32nd Sunday Ordinary Time Nov. 8, 2015

Many rich people put in large sums. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

— Mk 12:41c, 43-44

Pray for Peace in the Womb and the World!

Father, I accept You as Lord of "my" money and possessions. Amen

Greetings in Christ! Hard to believe we are already into November. What a beautiful fall it has been. Long range weather forecasts predict a milder than average winter too. Wouldn't that be something! We probably be able to put 2015 down in our memories as one of the nicest weather years ever in our area. I hope the nice weather continues as I will be away for some weekdays for annual retreat time. If you have need for a priest contact the parish office in Parkston/or directly to Fr. Thury who will give coverage through Friday.

Thank you to all who helped with the food bank benefit last Sunday and will be helping and attending the CCD breakfast fundraiser this Sunday at Ss. Peter & Paul parish hall, Dimock (serving from 9am to 12:30pm).

If you are asked to help move pews into storage from the former churches (of Tripp & Ethan) please say "yes"! We need to get that done in this month-the sooner the better. We still are selling the pews we have on hand (two kinds). If you or anyone you know is interested in purchasing some, please call us at the parish office: 928-3676.

Next Scripture studies (with potluck) in Sacred Heart parish hall:

After this Sunday, 10am Mass, Nov. 8th

After the Saturday, 5pm Mass, Nov. 14th

JoAnn Hoffman has been doing great work for Sacred Heart parish from many years. She has announced that she'll be retiring come July, 2016. So, starting now and for the next couple of months, I will be accepting resumes and references from interested persons from any of our nearby communities. I may separate out some of JoAnn's duties into separate positions. These include her roles as parish secretary (which includes a wide array of tasks), bookkeeper, bulletin publishing, director of religious education and CYO coordinator, church decorator and taking care of outside parish grounds plants and flowers. Soon, sometime after the New Year, I plan on interviewing applicants. I aim to make my hiring decisions by May of 2016, so that the person(s) can start paid work and learning under JoAnn and myself for a couple of months prior to JoAnn's retirement. Having good people skills, plus solid knowledge and working experience with computers and bookkeeping skills are necessary. You can mail or drop off your resumes/references at Sacred Heart parish office. (PO Box 460). Background checks (paid for by the parish) and annual diocesan Safe Environment training are requirements for anyone to be an employee of the parish

Let Us Pray: Gracious God, You have called me to life and gifted me in many ways. Through Baptism You have sent me to continue the mission of Jesus by sharing my love with others.

Strengthen me to respond to Your call each day.

Help me to become all You desire of me.

Inspire me to make a difference in others' lives.

Lead me to choose the way of life You have planned for me.

Open the hearts of all to listen to Your call.

Fill all with Your Holy Spirit that we may have listening hearts and the courage to respond to You.

Enkindle in my heart and the hearts of others the desire to make the world a better place by serving as Lay Minister, Sister, Priest, Brother or Deacon. Amen

Real Heroes

Real heroes wear
our uniform

You'll see no numbers that's the norm.

To serve us faithful is their cause

Determined minds,
they'll never pause.

Sincere, they love
our country true

Sleep well my friends, they serve for you.

We sometimes see them on our shore

While others brave a foreign tour.

So trained and drilled to do it all

In time of need they'll meet each call.

They make a total treasured sight

No finer known, a mom's delight.

God hold them safe and keep them well

Till soldiers return home to dwell.

he do?" his friends wanted to know. "Nothing much. But he would be 165 years old."

The elderly American gentleman arrived in Paris by plane. At French Customs, he fumbled for his passport. "You 'ave been to France before, monsieur?" the customs officer asked sarcastically. The old gent admitted that he had been to France previously. "Zen, you should know enough to 'ave your passport ready for inspection." The American said, "The last time I was here, I didn't have to show it." "Impossible. You Americans always 'ave to show your passports on arrival in France!" The American senior gave the Frenchman a long hard look. Then he quietly explained. "Well, when I came ashore at Omaha Beach on D-Day in '44, I couldn't find any Frenchmen to show it to."
