SCW Membership Drive this weekend

From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Twentieth-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Religious Education sessions begin this Sunday. Parents, who have not yet done so, should register their grade school aged children for classes. Parents and students will meet in church at 9:00am on Sunday September 13.

On September 20, Catechetical Sunday, we will publicly commission and formally thank our catechists during the 10:30am Mass. This year's national theme is Safeguarding the Dignity of Every Human Person. Catechetical Sunday, annually celebrated on the third Sunday of September, is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel.

The members of the parish finance committee (Cathy Bergman, Tom Cooney, Shelley Drogos, Lorraine Marek, Kim Thomas, Mary Zarbock) met on August 31 to approve the annual report for the fiscal year that ended on June 30, 2015. The report has been submitted to the Archdiocese and is reprinted to the right. While there were some changes in accounting, the previous year's report is also printed for comparison purposes.

Once again we are pleased to show that revenue was up and that expenses were down. While still required to draw down on savings, we did so at a lower amount. I am grateful for the work of Christine Alfred and the finance committee in helping us be faithful stewards. Thank you for your continued support of the work and mission of Saint Hugh Parish.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Father Reszel

God's Word Today
The first line of today's first reading from the prophet Isaiah seems to pick up the themes from last week's readings. Isaiah tells us that "the Lord GOD opens my ear that I may hear." As we open our hearts to hear God's word today, let us be prepared to fashion an answer to the question posed by Jesus to his disciples: "Who do people say that I am?" Each of us has experienced the presence of the Lord Jesus in our lives. When did the Lord Jesus become your own personal Lord and Savior? Too often we think this question is appropriate only for evangelical Christians. As Catholics we can be put off by such a question, yet that question—and its answer—are at the core of who we are as followers of Christ. Invite the Lord into your heart in new ways as the scriptures are proclaimed today. Ponder the Lord's question before Mass and place yourself within the circle of Christ's disciples as the passage from Saint Mark's Gospel is proclaimed.

Stewardship thought

Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. MARK 8:34

When we truly believe that all we have is a gift from God, then we must be willing to give up some things so that we can share our blessings as God intended. Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for our own life, but the lives of others as well.

Question of the Week

What shape does my particular cross take? What is the heaviest aspect of it? Forgetting my own cross for a moment, whose cross do I need to help carry this week?

Hope Out of Darkness

Underlying the principle of the common good is respect for the human person as such, endowed with basic and inalienable rights ordered to his or her integral development.

~ Pope Francis, Laudato Si'

Together, we can challenge a culture of moral indifference toward families as we journey toward the common good. Let us be mindful for the separation of families and the detention of families, especially of children. Join others across the Chicago area on the tenth anniversary Catholic Campaign for Immigration Reform Walking with Faith, Following Hope on September 19. Society of Catholic Women

Following this weekend's membership drive, our SCW will hold its first gathering of the fiscal year in Keating Hall on Monday September 14 beginning with the Rosary at 6:30pm.

The Saint Hugh Society of Catholic Women, a member of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, is open to all women and young ladies (ages 12-17 = Junior SCW) of our parish. Monday's agenda includes our exciting plans for new year including our annual Christmas Bazaar on Saturday December 5.

Eucharistic Prayer III by Paul Turner

The heart of the Mass is the eucharistic prayer. We have a variety of prayers to choose from, but they all begin with the preface dialogue ("The Lord be with you. ... Lift up your hearts") and end with the great Amen. The assembly sings several acclamations: the Holy, the memorial acclamation and the great Amen. But the rest of the prayer is verbalized by the priest.

Even though the priest alone speaks the words out loud, all in the assembly join their hearts together in prayer with him.

For many centuries, the Roman church used only one such prayer, which we now call Eucharistic Prayer I. Immediately after the Second Vatican Council, we added three more prayers to the repertoire. More have followed since. Of those first three new prayers, II and IV were based on texts from the first few centuries after Christ. However, Eucharistic Prayer III was a new composition based on the old forms.

Eucharistic Prayer III has no preface of its own between the opening dialogue and the Holy. Nearly 100 different prefaces may be used to open the prayer. After the Holy is sung, Prayer III starts with the words, "You are indeed holy, O Lord, and all you have created rightly gives you praise." The entire opening of the prayer—the preface, the Holy, and these first lines—all give praise to God.

The rest of the prayer follows a traditional outline. We pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the bread and wine. We remember the mighty deeds of God, especially the events of the last supper. We sing the mystery of our faith. We offer our gift to God. We pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit over the assembly. We pray intercessions for the church's ministers, for the living and the dead. We conclude the prayer with a doxology and Amen.

We often use Eucharistic Prayer III on Sundays and on feasts, especially because the interchangeable prefaces can identify the significance of the day of celebration. Copyright © 2012 Resource Publications, Inc., 160 E. Virginia St. #170, San Jose, CA 95112, 408.286.8505

Treasures from our tradition

It seems obvious to us that Jesus Christ is the Lord of second chances. We need look no further than Peter's denial and rehabilitation for proof. Yet early Christians were more tentative with the gift of forgiveness. For them, every Sunday was an experience of the Lord's power to heal and forgive, yet there were three sins that placed persons at the margins of the community's life. In some places, the rift caused by these sins was permanent. The sins were apostasy (denial of the faith), adultery, and murder. They were particularly detested because of their power to divide and even scatter the community gathered around the Lord's table. Fragile and persecuted communities could crumble and disappear under the weight of a harm done by a public sinner. Sinners were excluded from the community in the hope that "tough love" would help them come to their senses and experience deeper conversion. Inevitably, lists of grave sins grew longer as various bishops added their personal pet peeves to the roster, and more people were required to do public penance. For them, reconciliation was a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Many sinners accepted their condition and hoped for a chance at a deathbed reconciliation by anointing. With more and more people permanently on the outs, the church began to struggle toward the light of the Lord's unfailing gift of reconciliation.
