

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A silhouette of a person carrying a large wooden cross on their shoulders, walking on a beach at sunset. The person is walking from left to right, and the cross is positioned diagonally across their back. The background shows the ocean and a sky with a mix of orange, yellow, and blue hues. The person's reflection is visible in the shallow water on the sand.

Jesus said to his disciples,
“Whoever wishes
to come after me
must deny himself,
take up his cross,
and follow me.”

Matthew 16:24

SEPTEMBER 3, 2017

From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Big changes for our bulletin beginning this weekend.

What's new:

- Eight pages rather than six.
- Full color on four pages.
- Larger font size for easier reading. For your information this is: Tw Cen MT 12
- Expanded You are invited to: now using recognizable logos
- Deliberate inclusion of more pictures of parish activities E.g. baptism photo on page 4 and picnic pix on page 5

What's the same:

- Our commitment to effectively communicate with parishioners.
- All features and information have been retained, but some are in a new location. Everything is under review. Consider the next few weeks as transition.
- Your suggestions, comments, and digital pictures are encouraged. Please send them to the bulletin editor: marcreszel@gmail.com

Monday September 4 is Labor Day. During the 10:30am holiday Mass we will bless the tools or symbols of our work. Those attending the Mass are encouraged to place a work related item before the altar for the blessing. The Parish Office will be closed for the national holiday.

Let us continue to pray for one another and for our parish.

Reverence by Paul Turner

Present at the Eucharist as the people of God, we share an awesome task. We the baptized are the ones God has chosen to be a royal priesthood. At Eucharist, the task of the whole people is priestly. We give thanks to God and offer the perfect sacrifice, the Body and Blood of Christ, together with ourselves. It is not the presider alone who makes this offering—it is all of us. Consequently, attention to our duty is critical for a meaningful celebration of the Eucharist. The church asks us to act with reverence—for the Eucharist, for our role in it, and for the community. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal says the faithful should endeavor to make their role clear by their deep religious sense and their charity toward all who participate with them in the celebration (95).

Reverence and charity may take different forms. Entering the church, we greet those with whom we will celebrate this Mass. We sign ourselves with water that recalls our priestly mission. We bow to the altar where our thanksgiving will be made or we genuflect to the tabernacle if it is central in the sanctuary. We sing the songs. We make the responses. We listen to God's word. We pray all the prayers, even those spoken by the presider alone. We share the Eucharist in faith.

At times our actions may threaten the task we perform. When we needlessly attend to other matters or neglect the songs and silences and prayers, we make it difficult for ourselves and for others to carry the reverence and charity needed for our task. Mass is not like watching a band perform music; it's like playing an instrument in the band. Sometimes you play with everyone else; sometimes you rest; sometimes you solo. But we all make the music. It requires attention and teamwork.

To carry out our priestly mission we practice reverence for God and charity for one another. If someone else's idea of reverence conflicts with yours, practice charity. It helps us fulfill our awesome task.

Saint of the Day

September 8. Affirming the humanity of Jesus, the Church celebrates the birth of Mary, his mother. While Scripture does not record the birth of Mary, the apocryphal Protoevangelium of James notes the development of Christian piety around Mary's birth.

September 9. A native of Spain, young Jesuit Peter Claver left his homeland forever in 1610 to be a missionary in the colonies of the New World. He sailed into Cartagena, and began a ministry to the slaves brought there from West Africa as well as becoming a moral force to the city of Cartagena.

Stewardship thought

What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? - Matthew 16:26

St. Francis of Assisi once said, "Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else." We often forget this stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent and treasure to gain more of the world's riches. We need to set our priorities based on God's values and not the values of the material world.

Wills / Bequests

After providing for your loved ones, please consider naming Saint Hugh Parish as a beneficiary of your estate.

Question of the week

How does Peter's continuing presence in the Church through the ministry of Pope Francis impact my life of witness?

Vincentian reflection

Today, we hear Jesus say to us, "For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." The challenge is to let go so God can lead us. Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

On September 7 the Church honors Blessed Frédéric Ozanam. In 1833 he founded the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul.

Of musical note

Why join music ministry at St. Hugh? We are a group of people who are involved, caring, praying and dedicated to the musical prayer life of the church. What does a choir do? The choir leads the assembly's song, provides embellishment to things the assembly does well, and does things beautifully what the assembly cannot do for itself. What difference does music make? Music carries us to a place where words alone can never take us and is a special sign of unity, oneness, faith and spirit. Contact Fran Serpe to share your talents and serve the Church.

Treasures

from our tradition

It's interesting to imagine the scene when the changes in our liturgy were first tested. Choices for prayer texts were one thing, but responses from the people were another. In early 1967, secret test-drives of the new Mass were conducted in the Vatican. Pope Paul VI was present, and there was a handful of bishops, priests, a few laypeople and two sisters making up the assembly. Everyone had a booklet with every word of the songs, rubrics, and prayers, blank paper, and a pencil for notes. After each Mass, the ordained men in the group met in the pope's library to share their experiences. The laypeople and sisters met separately.

Over a week's time they tested what they called a "read Mass with singing," a "Mass entirely recited," and a "Sung Mass." While the ordained were generally in favor, the lay comments were very clear and insightful, and had great impact on the final result. This was a brilliant plan on the part of the pope, who got to see how the reform was going, and to recognize in this small trial run a growing consensus that reform was needed and welcome. Based on his observation, Pope Paul VI called for specific innovations, such as beginning the Mass with the sign of the cross. It's amazing that some of our most familiar rites are really quite new treasures of our tradition!
