May 31, 2015 – The Most Holy Trinity

THE TRINITY IS LOVE

Theologians throughout the Christian centuries have spilled much ink (and, on occasion, some blood) in describing and defining the mystery of the Holy Trinity. One of the earliest, most poetic, and beautiful descriptions comes from St. Augustine in De Trinitas, wherein he describes the Trinity as One (the Father) who loves, One (the Son) who is loved, and One (the Spirit) who is love. And these three Ones are also one Three.

It might be wisest for us to leave the technical wrangling's to the academic theologians, and focus on the fact that the three Persons of the Trinity are indeed persons; they are best known and understood in their love for each other and for us. We are made in the image of those loving persons, and our best relationships are lived out in the context of love. Truly loving relationships are inexhaustible mysteries to be lived in joy. If this is true of our human relationships, how much more so is it true of our relationship with the Trinity. And how much more does it call upon us to be joyful, loving witnesses of the holy mystery of the One-in-Three. This is the mystery to which we were called when we were chosen to be God's own, baptized with water in the name of the Holy Trinity.

GRADUATIONS ... I offer special congratulations to all our Graduates from Kindergarten through graduate school. I offer more special regards to one of our graduates a few years back, Thomas Kozmel. Tom most recently received his doctorate from IIT. Dr. Kozmel is well on his way to a promising career. He remains faithful to his parish and ministry trusting in the firm foundation that St. Jane Parish and School gave him. Never underestimate what a small parish catholic school can offer a student. I'm sure there are many other stories out there of the great accomplishments of our graduates. Please forward those stories to me and I will keep spreading the good news.

ANOTHER ST. JANE PARISH

Remember Stanley Niec? Stanley is pictured below with his daughter Mary Jo Murray and former parishioner, Joanne Dziejewski-Kaminski. They were visiting family in Abita Springs, LA when they came across another St. Jane de Chantal Parish. Check out the interior of the sanctuary and altar. It is quite different than our church and much older. Thank you Stan for the pictures. He tells me that Joanne was instrumental in the design and building of our altar. Thank you Joanne and Stan for your many years of service to our parish and helping to build this parish. We promise to do the best to keep our parish together and maintained.

GRACE SEEDS MINISTRY

A Blessing by Fr. Cronin was added to help the garden grow

The vegetable garden is off and planted! Thank you to the head gardeners, Rev.

Linda Wygant, Gerry Soukal, Joan Saliskas and Tom Donegan who are training the new associate gardeners from 8th grade, Matt Dixon, Mike Hamm, Cristina Maldonado, Alex Reina, Julian Ruiz and Julian Salgado. Everyone was getting their hands plenty dirty and learning the art of planting carrots and beans. Mr. Soukal is using his grandfather's 100 year old sifter. WOW!

Enjoy these beautiful pictures and wonderful news. Blessings!!! - Fr. Cronin
