!

Fr. Robert M.
Pastor

You can also register online at the parish website. Go to www.sthughlyons.org, then click about, then parish registration.

Don't Look Back

It's bad enough that the Israelites were grumbling against their leaders. But they also complain to God that they were better off as slaves in Egypt. After all God did to bring them to freedom, now they want to go back to slavery. Before we judge them too harshly, we might ask ourselves if we ever act like that. For us, it might be looking back on our slavery to sin.

We might confess the sin and say we'll never do that again, but we often can't resist the memory of our past sins. As we hold on to the past, the temptations come back and draw us to repeat our offenses. Even though we know we are better off putting it behind us, we sometimes find it difficult to move on.

So how do we free ourselves from the past? Should we look to the future, instead? If we want to make the world, or just our community, a better place we can make plans. If those plans are ever going to work, we have to begin now. Jesus doesn't tell us to dwell in the past or dream of the future. No, he keeps us focused on the present moment, telling us to believe in Him now, His Father gives us true bread and Jesus is that bread of life.

Those words are just as true today. We may look fondly at the past, but if we don't let Jesus be born again in us, and if we don't take up our crosses each day--we are missing the chance to experience Jesus in us and in the people we live and work with each day.

-Tom Schmidt, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Second Collection

Starting on Sunday August 5, we will add a second collection. The second collection will be for the needs of St. Hugh. Any envelopes you put in either collection will go towards what they are labeled for.

If you write a check or put cash in an envelope (blank) with your name on it we can record it for tax purposes.

Thank you for your generous donations.

Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life.

-- John 6:27a

Saint of the Day

August 8. Saint Dominic became aware that the preacher had to practice what he preached and connect with the people of God. He and a few Cistercians formed what was the beginning of the Order of Preachers, better known as the Dominicans. Living a life of simplicity, the Dominicans were committed to active contemplation, or contemplative action—whichever way it is said, it is the combination of two ways of life.

August 9. The story of Edith Stein begins with her life as a noted philosopher raised in the Jewish faith. Edith ended her life story as a Catholic Carmelite nun with the name Sister Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. She died in the gas chambers of Auschwitz in 1942. A complicated story involving two faiths and many political events which swirled around her. She who was born Edith Stein is now known as Saint Teresa Benedicta.

August 11. Saint Clare was the first woman to write a Rule of Life for her sisters, she insisted on the privilege of poverty until her dying breath, getting papal approval of her Rule just days before she died. A model of humility, Clare cared for her sisters even through her own years of illness. Her devotion to Jesus was extraordinary.

Stewardship Thought

"Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus I will test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not.

(Exodus 16:4)

Stewardship
a way of life

When the Israelites gathered more than their daily portion of manna, the surplus became wormy and rotten. In the same way today, self-reliance, pride and ego leads to hoarding and excessive surplus of goods and money. Living a stewardship lifestyle helps us discern our "wants" from our "needs". Living a generous lifestyle reminds us that God will provide all that we need and that we have plenty to share.

Vincentian Reflection

The Gospel tell us, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to Him." By "listening" we are able to live the gospel. Gospel living is something so simple as taking the time to listen to those who need to spill out their hearts when seeking help.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent DePaul you enable the members of the Society to become a "listening heart" to the hungry, the homeless, and the struggling poor.

Is God calling you?

"The bread of God is that which comes down from heaven." If simplicity of life and the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity and obedience especially attract you, discover that life as a priest, deacon, sister or brother.

Treasures from our Tradition

In 1794, a young Irishwoman befriended two widows aboard a ship while emigrating to America. They bought a house in Philadelphia and began to live a community life under the direction of a priest. Soon they relocated to Washington. There, the "pious ladies," as the neighbors called them, were asked by their priest friend, by then the president of Georgetown University, to begin a religious community. In 1799 they established a branch of the Visitation Order founded by Saint Jane de Chantal and Saint Francis de Sales in the 1620s.

The unique vision of this order followed a sensible routine, less arduous and more flexible than most traditions, and also accepted widows and older women. Amazingly, this American outpost of the Visitation began without reference to the "rule" of the Order. Most of the European convents had been lost under the "reign of terror," and the rules and customs of the community could not be obtained. A copy of the rule was discovered in 1812, and in 1816 the pope officially established the monastery. By then, some French nuns had regrouped, and they sent a habit and cross to be copied. (No religious wore the habit in public in the United States until after the Civil War.) From the beginning, the Georgetown nuns had an educational mission, even though they discovered in the "rule" that such work was officially off-limits for the contemplative life. In America, the nuns depended on a school for their livelihood, so the rule was adapted. Today, the Academy of the Visitation is a thriving example of excellence in Catholic education, and the adjacent monastery is the oldest monastic foundation in the original thirteen United States.

Question of the Week

What nourishment have I received in the Eucharist today? How will that sustain me as I "put on" my new self this week?

No Harshness

Fight all error, but do it with good humor, patience, kindness, and love. Harshness will damage your own soul and spoil the best cause.
