29th Sunday Ordinary Time
Oct. 18, 2015

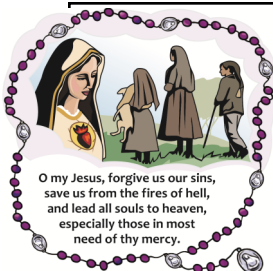

“The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared.” — Mk 10:39b-40

Pray for Peace in the Womb and the World!

Father, may our culture not limit my faith,
 but my faith transform our culture. Amen

Greetings in Christ! Thank you for your support of Catholic missionaries. Such persons do sacrifice much for Christ in behalf of us all to spread the Gospel throughout the world. This can include dangers and persecutions. Special collection envelopes have been placed in the bulletin (last week at Ss Peter and Paul and this week at Sacred Heart). You can place your offering in with the regular collection in the next couple of weekends.

Thank you to all who came to my birthday potluck following Mass last Wednesday and for all the wonderful birthday cards, gifts and greetings whether in person or through the mail. Here are a few classic one-liners on aging:

--Age is an issue of mind over matter. If you don't mind, it doesn't matter. (Mark Twain)

--You know you're getting old when you stoop to tie your shoelaces and wonder what else you could do while you're down there. (George Burns)

--She said she was approaching forty, and I couldn't help wondering from what direction. (Bob Hope)

JoAnn Hoffman has been doing great work for Sacred Heart parish for many years. She has announced that she'll be retiring come July, 2016. So, starting now and for the next couple of months, I will be accepting resumes from interested persons from any of our nearby communities. I may separate out some of JoAnn's duties into separate positions. This includes her roles as parish secretary (which includes a wide variety of tasks), bookkeeper, bulletin, director of religious education and CYO coordinator, church decorator and caring for parish grounds plants and flowers. Soon after the New Year, I plan on interviewing applicants. I aim to make my hiring decisions by May of 2016, so that the person(s) can start working and learning under JoAnn and myself for a couple of months prior to JoAnn's retirement. Having good people skills, plus know-how and working experience with a computer is a must. You can mail or drop off your resumes at Sacred Heart parish office. Background checks (paid by the parish) and annual Safe Environment training are requirements for anyone as an employee of the parish.

Scripture studies (with potluck) at Sacred Heart parish hall:

Sunday, Nov. 8th following the 10am Mass Saturday, Nov. 14th following the 5pm Mass

Pews for sale: 10' 7" wide, white oak and laminate, $50 each (located in Ethan)

15' 6" wide, solid red oak, $125 each (located in Tripp)

We are hoping to sell as many of the remaining pews out of the former church structures before we have to move them (which will probably be within the next few weeks). Contact the parish office at 928-3676.

Thank you for your prayers for Deacon Barry. He called following his knee replacement surgery and said the surgeon was pleased with the results. Now, Deacon, is going through therapy and hopefully he will be back with us soon.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar "Advise" books abound on marriage and parenting. Jesus tells us in today's gospel the real secret: satisfying relationships depend on how well we sacrifice our needs to serve others. It is not about "getting," it's about "giving" ourselves. If you feel like you are a servant to your children and spouse, then you are doing it right.

The Vikings and Packers

This joke I heard from a Packer fan...
 One season, the Vikings and Packers ended the year tied. Every tiebreaker the NFL had was used to break the tie, but the tie remained. Which team would be the NFC Central Champion? The NFL office was consulted. They said to figure it out locally, something like a coin toss would be fine. Well, Minnesota and Wisconsin being the fishing states they are, someone got the idea of a 3-day fishing contest. Both teams agreed.

On the first day, the Packers caught 100 fish, while the Vikings caught none. On the second day, the Packers again caught fish, 200 this time. Once again, the Vikings were skunked.

Things were looking bad for the Vikings - the Viking coach was desperate. He called one of his players aside, and dressed him in green and gold.

"Go over to the Packer camp and find out what they're doing!" he was told.

The Viking player returned a couple of hours later. "I know what they're doing Coach!" he reported excitedly. "Well what is it? asked the Coach.

"They're drilling holes thru the ice..." came the reply.

Floridians... There were two old boys from Florida who just loved to fish, and they wanted to try some ice fishing. They'd heard about it up in South Dakota, and they took off up there. The lake was frozen nicely.

They stopped just before they got to the lake at a little bait shop and got all their tackle. One of them said, "We're going to need an ice pick." So they got that, and they took off. In about two hours, one of them was back at the shop and said, "We're going to need another dozen ice picks."

Well, the fellow in the shop wanted to ask some questions, but he didn't. He sold him the picks, and the old boy left. In about an hour, he was back. Said, "We're going to need all the ice picks you've got." The bait shop man couldn't stand it any longer. "By the way," he asked, "how are you fellows doing?"

"Not very well at all," he said. "We don't even have the boat in the water yet."

Obituary... To those in Minnesota, North Dakota and for that matter, the rest of the country, including Canada, I must report the sad news that Ole was SHOT.

He was up by the Canadian border on his 4-wheeler cutting some trees when some rangers looking for terrorists spotted him. According to the eye witness reports, the rangers shouted to him over a loudspeaker, "Who are you and what are you doing?" Ole shouted back, "OLE..... BIN LOGGIN!" Ole is survived by his wife Lena and her good friend, Lars.

"How about pointing them while they're still on the ground?"
