30th Sunday Ordinary Time
Oct. 25, 2015

“Son of David, have pity on me.” Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.”
 So they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you.” Jesus said to him in reply, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man replied to him, “Master, I want to see.”

JoAnn Hoffman has been doing great work for Sacred Heart parish for many years. She has announced that she'll be retiring come July, 2016. So, starting now and for the next couple of months, I will be accepting resumes from interested persons from any of our nearby communities. I may separate out some of JoAnn's duties into separate positions. This includes her roles as parish secretary (which includes a wide variety of tasks), bookkeeper, director of religious education and CYO coordinator, church decorator and caring for outside parish plants and flowers. Soon, after New Year, I plan on interviewing applicants. I aim to make my hiring decisions by May of 2016, so that the person(s) can start working and learning under JoAnn and myself for a couple of months prior to JoAnn's retirement. Having good people skills, plus know-how and working experience with computers are a must. You can mail or drop off your resumes at Sacred Heart parish office. Background checks (paid by the parish) and annual Safe Environment training are requirements for anyone as an employee of the parish

Remember: Daylight Savings time ends next weekend--so we "fall" back an hour.

Twice a year, we change the clocks for daylight-savings time. And twice a year, my normally punctual assistant arrives late to work the Monday after we do so. I finally had to find out why. "Do you have a problem remembering to spring forward or fall back?" I asked. "Oh, no," she said, pouring herself a cup of coffee. "What gets to me is staying up until 2 a.m. to change my clock."

It happens every spring: crocuses, baseball (with any luck), and the switch to Daylight Savings Time (DST). Coming off DST is not hard. In the Fall, we set our clocks back one hour. We all get an extra hour to sleep, and those who forget find themselves at church, or the airport, or wherever an hour early. Embarrassing, but not catastrophic. But in the Spring we set the clocks forward, and the trouble begins. We lose an hour of sleep. Forgetful people miss Mass, planes, breakfast, and the big game on TV. Some are thrown into disarray for up to a full week. Annual losses due to DST confusion have been estimated (by me) at over a million dollars. I myself have missed a flight to Washington and a showing of The Seven Samurai because of DST.

There is no need for such tragic waste. We can – we should and must – urge our lawmakers to reform Daylight Savings Time as follows: Setting clocks back is easy; setting them forward is difficult. Therefore, let us keep the fall ritual as it is. However, one Sunday each Spring, let us set our clocks not one hour forward, but TWENTY-THREE HOURS BACKWARD.

Think of all the advantages. We will not lose an hour of sleep; we will gain (almost) a day of rest. It will be Saturday all over again. You will never again miss Confession, or an airplane, or the Redskins game.

Naturally, if this were the whole plan, our calendars would fall behind one day in each year. However, the second part of the Revised DST Plan deals with this. Every four years, instead of adding a day, let us SUBTRACT THREE DAYS. Furthermore, let these be Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, which according to recent polls are the least popular days. If done in February, which seems reasonable considering what a miserable month it is, this would have the beneficial side effect of shortening the excruciating presidential primary season by an effective four days. The advantages of this plan are clear. Let us waste no time. With a determined effort we can have Reformed Daylight Savings Time by Spring of next year.

Daylight Savings Time???

For parents of small children, daylight savings is cruel and unusual punishment. You will never find anybody who can give you a clear and compelling reason why we observe daylight savings time.

THEY'VE COME UP WITH SOMETHING CALLED "DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME," AND I'M DARNED IF I CAN UNDERSTAND IT!
