From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. Annually on August 6, forty days before the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on September 14, we celebrate the Transfiguration of the Lord on top of Mount Tabor.

When the August 6 is a Sunday, the Transfiguration is celebrated. This year there is no Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. See Father Paul Turner's article on page four of this bulletin regarding the celebration of Feasts on the liturgical calendar.

The Gospel for the skipped Sunday is the Matthew version of the multiplication of the Loaves and Fish. The reason that I call this to our attention is that the Gospel passage for next Sunday begins: After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat....

Our annual parish picnic is scheduled for Sunday August 20 following the 10:30am Mass. For those who were unable to register for programs of Religious Education, the picnic will provide another opportunity. Other parish ministries will also have representatives available to sign up new members and volunteers. Free food makes this a great event for parishioners of all ages.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

Newly Registered Parishioner

We are pleased to welcome Theresa Gaynes as a new parishioner. To register as a member of Saint Hugh, contact the parish office.

St. Hugh Faith Formation Scholarship Program

We have begun the Faith Formation Scholarship Program to assist families who are struggling to pay for their child's Religious Education classes. While no student is ever refused for financial reasons, our budget is much tighter when families are not able to cover our costs.

A $125 Scholarship will cover the cost for one student to attend our Religious Education program for a year. Smaller donations will help with other programs such as Children's Liturgy of the Word, Youth Ministry, and Thursdays@7. Our parish website, www.sthughlyons.org, has more information about our Faith Formation Programs.

Donations labeled SCHOLARSHIP may be placed in the collection basket or brought to the parish office. If you prefer to donate electronically, or have any questions, please contact our Faith Formation Coordinator, Christine Alfred, at 708.447.3108 +6 or sthughfaithformation@gmail.com.

Of musical note Formed As One: Union of Voices, Unity of Hearts

Prior to the NPM convention, I attended their Leadership Retreat. Lorraine Hess focused on Mary and Martha in the Gospels. She encouraged us who "feed the whole body of Christ" to take a moment to remember why we love this work so much. She guided us to ask, "Where am I now?" as well as "Where am I going?" as we practice surrender. Each of us wrote a letter to God asking what God thinks of me. Lorraine encouraged us to continue to let God work in us to discover what is the most important thing.

I invite you to sing as a choir member or cantor to discover how trust and surrender can benefit your ministry and your personal life. Our community needs enthusiastic worship led by people like you. We need you. Feel free to contact me.

- Fran Serpe, music director

Jesus says: "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves," and taking the five loaves and two fish, he blest them and gave them to the disciples to feed the crowd. Know that your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to help those living in poverty touches many lives just like the loaves and fishes.

Liturgical Help Wanted / Volunteers Needed

Those willing to assist in Music Ministry, adding voice or instrument, should contact our Director of Liturgical Music, Fran Serpe. Her contact information is on the cover of this bulletin.

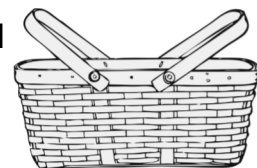

Those willing to serve as a Reader or a Eucharistic Minister at Mass should contact Arlene Houda regarding training and scheduling. Her phone number is 708.442.9268. While all volunteers are greatly welcome, we are especially in need of Eucharistic Ministers for the 8:00am Mass on Sundays.

Those willing to help as an usher should identify themselves to the ushers at the Mass that they regularly attend.

Stewardship thought

And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light.

- MATTHEW 17:2

Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, we should reflect Christ's light to the world. When we receive the Eucharist, the body and blood of Jesus, we are called to be supernatural to reflect His love, mercy and forgiveness to others. When we are grateful for all that God has given us, generosity flows through us because we are made in God's image.

Wills / Bequests

After providing for your loved ones, please consider naming Saint Hugh Parish as a beneficiary of your estate.

Help Wanted / Volunteer Needed

Part of the reason that SCRIP is such a convenient fundraiser is that we can make in-stock Scrip available for purchase after the Masses each weekend. While volunteers are welcome to assist at all Masses, we are especially in need of someone to volunteer at the 4:00pm Mass. To learn more, contact Christine Alfred at the Parish Office: 708.447.3108 or sthughlyons@sbcglobal.net

Feast by Paul Turner

A feast is a day of special significance on the Roman Catholic Church calendar. Precisely, a "feast" does not rank as high as a "solemnity", but it does rank above a "memorial." In everyday speech we use the word to cover almost any special day, such as "the feast of St. Valentine" or "the feast of St. Patrick." But the official calendar does not include these in its special category of "feasts".

Feasts include some special events in the lives of Jesus and Mary (Birth of Mary, Visitation, Holy Innocents, Presentation, Baptism of the Lord and Transfiguration); days associated with apostles, evangelists, and archangels; and days of historical significance honoring the deacon and martyr Lawrence, the dedication of the cathedral church of Rome (John Lateran), and the first display of the relics of the cross (Exaltation of the Holy Cross). In the United States, the celebration of Our Lady of Guadalupe is observed as a feast.

Locally, feasts are observed for the principal patron of the diocese, the anniversary of the cathedral's dedication, the patron of a region or wider territory, and other days proper to an individual church or religious order. So, for example, if your cathedral is named for St. Patrick, March 17 is observed as a solemnity there and as a feast in the parish churches of the diocese. But it is an optional memorial in other dioceses.

Mass on a feast day includes the Glory to God and special readings from the lectionary. When certain feasts fall on a Sunday (Presentation, Baptism of the Lord, Transfiguration, John Lateran, and Exaltation of the Cross), they replace the Sunday liturgy. Otherwise, feasts are never anticipated at Mass the night before.

Use SCRIP for ordinary shopping or for a special gift

Our most convenient parish fundraiser benefits St. Hugh as you buy groceries, pick-up prescriptions, order coffee, and do other ordinary shopping. The list of all participating retailers is posted in the church vestibule and is available at www.sthughlyons.org - FUNDRAISING. In stock scrip (gift cards) are available after the weekend Masses and during the week at the parish office. Next weekend, see Rosemary Kufra (8:00) or Nicki Mendez (10:30). They have in-stock scrip for: Amazon $10, CVS $25, Dunkin Donuts $10, Home Depot $25, iTunes $15, Jewel $25, Kohl's $25, Menard's $25, Starbucks $10, Target $25, Walgreens $25, & Walmart $25.

Fatima Centennial

All are welcome to our monthly celebration of the apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima sponsored by our Society of Catholic Women.

On Saturday August 19, at 1:00pm, we will welcome the Rev. James Presta to speak on Heaven's Plan for Your Happiness.

Father Presta is a professor of Mariology for the Archdiocese of Chicago and pastor of St. Emily Parish (Mount Prospect). Enjoy ice cream with us in the garden after the presentation and Marian devotions in church.

For more information, contact SCW V.P. Sue Kahler at 708.447.9276 or skahler@avma.org.

Treasures from our tradition

As the Latin Mass evolved in the first six centuries, the central prayer, what the Greeks called the anaphora and what we call today the Eucharistic Prayer, became fairly standard almost everywhere in the West. What we now know as Eucharistic Prayer I, or the Roman Canon, took a complex shape, not at all like the fluid and spontaneous prayers of early Rome, but a real architectural construction.

The city of Rome was in a terrible condition by that time, and a series of political upheavals, plagues, and invasions swept through. Not much of Rome's former glory was left standing, except for the pope, who became a symbol of protection and hope for the troubled people. The structures of law and administration were swept away in the chaos, and the pope gradually assumed authority to restore and maintain order. Soon, the public liturgy of Rome became the city's only glory. The Romans wanted "good order" not only in their civic life, but in their liturgy. One prayer, increasingly enriched by music (although when the music tried to overtake the prayer the pope banned musical instruments entirely) was the new rule of the day. That one prayer, the Roman Canon, was solidly in place when the first liturgical book we have, the Leonine Sacramentary of 540, was compiled.

The Transfiguration of the Lord

When Jesus took three of his disciples to the top of a high mountain, something very special happened.

You can read the story of this event, called the Transfiguration, in three Gospels in your Bible: Matthew 17:1-9, Mark 9:2-10, and Luke 9:28b-36.

Each crossword clue describes someone from this story.

See if you can fill in all their names.

Some clues are similar, yet each refers to someone (or something) different.
