4th Sunday Ordinary Time
Jan 31, 2016

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. — Lk 4: 28-30

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Pray for Peace in the Womb and the World!

Father, may I receive Your love and grow in Your love so I can give love and act out of charity. Amen

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins,
 save us from the fires of hell,
 and lead all souls to heaven,
 especially those in most need of thy mercy.

Greetings in Christ!

Thank you to all who helped with the fundraiser to assist our diocesan seminarians. We are blessed to have twenty-nine fine young men in seminarian formation for our diocese. The diocese of San Jose, CA, where my parents live, currently have ten seminarians and I'm guessing that the diocese of San Jose has at least five times the number of Catholics in comparison to the diocese here.

Prayer Line.... call if you are in need of extra prayers if sick or suffering. Contact Deacon Barry or Doris Wagner. Home line 928-3730 or deacon's cell 770-9990.

Since the average age of our current group of priests is about sixty years of age, it is clear that we need a good number of future priests to replace our older ones. I'm not that far away from that average age!

CFSA 2016 Today we begin the Catholic Family Sharing Appeal 2016. CFSA challenges us each year to think beyond our walls and our individual needs. At some time in your life, you or someone you love will be served in one way or another from the ministries supported by CFSA. Your gift helps each of the 30 diocesan ministries reach out to thousands, including training our future priests, a respect for life, proclaiming Christ's message through the media, and providing counsel to the hurt and reaching our youth. This week you will receive a letter from Bishop Swain asking for your support for this year's CFSA.

Our parish goals are: at Sacred Heart $41,900.00; at Ss Peter & Paul $18,000.00. I am confident we will exceed this goal, but we need the help of everyone. Remember any amount raised above our goal stays in the parishes. Ask yourselves what have I done for the church. We have so many blessings coming our way. Help support the diocesan ministries. We sometimes take them for granted. None of them come without a cost. Pray about your pledge and gift this year, and be generous.

A Family Perspective by Bud Mary and Joseph must have been proud when their village "all spoke well of Jesus and were amazed at his words." But they probably felt shame when the same people drove him out of town. Like Mary and Joseph, the highs and lows of parenting are our path to being a Holy Family.

Over breakfast one morning, a woman said to her husband, "I'll bet you don't know what day this is."
"Of course I do," he answered as if he was offended, and left for the office.
At 10:00 a.m., the doorbell rang and when the woman opened the door, she was handed a box of a dozen long stemmed red roses. At 1:00 p.m., a foil-wrapped, two-pound box of her favorite chocolates was delivered. Later, a boutique delivered a designer dress.
The woman couldn't wait for her husband to come home. "First the flowers, then the chocolates and then the dress!" she exclaimed.
"I've never had a more wonderful Groundhog Day in my life!"

Not going to try this again! A young girl decides to try horseback riding, even though she has had no lessons or prior experience. She mounts the horse unassisted and it immediately springs into motion. It gallops along at a steady and rhythmic pace, but the blonde begins to slip from the saddle. In terror, she grabs for the horse's mane, but cannot seem to get a firm grip. She tries to throw her arms around the horse's neck, but she slides down the side of the horse anyway. The horse gallops along, seemingly ignorant of its slipping rider. Finally, giving up her frail grip, the girl attempts to leap away from the horse and throw herself to safety. Unfortunately, her foot becomes entangled in the stirrup, and she is now at the mercy of the horse's pounding hooves as her shoulders strick against the ground over and over. She starts to lose consciousness, but to her great fortune, Bobby, the Wal-Mart greeter, sees her and unplugs the horse.

- How to Bathe the Cat!
1. Thoroughly clean the toilet.
 2. Add the required amount of shampoo to the toilet water, and have both lids lifted.
 3. Obtain the cat and soothe him while you carry him towards the bathroom.
 4. In one smooth movement, put the cat in the toilet and close both lids (you may need to stand on the lid so that he cannot escape). CAUTION: Do not get any part of your body too close to the edge, as his paws will be reaching out for any purchase they can find.
 5. Flush the toilet three or four times. This provides a "power wash and rinse" which I have found to be quite effective.
 6. Have someone open the door to the outside and ensure that there are no people between the toilet and the outside door.
 7. Stand behind the toilet as far as you can, and quickly lift both lids.
 8. The now-clean cat will rocket out of the toilet, and run outside where he will dry himself. Sincerely, The DOG
