

Greetings in Christ! Thank you to all who will be helping to put on and donating to the seminarian benefit lunch this Sunday at Sacred Heart parish hall after the 10am Mass. God bless you for your prayerful support of priestly vocations in our Diocese!

Our first reading and the Gospel this weekend remind us of the power of God's word that we receive in Sacred Scripture. Hopefully, we are all devoted to regular reading and reflection on Sacred Scripture and thereby draw ever closer in our personal relationship with God.

Thank you to Fr. Thury for his coverage while I am away visiting my parents. During the season of Lent through Holy Week, Fr. Thury will be giving coverage to three parishes in West River: Presho, Murdo and Draper. He'll be a long commuter, so as to return to Dimock during the weekdays!

Some future projects for each of the parishes discussed at our recent parish finance councils:

At Ss. Peter and Paul parish, we hope to have in place by springtime, a new "wrap-around" chair lift in the west entryway that will not only go up the stairs to the church, but also down to the restroom area in the basement. (Subject to the approval of the Bishop)

At Sacred Heart parish, (hopefully by spring/summer of 2017), we plan to add six stained glass windows each with some art pertaining to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. As well as adding to the sacred environment of the church, it also adds some very practical advantages: more light and with "hopper" windows to allow in fresh air on occasion. We are in the early stages of communication with stained glass companies and also locally with MidContinent. (Subject to the approval of the Bishop)

Also, this spring, the six large colored glass panels in the main entryway of Sacred Heart church are going to receive some maintenance work and have an 1/4" acrylic panel placed over them. The material that is holding the pieces of glass together is deteriorating and so help is needed to upgrade the situation. It will be a little over $9,000 for the labor and materials on that project.

None of the above projects will entail special fundraising, but if anyone would like to make a special contribution toward any of the projects once underway, you are more than welcome to make such an offering!

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar In today's gospel Jesus was "praised by all" except at home in Nazareth where the "eyes of all were intently on him." Acceptance can be hard to find at home due to unreal EXPECTATIONS. Jesus challenges us to "proclaim liberty" to anyone "oppressed" or "captive' by our EXPECTATIONS.

"...and, Lord, help me pray slower withoutrushingtogetdoneamen." from The Joyful Noiseletter Reprinted with permission of Bil Keane of making name tags for the group, the members of his congregation decided to play a practical joke on the pastor, and labeled his tag Hog Caller.

When the pastor saw his name tag, he laughed. "They usually call me the Shepherd of the Sheep," he quipped, "but I suppose our members know themselves better than I do." Rev. Dennis R. Fakes

A Lutheran pastor who served a deaf congregation fumbled through his sermons weekly. Although he had a good background in sign language, the pastor didn't know the sign for "testament." so every time he had to spell out the word Old or New and then the word Testament.

One Sunday morning the pastor got creative and invented a sign for the missing word. When he read from the Psalms, he signed "Old" and then made the sign for the letter T. the congregation giggled. Then, when he read from Luke, he signed "New" and did the same T sign. Again, the congregation giggled. After the service, one of the parishioners were still giggling as they greeted the pastor. Finally, a member told him: "Do you know what you read today?" you read lessons from the old and new toilet." Ronald Lee

A Presbyterian minister carefully prepared his sermons, word-for-word, and placed them in a loose-leaf binder, which he took with him to the pulpit Sunday mornings. One Saturday night, his son, just for fun, removed a sheet from the scripted sermon.

As the preacher read his sermon the next morning—"and Adam said to Eve"- - he turned the page and discovered it was missing. Per-plexed, he looked a the congregation and exclaimed, "There must be a leaf missing here."- Carroll Lamb

A pastor went on a week's vacation and left his new young associate pastor in charge of the Sunday service. When he returned, he asked a member how his associate had performed. "He gave dull sermon-not much in it." the member answered.

When he saw his associate, the pastor asked how he had felt about Sunday morning. "Very good," the associated responded. "I didn't have time to put together a sermon, but I found one of yours. So I preached it."
